

Hatton-garden, for having e from the Foreign-office, weep.

yal Yacht Club, is appointed the eastern sea, 180 miles of Borneo, and he has sold side there.

arnock, an ingenious artist pointed rifle maker to Prince ttlesley, son of the late Lord er of the Oxford circuit, has or South Australia, in which ing as a settler.

ohn Russell to confirm the ajor O'Reilly, at the Cape of ld have been perfected many some omission of the Cape glected, had created disgust old and meritorious servant.
of Anderson, Garrow, and Co. ppage was announced, have

Peel won the Northamptonanover have instituted a pronkeeper at Hartzberg, for f the late Queen.

young gentlemen were eating Liverpool, one of them unfor-one in his throat, and could or the other. A surgeon was efore he arrived the unfortun-ad.

ed with having bank notes and £581, the property of Messrs. brass founders, of Birmingstolen from the Birmingham r, 1828, was committed to the SEPTEMBER 7.

t will not leave until Thursday ving day Lord De Grey, his The Lord Lieutenant will hold morning of his departure, and immediately from the Castle erence to the new Lord Lieu-et kind and courteous in def affluence, fond of the arts, and firm in purpose, the Earl reland justly and mildly. A Countess does not exist; one , or more charitable in action, name."

re entered into to prosecute e returns for the City of Dublin ne.

nkruptcy, Mr. Commissioner be glad that the commercial ned that where parties endors-otice of their dishonour, they ccountable; and although the nt case had fled to America, it might not return and settle gaol by Alderman Watson, charged with stealing 5000 corn sacks from several merchants in Liverpool, in June last, including E. W. Gable, G. Gradwell, & Co. and B. Herd, & Co. Leney was apprehended in this City, by Serjeant Riedy.

Two ladies of the pave were lodged in gaol on Monday, for easing two sailors of their garments at an house of ill-fame in Mary-street.

The following convicts were forwarded hence yesterday morning for Kilmainham under a police escort, pursuant to sentence of transportation; from the County Gaol:—Catherine Ryder, administering poison, 15 years; Margaret Griffin, knowingly receiving stolen goods at Rathkeale, 7 years. From the City Gaol—Ellen Talbot and Mary Hanrahan, robbery, 7 years each.

Emigration to China is now offered to her Majesty's subjects, by the British Commissioner at Canton, on terms similar to those some time prevalent in regard to Australia. A settlement is fixed at Hongkong.

The James Ewings sailed from Canton, on the 10th of May, for Cork, with a cargo of teas.

Mr. John Kirby, whose appointment as keeper of the lunatic department of the Union Workhouse, was negatived by the Commissioners, is nominated to a clerkship in the Custom-house of this port, at £80 salary. This situation had been promised by the patron, one of the city members, to a young gentleman, the son of a respectable citizen.

Mr. Morgan Finucane, is appointed officer of Excise in this district.

There was a meeting at Tralee on Saturday in support of the Claremont deaf and dumb institution, Rev. Mr. Rowan in the chair.

The news from China, of several vessels having sailed last May, with full cargoes of tea for the English markets, has brought down the price of that article 5d. in the pound.

The Lord Lowther from Calcutta to London, arrived safe at the Cape of Good Hope, on the 25th of June.

Mrs. Thackaberry, wife of the Wesleyan Minister Cork, died on Thursday of fright, caused by an election mob breaking their windows in the late contest.

At Newcastle Petty Sessions, informations were ordered against David Cagney, for rescuing a cow distrained for Poor-law cess, by James Riedy, collector.

Constable Howe, of the Kilmeedy station, who served in the constabulary for 20 years, was discharged a few days ago on allowance of £21 a-year.

Sub-inspector Armstrong, of Newcastle, has offered a reward of £50 for the apprehension of John O'Brien charged with the murder of Michael Walsh, coming from the fair of Charleville.

On Thursday last, the first stone of a new Quarter Sessions-house was laid at Newcastle by the Earl of Devon's proxy. The site was well selected, being about four feet higher than the road: on a level with the Court, there will be a spacious terrace, between which and the road, will be an open space for carriages. The design, a Grecian building of cut stone, is by Jacob Owen, Esq. C. E. principal Engineer to the Board of Works, and it will be a great improvement to Newcastle, both as a useful and are not seeking to g so as to enable them The individual who to patron or party, n garily expressed. T acquainted with Ald can be; and having s tive city near 20 year the express request earnestly made to th filled the office of m the hatred or enmit officiated. The art Limerick never four or to extend redress self against the unju by the conviction recoil upon its auth the best shield agai

"Hic m
Nil conscire sibi

The Bishop of Ca Ordination on the before next year.

The Rev. William
at Kilkee from Cas

The Rectory of B Elphin, is vacant b Hackett.

The Annual mee
the Hibernian Chu place on Thursday, intends being prese on the 10th; Kil 14th; for the purpo places. A sermon Sunday next, by th

Miss King, a lad this morning prof and received the v
Dr. Ryan, and a m ceremonial.

Doctor Kinsella, declared that he sh geance of God fell who violated the
Dr. Foran, of Wat violated the pledge

Monday last, th Ballibay, and form bathing with two fortunately drown

There was an of yesterday, for the parish, who died l

At Ballinkillen
armed Whitefeet, during the celebr family, and dragg gallery, and would and all in the pre gation—and on th policemen in the c Mr. Kearney, was a car, and carried