

obtained were from £12 to £16 per hundred (six score.)

The price of all descriptions of timber is on the increase:
At the sale of sugars by Merrick Brothers of this city on Tuesday last, upwards of 40 hogsheads were sold at 40s. to 44s. 6d. per cwt.

Michael Hawkins, one of the principals in the murder of the late Patrick Clarke, Esq. of South-hill, in 1845, has been arrested at Toronto, Upper Canada, where he passed under the name of Kelly, and having been identified there, is now on his return in custody to Ireland for trial at the next assizes of Nenagh. Two of his confederates, Rice and Hayes, expiated by their lives for that barbarous murder.

The Owen Glendower, of the Western Yacht Club, left this river yesterday for Kenmare Bay.

Mrs. Crawford, wife of A. H. Crawford, Esq., County Surveyor for North Tipperary, met with a severe accident at Kilkee. Mrs. Crawford was walking on the grass when her foot slipped, and the ankle bones were broken by the fall.

The South riding of Tipperary will be saved £450 a-year, by transferring two-third cost of the extra Police force to the North riding of that county.

A Sub-Inspectorship of the Constabulary is vacant by the death of Mr. Coppinger, who died whilst acting in the commissariat department in the Crimea. He was many years in this county, and much regarded.

Ennis town commissioners are applying for the operation of the Public Libraries' Act in that town.

Damaged Ghirka wheat was sold at Cork this week at 27s 6d to 31s per barrel.

Major-General Lord Lucan consigned 4000 sheep to the hammer on the 22d inst. near Ballinrobe.

The Mayor of Kilkenny has resolved to abolish the fees of his secretary, and the Corporation are to appor-tion him a fixed salary in lieu.

Tramore races commence on Monday next.

Capt. Wilkinson, Revenue Police, is on a visit to his mother, in this city.

Belfast harbour commissioners have reduced the tonnage rates upon Irish coast steamers to the same as upon Irish coast sailing vessels.

Mr. Lacey is appointed clerk to the Cork market trustees.

Edmund Twomey, a young farmer from Limerick, was killed on Thursday by his run-away horse and car near Inchcummane bridge of the Cork railway.

Wednesday last two farm houses were burned by accident at Camas, near Bruff.

Mr. Mollard, of Cork, glove manufacturer, was fined 10s on Wednesday, for assault on Mr. Exham, solicitor by flinging a glove in his face.

Mr. Maher, master of Nenagh Work house, has resigned office.

Mr. Martin Ryan, of Borrisokane, is elected Clerk of Cashel union.

Winning horses at the Curragh yesterday—Lord Howth's Termagant, Col. Westenra's Jongleur, Mr. Smyth's Testy, Lord Waterford's Cheerful Horn, and Plum Pudding.