

ve schools had to be many
e them to enter the various
may be at present employed.
er to parents and pupils for
n stated.

your's truly,

D. A. SULLIVAN.

THE LIMERICK CHRONICLE.

our paper of Wednesday, a
an accident in which Doctors
had a "miraculous escape,"
to furnish you with a correct
wing to the one-sided state-received. At half-past five en passing Clonlara Church,
as frightened by a girl shaking
and ran away at a furious pace
my utmost to pull him up,
served two persons approach-
er side of the road, within a alsh's house. On my coming yards, the driver of the gig
both horses met each other breaking the vehicles, and es therein with violence on
I was riding, being a young,
ble animal," has received
recovering from the first discovered that Doctor Gore gig and horse, which I very
was purely an accident, over

As to what you state of the road mentioned by the Rev.
w any thing about it—it is
on that road before, and on
l party were quietly returning was frightened and ran as h the evidence of respectable

is will oblige yours respectfully
JOHN SPELLESSY.

DEATHS.

Suddenly, while overlooking his haymakers in a meadow at Pymount, county Kerry, Stephen C. Sandes, Esq. son of the late William Sandes, Esq. J.P. for that county.

At Moatfield, county of Dublin, Anne, the beloved wife
of Michael Staunton, Esq.

The Rev. Benjamin Seymour, aged 26, son of the late Rev.
Charles Seymour.

At Wood park, county Clare, aged 69, Elizabeth, relict of the late Michael Eyre Dalton, Esq.

At Roundstone, county Galway, Alexander Franck, Esq.

At Spa Field, county Tipperary, Maria Jane, wife of James Kennedy, Esq.

At Skibbereen, Thomas Collins, Esq. aged 79.

At Grand Parade, Cork. Miss Maria Langton.

At Carey's-road. Mrs. Ryan.

Serjeant Major Neiry, of the Clonmel enrolled Pensioners.

At Summer hill parade, Dublin, Nehemiah Bouchier Sandys,
Esq. eldest son of the late George Sandys, Esq. of Durham,
county Roscommon.

Mr. John Macken, aged 73, Inspector Butter-crane, Thomas-street.

At Allingham lodge, Bundoran. Maria, wife of Edward Allingham, Esq. JP, Stonebold, Ballyshannon, co. Donegal.

At Clara, Miss Mary Dillon, aged 60.

At Iping house, near Midhurst, Sussex. Gustavus Rochfort, Esq. late Captain 4th or Royal Irish Dragoon Guards, and only son of the late Col. Rochfort, of Rochfort, M.P. for the county Westmeath.

At St. Leonard's-on-the-Sea, the Rev. John Burrows, MA, only son of the late Major John Burrows, of 57th Regt.

At Craigton, near Winchburgh, Donald Smith, Esq. manager
of the Western Bank of Scotland.

At Woolwich, Bernard O'Neill, Esq. late of the Ordnance Department, aged 71.

At Walmer, George Appleyard, Esq. of Westbourne place,
Eaton-square, secretary and librarian to the Earls Spencer.

Suddenly, the Rev. George Riggs, Fellow of Oxford.

In Belgrave-square. James Singleton, Esq. aged 84.

At Shrewsbury, William Baylev, Esq. banker, aged 78.

At Heidelberg. Capt. C. J. Franklin Newton, R.N.

In Scutari hospital, last month, Serjeants Richard Shea, 49th, J. Cooper, 33d, and J. Russell, RHA.

At New York, John Gabbett Wilson, Esq. MD, late of this city, upon whose life large insurances at Limerick have been depending.

In New York, Maurice A. Daly, Esq. one of the editors of the 'Truth-Teller.' He was a native of Cork.

At Jullender, Major Charles Grissell, commanding 61st Regt.
Bengal NI.

In New Zealand, Richard Maxwell Sleggs, Esq., Captain in
the 65th Regiment.