

people. The sons crowding 29th regiment, which, has since ons from Kil- on its roman- most sanguine ting characters one of the first ning his retreat of hardy moun- untains; and at ges, boats, and , having been e of road leading ed with vehicles discharged, and s hounds, and n, and in a few wide spreading ad after gazing dily took flight ed by the dogs, ts of the moun- , and the music the mountains, most delightful rding two hours ed himself into ed him from the n board Captain d to Torc Lake, o shore, he once ntion of the vast the boat race, was never before ey. Torc Lake the beauties of eets of water in a last Wednesday by the combina- unusual resplende wave agitated o'clock it was han one hundred ed barge to the of silk flags; the admiral of the fleet nion jack hoist at gigs were started ll contested race e anticipations of The winner was e run is estimated in 24 minutes.

Thomas William Locke, Esq. of Castleview in the County, son of the Rev. Thomas Locke of Newcastle, to Marianne, fourth daughter of James D'Arcy Evans, of Knockaderry-house in this county, Esq.

At Evercreech, Somerset, T. Jones, jun. Esq. of Stapleton, Gloucester, to Margaret Nugent, eldest daughter of the Hon. James Talbot, of Evercreech House, and niece to Lord Talbot de Malahide.

At Grove, George Lowrey, Esq. Fairy-glass, near Raphoe, to Sarah Irwin, daughter of the Rev. Joseph Lyttle, Presbyterian Minister, Letterkenny.

At the Cathedral of Waterford, Richard Greene, of Cork, Esq. M.D. to Henrietta, eldest daughter of the late Sir Edmond Skottowe, of Waterford.

At St. Peter's church, Dublin, John Yates, of Dundalk, Esq. second son of the Rev. John Yates, of Drumcliff, county Sligo, to Eleanor, eldest daughter of Henry R. Paine, of Camden-street, Dublin, Esq.

At Ballycastle church, Charles Neilson, Esq. M.D. to Isabella, eldest daughter of Samuel Sterne, Esq. Lower Dominick-street, Dublin.

In St. Peter's church, Dublin, Mr. John Prescott, of Lucan, to Miss Bayly, of Dublin.

By special license, at Gorhambury, the seat of the Earl of Verulam, by the very Reverend the Dean of Carlisle, the Earl of Craven, to the Lady Emily Mary Grimston, second daughter to the Earl and Countess of Verulam.

At Leyland, Lancashire, Frederick Gerard, Esq. of Aspul-house, brother of Sir John Gerard, Bart. to Mary Ann, eldest daughter of the Rev. Thomas Wilkinson, Vicar of Kirk Hallam, Derbyshire.

At Quebec, Dr. Bourke, to Mrs. Ringland.

DEATHS.

In George-street, Mary, widow of the late Timothy Ryan, Esq. and daughter of the late Edmond Ryan, Esq. of this City, merchant.

At Carysfort-Avenue, Dublin, Surgeon Corry Laughlin.

At Pembroke-place, Dublin, Thomas Stroker, Esq. an old and respectable apothecary in Dublin, and for many years Veterinary Surgeon to the Commissariat of Ireland.

At Kingstown, near Dublin, whilst on a visit to the Rev. William Digby, Anne, widow of the late Matthew Wyatt, resident police magistrate of the Lambeth-street district.

At Drumcondra, Harriet, eldest daughter of the late G. Kiernan, Esq.

At Banagher, aged 62 years, Mary, relict of the late William Grant, Esq. of Claremount, King's County.

William Holiday, Esq. of Deer Park, Carrick-on-Suir, aged 76 years.

John Mathews, Esq. of Athlone.

At Castletown, Carlow, Thomas Kelly, Esq.

At Blackrock, Cork, Mrs. Marcella E. O'Callaghan.

In Dublin, Jane Letitia, daughter of Mr. William Maddock, jun.

In London, Charles Battray, Esq. M.D. aged 56.

In Portland-place, Mrs. Hamilton, relict of the late Vice Admiral Thomas Hamilton, aged 79.

Suddenly, at Bridge-row, Westminster-bridge, Mrs. Mary Fisher.

At the Falcon Inn, Gravesend, in consequence of the upsetting of a boat on the river, the Hon. Mrs. Charles Petre.

Phillip William Wyatt, Esq. youngest son of the late James Wyatt, Esq. Surveyor-General.

The Rev. James Fisher, Catholic Priest, of St. Mary's, Dukinfield.

At Hastings, Frances Mary Anne, widow of the late Joseph Hume, Esq. of the General Post-office.

Mr. Peter Woods, the well-known Reformer of Liverpool.

At Aberystwith, John Birkett, Esq. of the Bank of England.

At Heidelberg, Baden, Reginald Boothby Nugent, only son of Walter Nugent, of Merrion-square, Dublin, Esq.

PRICES OF IRISH STOCKS—SEPT. 11.

Bank Stock, .....	224
Irish Three per cent Consols .....	89½
Government Stock, 3½ per Cent. ....	98¼
Government (New), 3½ per cent. ....	98½
Grand Canal Debentures, 6 per cent .....	—
Grand Canal Debentures, 4 per cent .....	—

12 Edward Alexander
WOULD Set or Sell his Interest in the HOUSE, No. 44, William-Street. It possesses the advantages of an extensive rere and some valuable out Offices. Application to be made to him on the premises; or at

Dining Tables; Parlour, Drawing Grecian Lamps, Tea Stores, Gard Presses, Chests with all the late Dumb Waiters Pins; some origi two Hall Globes Bedsteads with and Palliasses, B two Clocks, sur Pipes, empty B Iron Safe; Ric Tea Sets of C together with a amongst which Claret. An ex first wheels: al small rent of £ lease of lives re good Pump, aff age, Coach-Ho

TERMS—Cas payable at the £20.

Purchasers to Money. Sale Auction

19 THE MISS
 tion of t removed their NORTH GR Great Denmar System of Ins application.

20 TO LET, f possessio Street, close Messrs. R. ar set together o Cellerage, wit Ellen-street, Market in the Apply to R.

Most H
 71