

At Barbadoes, Capt. William S. Milner, 69th Regt. to Mary Elizabeth, daughter of Lieut-General Wood, Commander of the Forces in the Windward and Leeward Islands.

tables, book case, 2 window roller blinds.

AND BACK.
...First Class, 9s.

2d class.	1st class.
6d	4s 6d
6d	4s 0d
0d	3s 0d
9d	2s 9d
6d	2s 0d
0d	1s 6d
6d	1s 0d

Intermediate Stations
ing in a higher class
oked, or travelling
the ordinary fares
erford and Tramore
n, and Bianconi's
tendance to bring
at very moderate

Consumers'

ders of the above
oom, West Water
n of the Company
sly resolved—
gated the affairs of
a satisfactory and
mined to carry on
; and they hereby
port a Local Com-
ests as well as the
ELL, Chairman.

Sept. 12.

NOTION.

is Union will, on September, consi-
rkhouse for 3 or 6
, to be delivered at
s may be required,

amples. to be lod-
o'clock on the 26th
two Solvent Sure-Contract.

rk of the Union.

DEATHS.

At Enniskerry, on the 10th inst. Edward Browne, Esq. of Lower Mount-street, Dublin, late of Charlotte's-quay, Limerick. His remains will be interred in Kilmurry church on Thursday morning.

On Monday last, at Newport, county Tipperary, Mr. John Coffe, a very industrious shopkeeper and farmer, leaving a widow and young family to mourn the loss of a good husband and parent, and regretted by a large circle of acquaintances.

On Saturday last, aged 74, Mr. William Read, Gun-maker, Merchant's-quay, formerly Armourer to the old City Limerick Militia—a skilful mechanist, and strictly honest man.

At her residence, Rathcannon, on Wednesday, the 5th inst. Ellen, the beloved wife of Patrick J. Roche, Esq. Her remains were accompanied on Friday by a large body of clergymen and an attendance of sorrowing friends, to the family vault at Kilmartin church.

In Wickham-street, James Joseph, eldest son of Mr. Patrick J. O'Brien.

At his mother's residence, South Mall, Cork, aged 21, John L. W., eldest son of the late D Barry, Esq. MD. Condonstown.

Jerome, second son of John Philpott, Esq. Mountzephyr, county Cork.

At Abbeville, co. Cork, the Rev. Wm. Stopford, aged 88.

At Kingstown, at the residence of his brother-in-law, Dr. Ledwith, Godfrey Levinge, Esq. of Culllean, co. Westmeath.

Suddenly, at Killeen, near Portarlinton, Mr. James Boyd, agriculturist, to Thomas Kemmis, Esq.

In Dublin, Annie, wife of Thomas Fair, of Cork.

At Upper Gardiner-street, Abigail, relict of the late Edward Ryan, Esq.

At North Great George-street, Capt. Michael Collins, h. p. 76th Regt.

At Drumoonrath, county Meath, Joseph Jones, late of the Armagh Light Infantry.

At the house of his uncle, the Dean of Ardagh, the Rev. Patrick Farrelly.

Henrietta Margaret, daughter of R. Croker Russell, Esq. Surgeon Royal Navy.

At North Cumberland-street, John T. Egerty, Esq.

In Lower Clonbrassil-street, Mr. Laurence M'Nally.

At Sir John Rogerson's-quay, Mary Lawler, sister of John and Daniel Lawler, Alliance Gas Works.

Frederick Kelly, Esq. solicitor, of Derry.

At Banbridge, Jane, wife of the Rev. William Breakey, Loughbrickland.

At Holywood, Capt. Robert Larmour, aged 75.

At Brighton, the Hon Wm. Wilmer Parsons, second son of the Earl and Countess of Rosse.

At Old Swinford, Worcestershire, Richard Hickman, Esq. DL, Captain Worcestershire Yeomanry Cavalry.

At the Firs, near Derby, Elizabeth, widow of William Wootton Abney, Esq. of Measham hall, Derby, Captain Royal Horse Guards Blue.

At Northumberland-street, Edinburgh, Sarah Ingram, wife of the Rt. Rev. C. H. Terrot, DD, Bishop of Edinburgh.

Robert Sharpe, Esq. Postmaster of Lichfield.

At Weymouth-street, Portland-place, Elizabeth Harriett, wife of James Baker, Esq. of HM's Ordnance, Tower.

At Lynmouth, North Devon, aged 82, Mary, relict of the late Rev. Thomas Roe.

At Plymouth, Serjeant Major James Phelps, 22d Regt.

At Margate, Thomas Kelly, Esq. for 25 years Alderman of the Ward of Farringdon Within, London, aged 84.

At Blackheath park, Thomas Kettlewell, Esq.

Mr. Lewis W. Dellwyn, of Swansea, the naturalist, aged 77.

At West Leake, Nottinghamshire, Emily, wife of the Rev. John Bateman, rector of East and West Leake.

Mrs. Underwood, the mother of James Underwood, Esq. Master Attendant of her Majesty's Dockyard, Portsmouth.

At Raquet court, Fleet-street, Mr. John Harley.

In Belgium, Bidelia, daughter of the late James Moran, Esq. Leeson-street, Dublin.

Killed in the trenches before Sebastopol, Capt. Wm. H. C. Pechell, 77th Regt., only son of Rear Admiral Sir George and the Hon Lady Brooke Pechell.

At Vera Cruz, of yellow fever, Constantine John Evans, Esq. Paymaster of her Majesty's ship Daring.

At Barbadoes, of yellow fever, C. R. Dorington, Esq. Lieut. 69th Regt., youngest son of J. E. Dorington, Esq. of Queen's-square, St. James's-park, and Lypiatt park, Gloucestershire

DINING ROOM.
Set of 3 pillar and claw dinner table with reading desk; set North crimson window curtains, lounge twelve parlour chairs, excellent board, set papier mache trays Kidder carpet and rug, feather bookshelves, 100 vols. medical and plate warmer, brass toddy kettle, water jugs, morning and evening cut glass, crockery, matting, 2 and covers, cake basket, tea and candlesticks, plate basket, bronze spoons and forks.

HALL.
Regulated clock, a first-rate time mahogany chairs, sporting print stair carpet and rods.

SLEEPING APARTMENT.
State, German and French bedsteads, hair mattresses, blankets, wardrobe, chests drawers, Mahogany and basinstands, fully furnished; toilet glasses, towelstands, carpet and guards, cane chairs, double side stands, slop bucket, foot bath.

BASEMENT STORE.
Harness press, coop, tubs, can dish covers, tins, pots, saucepans, bed, mould and stand, brass can bedsteads, box irons, iron fender press.

OUTSIDE DOORS.
Light-running inside car, on four order, built by Jacob, Fermoy; in good order, patent aprons, lane fashionable tax or tandem gig, shi and lamps, in beautiful order, bins, iron setter, water barrels, set single harness, about 6 tons of and ryegrass hay, and a small qua potatoes in the ground.

One day's Sale—commencing at
JAMES MARSHALL
Sept. 1.

Limerick Farming
JAMES MARSHALL
Will hold his Annual
SHEEP AND CATTLE
AT THE FARMING REPOSITORY
GEORGE-STREET
On SATURDAY, the 15th Sept.
Already are entered
Several highly-bred LEICESTER
one, two and three-year
Also a few of the Improved LI
Several Lots of EWE and W
And some highly-bred YOUNG
SALE AT 1 O'CLOCK
JAMES MARSHALL
Sept. 1.