

DEATHS.

On Sunday last, William Foster, Esq. Lena cottage, Keswick, father-in-law of William C. Burgess, Esq. of this city.

In Nelson-street, on Saturday last, Mrs. Rebecca O'Loughlin, aged 72. She died happy, relying on the merits of her Redeemer.

At New-street, near Ballinacurra, Mr. William Roche, of the Brunswick-street bakery.

At Woodhill, Cork, Louisa J. P. Penrose, eldest daughter of the late James Penrose, Esq. of Woodhill.

Suddenly, Maria Townsend, daughter of the late Nathaniel Evanson, Esq. of Fourmile-Water court, co. Cork.

At Mallow, of croup, Sarah Susan, daughter of William Creagh, Esq.

At Woodford cottage, Listowel, Patrick Stokes, Esq.

Mr. Wm Booth, of Marietta, late of Lee Bank, Carrigrohane.

At Kilkee, Mr. Patrick Kennedy, of the Bath-house, and Lodge owner.

At Parteen, Kate Teresa, daughter of Mrs Brosnahan.

At Tulla, Mr. Thomas Taylor, late Head Constable at Scariff. He served 25 years in the force.

At his seat, Hollybrook, county Antrim, Col. Arthur Kennedy, late of the 18th Hussars.

At Kingstown, Thomas Davenport, Esq. RN.

At St Catherine, Lucan, the residence of her grandfather, Capt. Duff of consumption, aged 16, Nannie, daughter of the late George Duff, of The Hermitage, co. Longford.

At Arran-quay, aged 76. Mr. John Moran, who had been for forty years an officer of the old Paving Board.

At Anngier-street, Mr. Richard Hennessy.

At Great Ormond-street, John Hibbert, Esq. aged 88.

Wm. S. Geary, Esq. (Photographic artist), of consumption.

Caroline Frederica, eldest daughter of Gustavus Heyn, Esq. Belfast.

In Mount-street, Grosvenor-square, London, Alicia, wife of Capt. John Wingfield King, only daughter of the late Chidley Coote, Esq. Mount Coote, county Limerick.

At Strathblane, Stirlingshire, Thomas J. Coates, Esq. M.D. eldest son of John Coates, Esq. of Belfast, secretary to the grand jury of the county Antrim.

At Southwick park, Tewkesbury, Gloucestershire, Arthur Wm. Shute, Esq. eldest son of the late H. Shute, Esq. and grandson of the late Arthur Lord Kilwarden.

At Reading, from collision on the railway, Christopher, grandson of the late Mr. Bilton, of Sackville-st. Dublin.

At Exning, Suffolk, Harriet, wife of William Hammond, Esq. and related to several distinguished Irish families.

At Winwick hall, Lancashire, the Rev. James John Hornby, rector of Winwick, aged 78.

At Bath, Admiral Gordon.

At Hackney, Christopher Mann, Esq.

James Lake, Esq. Deputy of Aldgate Ward.

At Healey Parsonage, Lancashire, Richard Paul, second son of the Rev. Robert Minnitt.

At Velindra house, Glamorganshire, Anna, eldest daughter of Thomas W. Booker Blakemore, Esq. MP.

At Thaxted, Essex, Surtees Wm. Clarence, Esq. late Surgeon to the Forces.

At Hastings, Ralph Anthony Ironside, Esq. late of Sennooh-side, Lanarkshire, aged 87.

At Barbadoes, of yellow fever, Lieut. Henry Thos. Allen, 69th Regt. son of the late Thomas Allen, Esq. Cloyne house, county Cork.

From the effects of Crimean fever, on board HM's Queen, off Sebastopol, John Sherwood Gaynor, Lieutenant 47th Regt sixth son of Capt. Gavor, Killiney house, county Dublin, and the Ordnance house, Eutavant.

At Balaklava, of fever, Augustus Tonym Staines Cuttler, First Lieutenant Royal Marines, only son of John Cuttler, Esq. of Ramsgate.

In the Crimea, Staff Sergeant William Milnor Parsons, 1st or King's Dragoon Guards.

At Alleghany, Pennsylvania, Robert Faussett, Esq. late of Cloyne house, county Mayo.