

Grattan Guinness will be married on the 1st October, a near relative of the Marchioness a highly accomplished in the Great Eastern session to amend the Acts, the Ecclesiastical to advance money out of, to build, improve, or for glebe houses, the Act at a rate of cent, per annum, and to year's net income of the house. The same Act adds on any clergyman within the walls of any town outside of the walls of any applies to any person in the same limits. The sextons was expunged, therefore are only to be proved before the Courts Act (Ireland); also its interments in any but the consent in writing of the family lastity not exceeding 10l.

The same Act declares that no interment shall be allowed to persons of any burial ground for a penalty not exceeding one shilling, for each time manner as fines are to be.—Cork Constitution

n, R.C.B. has directed the Chapels throughout the Month inst. for the sufferers

, founder of the Limerick received a reply from of the address from that man will read in a few hours.

formerly of the Franciscan took an active part in amongst the prisoners at Nicola, of San Giovanni, arrived at the convent, visitation of the Order, O.S.F., Dublin. others schools, and Loretto Kilkenny.

Sarah Charlotte, daughter of the late Major-General Sir Bruce, K.C.B.

At Oxford, Arthur Andrews, Esq. of Dublin, to Harriet Timmis, daughter of William Ward, Esq. of Oxford.

At Frant, Gervas Herbert, son of the late J. G. Chaldecott, Esq. of Leyton, Essex, to Emily, daughter of Major Harpur, late of the 2d West India Regt.

At Swanage, Dorset. Captain Frederick Stephen Steele, to Martha, daughter of the late Sir Francis Blake, Bart, of Twiss, Northumberland.

At Aston Church, Yorkshire. Lieutenant-Colonel Frederic A. Willis, C.B., son of Major-General Willis, R.A., to Augusta Emma, daughter of John C. Young, Esq. of Brighton.

At the Church of St. Peter's, Chichester, Captain Julian Wakefield, 83d Foot, to Florence Elizabeth, daughter of Matthew Snook, Esq. Chichester.

At Madras, R. Reginald Scott, Esq. son of Commander Scott, Royal Navy, of Burseldon House, Brighton, to Justa, daughter of the late Major Locke, of Madras.

D E A T H S.

In Liverpool, on Wednesday, rather suddenly, while on his way to the Continent, William Hollaud, Esq. of Ballyvoren, county Limerick.

At Carney Castle, county Tipperary, Edward Aymer, son of the late Arthur French, Esq.

At Templemore, Frances, relict of Jones David, Esq.

At Midleton Lodge, county Cork, Joseph Barry, Esq. M.D. and J.P.

At Rossmore Lodge, county Kilkenny, Pursey Poo, Esq.

At Bangor, North Wales, Ruth, daughter of the late Rev. George Armstrong, of Cork.

At Ballina, the wife of Captain and Adjutant Edward Less, North Mayo Militia.

In Paris, Mrs. Chamberlaine, sister of the late R. Robnett, Esq. of the county Cork.

In Dublin, Noel, son of Professor Huxley, of the Government School of Mines.

At Cullenswood, Mr. William Biuna, late of Stephen's-green, Dublin.

At York-street, Dublin, Kathleen Barbara Eugenie, daughter of John J. Dodd, Esq.

At Athnilstown, Navan, Henrietta Olivia, wife of Clement Hamerton, Esq. F.R.C.S.I.

At Lower Ormond-quay, Dublin, Mary Josephine, wife of Mr. George B. Starr.

At Harold's-cross, near Dublin, Julia, wife of Patrick Sinnett, Esq.

At Dalkey, Miss S. H. Popham, of Cork.

At Moffat, Mr. Joseph Locke, M.P. for Honiton, President of the Institution of Civil Engineers.

At Scarborough, Mrs. Ullathorne mother of the Most Rev. Dr. Ullathorne, Catholic Bishop of Birmingham.

At Glasgow, Catherine, relict of the late John Mennors, Esq. of Roscommon.

At Donaghmore, Thomas Brown, Esq.

At Comber, county Down, Mr. Alexander Montgomery, solicitor.

Lost at sea, by being accidentally washed overboard, on his passage from Melbourne to Dublin, Arthur Gardiner, Esq. son of the late Captain Gardiner, 8th Regt.

At Plymouth, Eliza, relict of Major Brownson, formerly of the 23rd Royal Welsh Fusiliers.

At Suez, on his passage home from Madras, Brevet Major John G. C. Disbrowe, 43d Light Infantry.

At Chudleigh, Devon, Margaret, daughter of Lieut-General Turner, Royal Artillery.

Suddenly, at Ahmednugger, Bombay, Captain J. F. Baxter, 56th Regiment.

At Mecca Fort, Ensign Robert G. Stratton, of H.M.'s 5th Bombay N.I.

Fine
Rich
Pale Wines
N.B.—The DINNER
Extraordinary Value
CORNER OF PAGE
July 14

TIP
Agricultura

THE SUBSCRIPTION
Show Yard, i
On SATURDAY
Any Stock, &c. charge.

Parties availing th
will please send in a possible, to enable logue printed in tim
JOH

Tipperary, 14th Se

EX
L C
AND SOUTH W
BY THE STEAMER
ON MONDAY, T

And by the Train fr
2nd of October,
dington Station o
of October, at 6 4

RATES ON
Waterford to Padd
" Glouc
Chepi
or Cat
Bridge and N
Swans

" Carmar
Narbo
Haver

If the Excursionis
Tickets will be mad
of Eight from the d ent, additional on

Adelphi Wharf,
22nd Sept.