

Sum-Office, two o'clock, P. M.
The Press to insert the receipt of intel-Egypt, received this morning by a from Constantinople, which place he 16th of August.

Hutchinson's Dispatch is dated July He was at the head of 20,000 the first division of the Indian expected to join him in the first week force of Turks and British had ef-French Army to Rosetta, which was and would be all on board by the It consisted of 12,700. Our rather sickly, and amongst the sick als Hutchinson, Doyle, and Craddock. refused to surrender, and our army ing to march against Alexandria, in want of flour, wine, and oil.

ary Morz was dead. rrajo holds out stoutly. Admiral Sir en was gone to blockade Toulon. taken a French frigate.

not hitherto published of what has e meetings of the French Clergy are

The discussion began last Saturday, ed five hours. On Monday it was Several eloquent speeches were made les. There were four in favour of e in the Pope's recommendation.— the Archbishop of Aix, the Arch-bourdeaux, the Bishop of Lescars, and of Comignes. At the head of those for refusing, are the Archbishop of the Bishops of Montpellier, Nyon, ngouleme, Avranches, Loubéz, and ar were for a middle course, and the Leon promised to join the majority of surviving French Bishops, who are Bishop of Arras, Minister of Louis England, communicated the senti-monsieur, which were against the re-

DUBLIN—Sept. 28.

and that among the many notable im-which the pressure of existing cir-renders expedient, a department con-the ordnance and artillery, is about lished, similar to what has long been ed by the warlike powers of the Con-thought, on account of our superior insular situation, unnecessary in these —The intent of this department is to and direct what is termed in military stratagem, or the Art of Encamp-ing the instantaneous construction of abatis, &c. for the purpose of operating on the enemy.

alful pamphlet has lately appeared, rtant national subject—"The Culture "—If the directions laid down in it attended to, 'tis probable that excel-might be greatly improved, and made generally useful.—For the benefit of y readers we select the following passage to the preservation of a winter flames, by which means they extorted her pocketbook, which contained about fifty guineas.

This sum did not satisfy them, and they demanded as much more; but at length seeing convinced they had got the entire, they went off, leaving her in the flames!—The remainder of the family then released her, but so much burnt that it is wonderful she survived their brutality.
Previous to breaking into the dwelling house they forced the bars, to see if any workmen slept there, and, in that case, to secure them while they committed the robbery.—It was their intention to set fire to the house, should they not be able to force an entrance, and actually brought a burning turf with them for that purpose.

LIMERICK,—SEPTEMBER 30.

A General Court-Martial will assemble in the town of Nenagh to-morrow, for the Trial of four Officers of a Militia Regt. charged with permitting some Troops under their command, while marching through that neighbourhood, to commit irregularities.—The Court is composed of the Rt.
Hon. Lord Muskerry, Col. of the Co. Limerick Regt. President—two Field Officers, and a Captain of the Royal Longford Regt.—Lieut. Col.
Vandeleure, Major Colpoys, and Capt. England, of the Clare Regt.—Major L'Estrange, Captains Armstrong and O'Connor, of the King's Co. Regt.
—Majors Connell and Blake, and Capt. Brown, of the Royal County Limerick Regiment.

Friday last, William Hayes, Farmer, who resided near Dromkeen, in this County, supposed to have been deranged in his mind, in consequence of a recent fever,—met two men on the road, near his own house, both of whom he deprived of life, by beating out their brains with bones.

Yesterday the following Gentlemen were elected a Committee for the Mercantile Coffee House, for the ensuing year;—John Kelly, Edw. Plin, Denis Lyons, Rev. Thomas Shepherd, Richard England, Patrick Power, Martin Arthur, Denis Lenagan, and William Hiffernan.—Thomas and Robert Maunsell, Esqrs. Treasurers.

Same day, the following Gentlemen were elected Directors for the Royal Club House; Arthur Vincent, William Wallace, John Wilton, Major Boobanan, Sam. Hunter, Lieut. Col. Vandeleure, Dr. Franklin, Colonel Lesroy, Joseph Gabbett, jun. Captain Ryer, George Maunsell, James O'Brien, and James Sexton.—Thomas & Robert Maunsell, Esqrs. Treasurers.

The United Brothers, Carder, for this Port, passed by Gravesend the 23d inst.

MARRIAGE. On Sunday the 13th inst. at St.
Michael's Church, Bristol, John Hill, Esq; of Barnstable, to the most agreeable Mrs. Smithwick, third daughter to the late Richard Lloyd, of Castlelea, Co. Tipperary, Esq.—Last Thursday, by Special Licence, at Pallisoreen Church, by the Rev. Archdeacon Wall, David Bradshaw, of Rallysraen, in the County Limerick, Esq; to the agreeable Miss Eliza Bradshaw, daughter to Thomas Bradshaw, of Mount-Sion, Esq.—Last Sunday, Harrison Clanchy, of Cahircoulis, Co.
Limerick, Esq; to Miss Dwyer, second daughter

To be Sold, Two the Limerick Navigation Company apply to Thomas F. Wilkinson, Esq [3P] September

Winter Dresses
LANCELOT R
No. 5, Charlotte's-Qu

HAS just received a well chosen the most fashionable dark gr Mullins, Callicoes, &c. all of the black and silver Bear Muffs and T season's manufacture; a variety of Dunstable Straw Bonnets; new Imp and Bonnets, trimmed, as now we cellency Countess Hardwicke; but Gloves; fancy silk Handkerchiefs; black and white Laces, Veils, &c.

LANCELOT RYAN expects in a fe plete his New Winter Assortment Cloths, Coatings, of a nice quali wear, Swansdowns, &c. &c. which from the first manufacturing houses Gentlemen's best London Hats, La ting Caps, Servants' Hats, &c. &c.

Gentlemen of the Army, and Offi ing Yeomanry Corps, are respect that RYAN has at present a good Blue and Scarlet Cloths, Military and Silver Laces, Epaulets, Officer lation Cockeyed Hats and Feathers, article in the Military line, at low p

N. B.—An Apprentice Wanted.
(2P) Limerick, Sep

Unfurnished Lodg

TO be immediately Let, in th late Matt Nihill, corner of commodious Lodgings lately ten Hickman, they are fit for the rece teel family; application to be made Chandler, Thomond-gate.

[2 P] Limerick, Sept.

ROYAL CLUB HO

Limerick, S AT a General Meeting of the was unanimously Resolved, not a Member of the House, be a account, into the Coffee Room, wit of the Gentlemen of the Navy a may be admitted without Ballot, c Master of said House, Half Subscrip

DWYER's Establishe
Opposite the Exchange, Li

DWYER, impressed with gratit to return his sincere thanks t past favours, begs to inform them ted up his Rooms in a most comf for Lodgers, that he means to b constantly supplied with every thin forde, his Cellars well stocked, h Stables well supplied with best Old with good attendance, at 2s. 3d.
Garnagees, with able Horces, and Hearie, with every genteel deco terms moderate. Limerick, Sep

Mercantile Coffee

Septem
THE Members of this House