DEATHS.

At Carass House, on Thursday morning, of cholera, aged 20 years, Alice, the second and beloved daughter of Sir David Roche, Bart. Most beautiful and accomplished in person and manners, Miss Roche also excelled in those less pretending, but invaluable endowments of the mind and heart, whose constant genial influence in the family and social circle eminently endeared her to relatives and friends. The irreparable loss of one so fair, and dear to their affections, has plunged Sir David and Lady Roche into grief too acute for words.

At Cruise's Hotel, Mr. James Smailes, of Walsall, commercial traveller.

On Thursday evening last, at his temporary residence, in Thomond-gate, after a lingering illness, the Rev. James Quin, P.P. of Dromin, in this County, and formerly of St. John's parish, in which he was beloved by his flock. Many friends of the Rev. gentleman ascribe his illness to the effect of injuries he suffered at a recent election for this County, from a mob in Patrick-street, when a ferocious attack upon his person was only restrained by a troop of Dragoons, then on patrol, who had to ride into the mob, with drawn swords, headed by a magistrate, to save the Rev. gentleman.
