

civic authority; and if there is to be a scheme, it should be on the basis of a joint proposal, in which the administrative expenditure would be borne by the city and county. In this connection it would be advisable for the Government to adopt a line of action similar to that which induced them to bring about workhouse amalgamation.

DEATH OF REV. DENIS TURNER, C.S.S.R.

The death, which we regret to announce, took place at the Sacred Heart Convalescent Home, Castletroy, Limerick, last night, of Rev. Denis Turner, C.S.S.R., where he had been seriously ill for the past month. During his illness Father Turner was visited by members of the Redemptorist community, and the end came peacefully. The late rev. gentleman was a well-known Redemptorist priest and missionary. He was born in Kilmallock about 55 years ago, and was brother of the Bishop of Buffalo, Most Rev. Dr. Turner, another brother being also in the sacred ministry. Father Turner was educated at Mungret College, from where he proceeded to the Redemptorists House of Studies, at Teignmouth, Devon. On the completion of his scholastic course he was ordained at Clonard Monastery, Belfast, and as a preacher and missionary he was a familiar figure in the North and West of Ireland. In 1912 he was appointed Spiritual Director of the Arch-Confraternity of the Holy Family, St. Alphonsus Church, Limerick, for the brief period of six months, when he returned to Belfast as Rector, and subsequently he was Rector of St. Patrick's, Esker, Athenry. About six years ago he was transferred to Limerick, where he was Rector up to three years ago. His health, never robust, then became impaired, and he was only a short time home from Rome when he had a breakdown, and was removed to the Sacred Heart Convalescent Home. Father Turner was a distinguished member of his Order, simple and unaffected in manner, with a gracious disposition which won the hearts and affection of all with whom he came into contact. The remains were removed to Mount St. Alphonsus Church this evening, and the obsequies will take place at 11 o'clock to-morrow morning.

THEFT FROM BELFAST LABOUR EXCHANGE.

J. Francis Hoey, charged with the theft of £500 from Belfast Labour Exchange, where he was a clerk, was remanded to the

From Limerick Cham

The following message from the Limerick Chamber of Commerce:—
"Very Reverend Sir,—this Chamber of Commerce to you their deepest sympathy to the numerous sorrowful families of your parish who have suffered by the appalling calamity which took place last Sunday night. The event is too awful for words, and it only rests with the Almighty to send a ray of consolation to the severely tried people.—I am, Sir,

"Yours very sincerely,
"(Signed) J. J. Cannon

"Very Rev. J. Canon B. Dromcollogher, Co. Limerick."

Sympathy of Limer

At the monthly meeting of the Limerick Protestant Association on Tuesday night, proposed from the chair by the Rev. Mr. Swain, M.A., Vice President, in silence, that the sympathy be conveyed to the Very Rev. J. Canon B. Dromcollogher, P.P., and the people of Limerick, and their great and tragic sorrow, that God may comfort and sustain those who are bereaved.

Public Health Co Condolence

The meeting of the Public Health Committee adjourned last night in a moment of respect to the memory of the Very Rev. J. Canon B. Dromcollogher, who passed away in the midst of the disaster which had no parallel in the history of the city. The committee expressed their deep and sincere sympathy to the Very Rev. J. Canon B. Dromcollogher, and to the people of Dromcollogher, and their great and tragic sorrow.

Messages of Sy

Further messages of sympathy received are the following—Mr. Amery, Secretary for Dominion Affairs; H. H. Saheb of Nawanajar; Most Rev. Bishop of Buffalo; Rev. J. J. Cannon, Dublin (Commissary); Corl. J. J. Cannon, Methodist Church; the Rev. J. J. Cannon, Belfast; Mons. Blanche, General, Dublin; Be. J. J. Cannon, American Consul General, Brookhaven, Kilkenny; Co. J. J. Cannon, Castle West Town, Comm. J. J. Cannon, Town Commissioners; J. J. Cannon, Hospital Committee; J. J. Cannon, Committee for Treatment; Dublin Trades Council; J. J. Cannon, Dublin Trades Council.