

st on Thursday, lared.
 announced the relative to the last. At Paris, re considerable e year; but in n truly extraor- tails of the dif- that in certain 774 meteors in s they reported iads.—Literary (CHRONICLE) onth, and then ised, a continulast impression. he Queen's let- to issue letters Jackson, Esq. ne room of Mr. as Berry Cusac in the room of in London.
 er.
 t for Dieppe. mise, under cir- John Mooney, of considerable eet, Mr. Mooney, appeared to be h, was observed breakfast, to fall Doctor William eon-General, and stantaneously on erily extinct. ved on a visit to led at the Police- drunkenness and mody, of Ashfort, cis Forrest and Police. brought into the l threatening to annon Navigation enacing the Con- ce was committed igitated at Doonass under command ork from Halifax

On Monday, the 12th inst. at Ballaghakeen Church, by the Rev. F. Thackaberry, of the Derry circuit, to Miss Pedloe, daughter of the Rev. D. Pedloe, Supernumerary Minister of the Wesleyan Society.
 On Tuesday, the 13th inst. at Ballaghakeen Church, by the Rev. Marcus M'Causland, A.M. Mr. John Hacket, of Parsonstown, to Bessie, eldest daughter of Mr. George Elliott.
 In Cork, by the Rev. John Grier, the Rev. W. J. Norwood, Wesleyan Minister, of Dublin, to Miss Seymour, niece to the Rev. James Gillman, Wesleyan Minister, of Cork.
 At Greenock, on the 7th inst. by the Rev. James Smith, Archibald Denniston, Esq. writer to the Signet, to Janet, daughter of Allan Fullarton, Esq. Banker, Greenock.
 In the Parish Church, Bradford, J. H. Sawyer, Esq. Surgeon, of York-street, to Mary Gaunt, niece of William Hargreaves, Esq. of North Parade, Bradford.

DEATHS.

On Wednesday, the 14th inst. Frederick A. Vereker, eldest son of Ames Vereker, M.D. of Glentworth-street, having, previous to his decease, given strong evidence that his peace had been made with God through his Saviour, and that he was about to exchange for "this present evil world," that blessed region "where the wicked cease from troubling, and where the weary are at rest."
 Henry Nash, Esq., late of Browningstown, county Cork, Lieutenant 9th Regiment of Foot.
 At Landenstown, Kildare, Digby Morris, youngest son of Morris Townsend, Esq. of Shipperton, county Cork.
 On Sunday, at Denny-street, Tralee, Robert Torrens, son of Norcott D'Esterre Roberts, Esq. of Passage West, county Cork.
 Mr. Wm. Higgins, of Rathkeale, shoemaker, deeply lamented by his young family.
 In Queen-street, Waterford, at an advanced age, Mrs. Wilson, a member of the Society of Friends.
 At Cliden, Joseph Burke, Esq. Attorney.
 At the Strand Parade, Cork, Mr. Patrick O'Brien, an eminent accountant.
 At it diamond-house, Drumcondra, John, second son of the Rev. James Duncan Long, aged 19.
 At his residence, Prussia-street, George Richard Workman, Esq. for many years chief book-keeper to the Bank of Ireland.
 In Carysford Avenue, William Newton, Esq. aged 76 years.
 On Friday last, at the advanced age of 95 years, Mr. Thomas Staunton, of Castlebar.
 At Leghorn, at the house of her son-in-law, Le Baron Brenur, Anne, widow of the Hon. C. Hely Hutchinson.
 At George-square, Edinburgh, Jane Gray, wife of the Rev. William Peddie.
 Suddenly, Archibald Harvey, Esq. of Killellan, N.B.
 At his residence, in Connaught-square, London, Matthew Gossett, Esq., aged 78.
 At Heatherly Hall, near Govan, the Rev. Alexander Easton, aged 75, Classical teacher in Glasgow.
 Suddenly, at Bolton, Benjamin Hicks, Esq.
 At Munca, Edward Lockwood Percival, Esq. of Lambourne, Essex.
 At Linlithgow, the Rev. Andrew Young, of Lanark.
 At Bathgate, Alexander Finlay, Esq. Provost.
 At Chesham, Thomas, son of Captain Clendon, R.M.
 At Fryerning, Essex, Sarah, relict of the Rev. E. W. Farrill, aged 71; and in London, aged 79, Sarah, only daughter of the Rev. E. W. Farrill, by a former wife.
 At Lucea, Edward, second son of Colonel Newbery, of Hereford-street, late of the Madras Civil Service.
 At sea, on board H.M.'s ship Dido, J. Carnick Bulman, Esq.
 At Bombay, of cholera, Captain William Morse Webb, Bombay Artillery.
 At Arrah, India, Edwin Frelove, Quartermaster-Serjeant of the 1st Regiment Nizam's Infantry.
 At Quebec, Ann Caswell, wife of Mr. Charles Phillips.
 On Sunday, at Bundoran, aged 67 years, the Hon. and Rev. George De La Peer Beresford, Provost of Tuam Cathedral, and Rector of Fenagh, Diocese of Ardagh.
 Aged 75 years, John Enery, Esq. of Ballyconnell House, county Carlow, Lieut-Colonel of the Kilkenny Militia.
 Miss Thomasina Percival.

RATHKEALE
THE GUARDIANS of RATHKEALE desirous of receiving Proposals for the RATHKEALE WORKHOUSE, the 1st of OCTOBER next:—
BREAD, first and second
OATMEAL and CUTLINATION, per ton.
 Sealed Tenders, properly enclosed, of the Articles proposed to be received by me up to 11 o'Clock on the 26th of SEPTEMBER, instant, to be in consideration at a Meeting of the Board then held.
 Security will be required for each Contract.
 By Order,
JOHN
 Rathkeale, September 17, 1841

22 NOTICE
To the
J. BUCKLY, respectfully friends of his having just of the finest FOREIGN CIGARETTES, Cabana, Dos Amigo, Roots, &c.. Tobacco's of every Snuff's, Pipes, &c. &c.
 No. 31, GRAND PARADE, (O'Connell's)

23
SYDNEY
New South Wales
Phillips
CALLING AT THE CAPE OF GOOD HOPE
LAND PASSENGERS
WILL be Dispatched from Sydney in October, the remarkable Fast Sailing Coppered Ship, 1,000 Tons Register, 1,000 Tons Burthen, under the Command of This beautiful Ship will be supplied with Cabin, Second Cabin, and Steerage.
 The plan of the Cabin, Scale of Passage, and all necessary information can be had of
JOHN M
 Cork, September 10.