

they would not be in pay any large amount on.

id plaintiff could have much larger amount in Court, but he was void incurring heavy reply to Mr. Dore, a result of the assault for three weeks and as st £6. He also had an at the time to give a on the Radio Eireann ut he could not keep ment as one of his njured as a result of nd he was claiming £1 respect of that. He d that he suffered a ng to having to cancel lance which he was to his hall on the 29th d paid £1 for doctor's nd 10/- for medicines, a total of £13 10s. He , however, to reduce £10.

We are not claiming respect of pain and ing out of the assault. n—I don't think you anything under that ortunately.

Mr. Cussen, plaintiff the cancellation of his ann broadcast was stponement but at the done a good deal of preparation for the

—That will make the the better the next s off.

a said the facts were l there was no answer lt. He congratulated he reasonable amount for medical expenses. e remarked that the a reasonable one, and e for the full amount took place on Sunday residence, Ballyculleen, r. Daniel Ryan, at the e of 82 (writes our pondent). Deceased, a and extensive farmer, of the late Rev. P. Monegea, and uncle of ton, C.C., Abbeyfeale. which took place on the family burial Manister Abbey, was ded.

MAN'S DEATH.

A special word of congratulation is due to the City Manager (Mr. J. J. Berkery), under whose administration all these A.R.P. officers and men have worked loyally and harmoniously to bring national honours to Limerick.

RECEPTION DINNER.

All the competing teams and representatives of the other emergency services in the city were entertained to a reception dinner in Cruise's Hotel on Wednesday night.

The Deputy Mayor (Ald. J. Carew), who presided, paid a high tribute to the Limerick crews and said that their success brought honour to the old city.

Speeches were also made by Mr. J. J. Berkery, City Manager; Mr. G. F. Bowles, Chief Warden; Mr. M. D. Shaw, Deputy Comdt. Hurley, Deputy Chief Warden O'Farrell, and Rev. T. Hurley, S.J.

LIMERICK GOLF CLUB

Sunday next, 24th September—Captain's Prize—Stroke cards from 10 a.m. to 1 p.m.

Afternoon—Fourball v. bogey. Captain's dinner in Pavilion at 7.30 p.m.

A record entry for the prize presented by the very popular captain (Mr. W. F. Treacy) is anticipated.

LADIES' SECTION.

The winners of the twelve hole competition, held recently under the auspices of Limerick Golf Club, are as follows:—1st, Mrs. J. Hefferman; 2nd, Miss N. O'Brien.

First round of the Lloyd Cup competition on or by 24th inst.

FIFTEEN ON PREMISES

In the report of a licensing case at Limerick City District Court this day week against Sarah Mulcahy, High Street, it was stated that about fifteen people were found on the premises on the occasion in question. It should have been mentioned that of the fifteen only one was illegally on the premises, all the others being "bona fides."

MURROE WOMAN'S DEATH

Miss Margaret Callanan, Clonloughna, Murroe, was found by neighbours lying on the floor at her residence in a prostrate condition. She died shortly after being discovered. She had been ill for some time.

she is in a position to cater for versatile tastes.

Amongst other qualifications, she holds:—(1) A diploma of callisthenics (including sokol drill, dumbbells, Swedish drill, club swinging, marching, bat drill, bar bells, hoop drill, skipping, games, ball drill); (2) a certificate for physical culture; (3) a diploma for Irish dancing under Irish Dancing Commission (T.C.R.G.); (4) classical dancing.

Classes are open to children as well as to adults. For further information application may be made to Miss Greene at 12 St. Gerard Street, or at St. Michael's Temperance Hall on Tuesdays and Fridays from 4 to 6 p.m. (—)

PRESENTATION TO OFFICIAL

On the occasion of his departure from Limerick to take over the duties of the Secretaryship of the Kilkenny Co. Council, Mr. T. E. Broe was made a presentation by the staff of the Limerick Co. Council, to which body he was accountant during the past two years.

Mr. P. J. Meghen, B.E., County Manager, in making the presentation, which took the form of a wallet of notes, paid a high tribute to Mr. Broe for his efficiency and unfailing kindness, courtesy and affability.

Mr. L. O'Donnell, Co. Secretary, also spoke and said that Mr. Broe was an official of outstanding ability.

Mr. Broe suitably replied and a pleasant musical evening followed.

ST. JOHN'S HOSPITAL

The annual collection in aid of St. John's Hospital will, by kind permission of his Lordship the Bishop, be held at all the Masses in all the city churches on Sunday next. The object to be served is an eminently worthy one and deserves most generous support.

BROADFORD HANDBALL CLUB

Last week-end the Broadford Handball Club held their first annual dance at the Parochial Hall, Dromcollogher. The function proved most enjoyable and upwards of 150 couples danced to the music supplied by Mick Delahunty and his band.