

ed,—raving,
ges who had Holland was assing through
about thirty
Brother Strook
clothing and shot at brother
knocked two
he back-door.
the battle till
a consultation
ment I should
of civil power,
ciety, for thus urrection under
ut his throat
n the head.' At hen carried me
ore and ware-
k in the ground
th considerable onsulted as to applied. Some were for strip-
not agree, and
ver at my head.
aiminig, 'don't
e thinks he de-
the work with-
to see whether
l no arms con-
ced putting on
pletely saturat-
face and neck,
at, satin waist-
red my cravat,
gn to my feet.
and on my feet,
peared like balls
out of my head.
n was beaming
midnight. After
has one minute
e can have five
time he shall be
; they followed
me to step faster
much misery I
see objects, but
r. By the time
er Strook's store
and I could dis-
Here were the ter, over whom overseer, some t of this mob to clutches. Some ging their hands
patriotic women
hters still lived
ering humanity.
bridle on, and I got the saddle
on my work as shed out of my
turned me back,
As I passed out Chamberlin and
ing. (I hope he d him.) When
me. After I told amberlain asked
to his father-in-
m I thought I
willing to try it.
nowing that the
turned off from er Miller's they hind us. After ndition, I was
o, the attention
ends at Brother
covered from the housand fold in everlasting !
or which I hold
spect to answer
ars of the seat-
leaven."

son of Mr. William Sparks, of Newton-abbey, Devon, to Maria Maria, eldest daughter of Mr. Thomas Eliot Johnston, formerly of Dublin, now of the colony of Victoria.
At Fiery Creek Diggins, Australia, Daniel O'Connor, Esq. of Mallow, to Margaret, second daughter of William Flood Nagle, Esq. of Dublin, and formerly of Thurles.

DEATHS.

On yesterday, at his sister's residence, in Rathmines, near Dublin, after a long and protracted illness, which he bore with Christian fortitude and resignation, James Marshall, Esq. of this city, much and sincerely regretted. Mr. Marshall was one of the most extensive auctioneers in the South of Ireland, and displayed a large amount of talent in the exercise of his profession, the duties of which he discharged with an unswerving fidelity, and ever in a satisfactory manner to all concerned. In private life his affable deportment and social manners endeared him to a large circle of friends and acquaintances.

On the 21st inst. at her residence on the North Strand, the wife of Mr. John Doherty, and widow of the late William F. Taverner, Esq. of this city, and sister of Col. Fitzmayer. Her death is a source of deep affliction to her young family and relatives.

On Tuesday, at his house, Merchant's-quay, aged 83 years, Mr. Richard Jackson—a respectable inhabitant, who enjoyed good health and strength to within a few days previous to his dissolution.

September 22d, at Rathmines, of water on the brain, aged 7 years, Emily Constance Elizabeth, youngest and beloved daughter of John Massy, Esq.

On Saturday, at Olivemount, the Rev. Bernard Kirby, late of Killonan, near this city—a most humane and charitable man. His remains were accompanied to Miltown, attended by all the Roman Catholic clergy of Dublin.

In Upper Denmark-street, Limerick, Mrs. Molony, wife of Mr. Owen Molony, victualler.

At Adare, much regretted, aged 82, Mr. W. Benson.

At Morelands, county Clare, Mrs. Mary Madden.

At Bagenalstown, county Carlow, Susan, daughter of Mr. P. Mahon, proprietor of the Maid of Erin Hotel, Liverpool.

At Sir Mount, county Cork, Samuel M'Carthy, Esq. aged 95 years.

At Canning place, Passage West, Thomas Haines, Esq. late of Mallow, aged 81.

At Myrtle hill Terrace, Annie, third daughter of the late William Maxwell Browne, Esq. of Cork, aged 12 years.

At Gunsborough, near Listowel, Mr. J. Leonard, aged 42.

At Lilliput, Donnybrook, Jasper John Barry, Esq. Inspector of Revenue Police, second son of the late Garret Barry, Esq. of Rosehill, county Cork.

At Ballinapark, county Wicklow, Emily Louisa, wife of Samuel Fenton, Esq.

In York-street, Jane, relict of the late George Wharton, Esq.

In Dublin, William M. Phillips, Esq. late of Tullamore.

At Sallymount, Ranelagh, Louisa Margaret, wife of Thomas P. Carr, Esq. Mallow, and youngest daughter of Col. the late Hon. Richard St. Leger.

At Dean's Grange, George Williamson, Esq.

In Dublin, Mrs. Rebecca M'Lean, aged 79.

In Upper Baggot-street, Anna, wife of Thomas Lowen, of Cloghans house, county Mayo, Esq.

At Magheralin rectory, Jane, wife of George Langtry, Esq. of Kilmore, county Down.

In Belfast, Mr. Bell.

At Cowes, Lieut-Colonel White, late Adjutant General in this city.

Mr. Joseph Wrightson, Editor of the 'Weekly Dispatch,' London.

At Gosfield hall, Essex, Amelia, fourth daughter of the late Richard Giffard Campion, Esq. of Bushy-park, county Cork, and wife of Thomas Jameson, Esq. of Cork.

On the 22d inst. at Ashton-under-Lyne, Butler J. Boyd, Esq. aged 77 years.

At Lasswade, near Edinburgh, Louisa Marion, wife of Major A. N. Campbell, 18th Royal Irish Regt., and youngest daughter of the late Capt. D. Reid, RN, of Ellenreach, Inverness-shire.

At Thirlstane Castle, the Rt. Hon. Eleanor, Countess of Lauderdale, aged 94.

At Berwick-upon-Tweed, Henrietta Catherine Shephard Laye, third surviving daughter of Capt. Laye, Barrackmaster, and granddaughter of the late Lieut-General Laye, Royal Artillery.

At the Royal Military College, Sandhurst, Emily, wife of Col. Prosser, Lieut Governor of that establishment.

At Vaga Cottage, Ross, Herefordshire, Capt. Adams, aged 81 years.

At Red Lion square, Samuel Robinson, Esq. aged 78.

At Oving house, Bucks, Sir Thomas D. Aubrey, Bart.

At Eusemere hill, Ullswater, Westmoreland, John Charles Bristow, Esq. only son of the late John Bristow, Esq. of Lucknow, in the province of Oude.

In Wimpole-street, Sophia Elizabeth, daughter of the late Charles Rousseau Burney, Esq. of Bath, and niece to Madame D'Arbly, aged 78.

Rachel, the wife of Marmaduke Wyvill, of Constable Burton, and daughter of the late R. S. Milnes, Esq. of Fryston hall, aged 70.

Maria, widow of Mr. Henry Meyer, of Southam, Warwickshire, aged 72.

In London, Mary, wife of James Betts, Esq. distiller.

At Dieppe, Lt-Col. Ferdinand White, CB.

In Demerara, of yellow fever, aged 26 years, Mr. Thomas Trousdell, mate of the barque 'Minstrel,' son of the late John Trousdell, Esq. of the Limerick Customs.

At Tunis, Africa, the Rev. E. A. Page, son of the late Mr. Theodore Page, of Blackfriars-road.

At Sholapore, Lieut. Mathew H. G. Isacks, 8th Regt. Madras Light Cavalry, eldest son of Capt. Isacke, late HEIC Maritime service.

On his passage from Hobart Town, in the Mercia, of which ship he was medical officer, Frederick, fourth son of the Rev. Samuel Sheen, rector of Stanstead, Suffolk.

In Melbourne, Australia, Mr. William Crosbie, hotel-keeper, eldest brother to Mr. Arthur Crosbie, of Tralee.