

EMBER 30.

HOME AT TERVOE.

day with the happy prosperous ry of the Tervoe property, that ch the usual harvest home cele-the Lord of the soil, the Right ell, M.P. The weather was most being beautifully fine. A clear ning sun added to the enjoyments. re peculiarly pleasing. In front on a variety of rustic sports, &c., contributed not a little to amuse led to witness them. Mr. Monsell Ball and lady, Miss Barry, Mr.
Lynch, of the Ordnance Office, Hon. Miss Blount were seated in hile on the verdant sward before undreds of the residents in the between young boys and girls, ed the early afternoon while a band usic played soul-stirring airs.— ost, through the opening vistas of the lawn was studded, a beautiiver and woodland scenery was hannon spreading like a sea, over-k trees of the Crat oe mountains.
ff in the most agreeable manner, most impartially as Judge and In the evening the farm labour-with a substantial "good old ast beef and plum pud'ing while ts were received in the house with that bespoke the true warmth of lity. In the course of the evening

Sergeant Salmon, 3rd Buffs, is in a dying state in the military hospital from the effects of a severe beating as alleged by the three men of the County Limerick Militia. We refer to the proceedings at the Police Court yesterday. [Since the above was written we regret to state that the unfortunate sufferer died, having breathed his last to-day at 2 o'clock. Deceased was an active non-commissioned officer, only 27 years of age, and bore an excellent character in the Regt.]

Lieutenant Colonel Moore, Col. Irwin, and Colonel Skipwith have been appointed to the Staff of Depot Battalions.

General Havelock is to be created a Baronet with a splendid annuity from the Crown.

Major General William Reid, Royal Engineers, has left England for Malta, to re-assume the government of that Island, after two months leave of absence.

Captain A. B. Hankey, 69th Regiment, has been appointed Aide-de-Camp to Major General Eden, Commanding the troops at Plymouth.

The Commander-in-Chief has directed that every Regiment shall be instructed in the bayonet exercise, according to the system of the late Mr. Angelo.

A young officer, heir to £5,000 per annum, who was in the Crimea, and wounded in the attack upon the Kedan, has sailed for India. He was one of those appointed to stay at home, but he purchased from another officer his turn to go out, and has taken his departure in the highest spirits.

When the 8th and 17th embark there will be but four cavalry regiments in Ireland, and only eight in other parts of the United Kingdom. Three regiments have given volunteers to the regiments proceeding to related some anecdote to ner in which the mission works, and, after a very a much applause.

The Rev. Mr. Duncan,
the resolution in a very
which was listened to wit very telling effect.

The Rev. Thomas Mag
ciety's preachers, propos said he felt sorry that he than was allowed him t
many very important fact that existed for greatly in
He had laboured as a m Ireland but one, and from the great want of more m
—he knew of many distr
thought of going to a ho little of the preaching o heathen land.

The Rev. David Wilso
conded the resolution. T did not intend making a Doctor Heather, the depu still to address the meeti remarks in that true Cat times characterised his ad

Doctor Heather next
spoke for near an hour,
great work being done
ployed by the society, and