

the romantic scenery of
 have been very numeals during the last
 ansdown Arms' hotel,
 et attention and inva-
 his numerous guests
 r, Inspector-General,
 tain Brownrigg, Sub-
 ail, county Limerick,
 e, county Limerick,
 Poffenburg, attached
 histler, Poplar-park,
 or M'Lean and Capt.
 Baldwin, author of Justin Rice, Esq. co. etween Kenmare and e or six miles being erected over the river road from Tralee to eation much needed
 ditious.
 new Roman Catholic at of Loughill, in this

ough post-office, has ined in that establish-ad post-bills for £50
 h. The Postmaster-rehension. The bills
 Thomas Carroll.
 ed for Youghal.
 rge fair of Clerihan,
 18s. to 20s. per cwt.
 Contract for last year
 taken at £5 2s 0. and £5 2 6d.
 served for Rathkeale

DEATHS.

Suddenly, on Tuesday morning, at Balingoola Glebe, in this County, sincerely and deservedly regretted, Julia, wife of the Rev. Dr. Fitzgerald, Vicar of Cahercorney.
 In Cork, Susan, youngest daughter of Dr. Pitcairn, Deputy Inspector-General of Hospitals, in the 21st year of her age.
 Admiral Sir Thomas Tyler, father of Mrs. Col. Mansel.
 In Marlborough-street, Dublin, Mrs. Colville.
 At his residence Dunmanway, Mr. Benjamin Wright, aged 66 years.
 At Ballygarvan, the seat of Joseph Coghlan, Esq, Elinor, relict of the late Mr. George Noblett, of Cork.
 At Caragroan, Cork, of consumption, John O'Brien, Esq.
 At Crescent Strand, Cork, Frances, daughter of Allen Graham, Esq.
 Sarah, youngest daughter of David Ryan, Esq. of Castlecomer, county Kilkenny.
 At Athlone, the infant son of Major-Gen. Sir John Buchan, K.C.B.
 Walker Ferrand, Esq. of Harden Grange, near Bingley. Mr. Ferrand contested Peterborough at the last election as a Tory.
 Lieut. Henry Fournier, R.N.
 At Keppel-house, Chelsea, in his 71st year, Lieut.-Colonel Thomas Vincent Reynolds, formerly Major of the 30th Regiment, and Inspector-General of Military Surveys.
 At Cheltenham, Edward, son of the Rev. S. E. Bernard.
 At Middleton, near Wirksworth, Mrs. Grace Bateman, aged 87.
 At Gateforth House, Humphrey Brooke Osbaldeston, Esq. of Normanby and Gateforth, in his 90th year.
 At Llanllyfui, near Carmarthen, Mary Parry, formerly in the service of George the Third, at St. James's.
 In Boulogne, aged 31, John Rice, Esq. surgeon to the Metropolitan Infirmary.

15 Globe Insurance.

THE Receipts for Premiums on FIRE Insurance Policies due Michaelmas, 1835, are prepared at the Office of Alderman D. F. G. MAHONY & SON, Agents, No. 3, Tontine Buildings, where they are to be discharged.

Premiums due on LIFE POLICIES are also to be paid at the usual periods they respectively become due, at said Office.

Annuities for Life, granted on similar terms to those effected with Government, Limerick, October 3.

16 Morning Concert.

LARG
 LAU
 Commer
 the 6th C

23
Terms

H. N. and place
 Deposi
 * * P

JAME Sell
 "HALL" 212
 The S October.
 House S
 Sale to c

25
SAUN
 S TH
 Dock, C
 "Alert,
 the Bay 90,
 20,
 5,