

blessed at seeing the
le. Wherever these to labour for the rescue
and preaching stations was proved that the attended them grew
the work which that namely, the evangelisa-
-air mission, and they
of the Gospel of Christ
in his heart he wished that God might cause
hours (applause).
resident Secretary of the station, then addressed
gth, in an able and elo-
interesting accounts of led the Society's mists of Ireland.
an passed to Mr. Thomas the chair, the meeting
g the Doxology, after aid of the funds of the ntributed.

this day visited the St.
-place, and was gratified
t and proficiency of the ven by the Rev. Princi-ersary of the opening of

as witnessed on Sunday
procession of the children
Holy Family. Upwards
ired, walked from St.
bl-rooms at Pery-square,
at an elegant and sub-
y the Rev. J. Synan.—
nem by the Rev. gentleobe O'Brien, and several attendanee, under the l contributed greatly to dings, which passed off

rbison at Ennis Chapel hool, was responded to

and disgraceful robbery es of the Convent of the which were plundered of pparel, sheeting, table
er arteles, which the robbers left upwards
e. coming thro' a hedge.
rock coat, nearly new.
pledged this morning in alf-past 9 o'clock. The er the notice of the their court this day and ilities which exist for perty,

Rev. Henry Cutler, brother to the bride, Francis, second son of Nathaniel Barton, Esq. of Straffan, to Fanny Annie, eldest daughter of Capt. Cutler, R.N. HM's Consul at Bordeaux.

On the 31st May, at Trinity church, Pentridge, near Melbourne, by the Rev. William Carter, Mr. Francis G. Davis, to Miss Anne Keane, both of Limerick.

DEATHS.

This morning, at his house, Richmond Terrace, to the deep regret of his family, George Wellington Evans, Esq. solicitor, and this afternoon, Eliza, his amiable and devoted wife. This terrible visitation has made orphans in double sense of their son and daughter, both minors, and for whose domestic bereavement sincere commiseration is generally felt.

At his brother's residence, Shanakiel, Charles M. Carthy, Esq. AB, TCD.

At Highthorn, county Dublin, Helena, daughter of John Orpin, Esq.

At Cashel, Dr. J. Morrissy.

Eliza, daughter of Mr. John Bayly, Taylor-street.

The wife of Mr. D. O'Connor, wheelwright, Mardyke.

The wife of Mr. B. Kirby, Knocklong.

On Usher's quay, suddenly, Mr. John Parker, an old and highly respected member of the printing profession.

At Middle Abbey-street, Mary, wife of John Dennon, Esq.

At his cottage, Susan place, Kingstown. Henry Richardson, Esq. aged 100 years. He was the oldest solicitor on record, and was a notary public, proctor of Admiralty, and stock broker.

At Lower Bridge-street, Dublin, the Rev. Patrick Purcell, aged 82.

At Sallymount, near Aughrim, Jane, wife of Mr. Henry Wheatley.

At Exchange-street, Mr. Patrick Murphy.

Aged 85, Mr. Richard Feehily, of the Crescent, Boyle.

At Hanwell, Middlesex, Anne, wife of Henry Cupps
Wright, aged 23.

At Dublin, William, infant son of Anne
and Henry, and at Dublin, the above named Henry Cupps
Wright, aged 26.

In Edinburgh, Amelia Grant O'Neill, aged 28, the beloved wife of Major Wm. O'Neill, late Staff Officer of Pensioners at Ennis, and niece of John Gordon Forbes, Esq. late of the Ceylon Civil service.

At Glasgow, John Mooney, Esq. surgeon, son of Dr. Mooney, Swateragh, county Derry.

At Brighton, the Rt. Hon. Sir Henry Ellis, KCB.

At Nevill park, Tunbridge wells, General D'Oyly, Colonel of the 33d (Duke of Wellington's) Regt. aged 75.

At Bishop's Hull, near Taunton, the Rev. Edward Everard, DD, incumbent of Bishop's Hull.

Michael Fraser, Esq. of Furnival's inn, and Manor cottage, Walworth.

At Brighton, the Rev. John Sanford, aged 78.

At Portswood, near Southampton, Alfred Domett, son of the late Capt. Fry, 11th Regt.

Sister Placida, of the Benedictine Convent at Hammersmith.

At London, Philip Edward Bayly, Esq. aged 72.

At Kempsey, Worcestershire, Capt. Arthur P. Smith, RE.

At Bonnington Bank, Robert Scott, Esq. merchant, Leith.

In Fitzroy-square, David Tod, Esq. surgeon.

At Seend, Wilts, Wm. H. L. Bruges, Esq. formerly MP for Bath.

At Everton, suddenly, the Ven. Archdeacon Brooke, senior rector of Liverpool, aged 80.

Meriel Emily, and Francis, children of Capt. M. Mathews, 57th Regt.

At Gennevillises, near Paris, Mr. George Waterhouse, of Kilmore, near Kiliney, co. Dublin.

At Baden Baden, the residence of Frederic Hamilton, Esq.
HBM Charge d'Affaires, the Hon. Mrs. Erskine Norton.

Of wounds received on the parapet of the Redan, Lieut. W.
Kerr, 30th Regt. eldest son of W. C. Ker, MD, Northampton.

On board HM's transport ship, St. Hilda, Kertch, William Edwards, of the Admiralty Diving Staff, Crimea.

In New York, aged 22 Mr. Wm. Copeland Clarke, United States Navy, son of Thomas Clarke, Esq. TC, of Waterford.

In San Francisco, Dr. Timothy S. Murphy.

On the passage to Aden, Eliza Anne, wife of Lieut. W.
Metge, 83d Regt. aged 23.

At Calcutta, Sir C. F. Dozey.

Newport, Tipperary. P

Summ

TO BE LET, from the next, the House an containing 23 acres, measure, and situate nea
and Kilmallock. The H
the very best possible ord
tion for a large family.
with Fruit Trees, and the Further particulars ma
to Rev. J. GABBETT, Ard

ARMY CO

DEPUTY COMM

Dublin, 24

Sealed tenders will be r
noon on THURSDAY
for the supply of

BREAD

for Her Majesty's Land Months, from the 1st De
May 1856.

The tenders to be made
be obtained at this Office
Three o'clock; to be a Commissary General, Du
outside "Tender for Brea case may be.

Hartigan's Ho

N O

IN consequence of Bal
ster Fair interfering Sale will not be held unti Munster Fair; therefore and not having disposed opportunity of Selling a Sale. MI

Sept. 3.

Regula

FROM LIVERPO

SAILING PUNCTUALLY

OF EAC

Now

THE

CAPT.

An A 1 Sch

MERCHA

Shipme

to communica

will have their delay.

T

Coal and Salt

18, Ch

R.

Sept. 29.