 On the 29th ult. on Staughton's-Row, Tralee, Melian, widow of the late George Morgan, Esq.—as a wife, a parent, and a friend, her character was truly estimable. She was enabled to triumph over death,—and it may be truly said of her that she has sweetly fallen asleep in Jesus.
 At Castletown, in this County, on the 26th ult. Mr. James Richardson, formerly of Augher, in the county Tyrone,—a man of well-known integrity, universally respected by all who knew him, beloved and regretted by a large circle of friends. He died after a long and painful affliction, which he bore with exemplary patience and Christian resignation to the end of his course; and having triumphed over the fears of death through the merits of his Redeemer, his happy spirit is departed to the regions of the blessed to share in the joys that are eternal before the throne of God.
