 We understand that the establishment of the late much lamented Richard Bouchier, (who has left a widow, and thirteen children) is still to be carried on by his son, Surgeon Bouchier, who served an apprenticeship of eight years to his father. His brother, who has also served his time, will remain attached, until he qualifies as a Licentiate Apothecary. Under those circumstances, we sincerely hope there will be a continuance of that patronage and support that their late father always enjoyed. We have no doubt but that every thing will be conducted with the same care, attention and assiduity, as heretofore.
 A man named Leamy, who was committed by Alderman Watson, charged with a robbery of 700 sacks from the house of E. W. Gable, corn merchant in Liverpool, died in the City Gaol yesterday; he was arrested here some time since by a policeman from Liverpool, and was then far advanced in consumption.

BALLINASLOE FAIR.

Wethers sold on Tuesday brought higher prices rienced a reduction.

Ballinasloe, Wednesday.

The second day's sheep fair was quite as good for wethers as the first; any good lots fetched a higher price than on Monday. Ewes not in equal demand.

Sold both days,	69,438
Unsold,	7,061
Total exhibited,	76,499
Sold, 1840,	74,080

Total,	90,760

The horse fair is considerably damped by the great and continuing severity of the weather. The horses cannot be shown to advantage, and the prices are not considered good by the sellers.
