

Francis, son of the late William Dickinson, Esq. Controller General HM's Customs, London, to Anne Overbury, daughter of A. Borling, Esq. Southampton, Hants.
 At Melbourne, James Hinton Moon, Esq. nephew to Sir Francis Graham Moon, Bart. Lord Mayor of London, to Hester Frances, daughter of Mr. John West, Union court.

DEATHS.

At Castletown, in this county, the seat of her brother, the Rev. William Waller, Eliza, wife of the Rev. J. Beresford Johnstone, rector of Tullow, county Carlow, a lady sincerely regretted by her family and friends.

Aged 11, Fanny, daughter of Edward John Smith, of Rutland-square, Dublin, Esq.

At the residence of his afflicted mother, in Denmark-street, after a painful and lingering illness, William Palmer, aged 17 years, son of the late Mr. Edward Palmer, of Caherdavin, and brother of Mr. John Palmer, of the City Limerick Militia Artillery, who was drowned at the Island point last summer.

At Abbeyville, county Cork, at an advanced age, Elizabeth Ann, eldest and only surviving daughter of the late Thomas Merrick, Esq.

At Clonmel, after a long illness, Emma Louisa, the beloved child of Samuel Hill.

Capt. Beatty, of Barntown house, Wexford, late of the 34th Regt., on his return from shooting. The deceased served in the Peninsular war, and received a medal for the battle of Talavera.

At Lakeview, Killarney, the seat of his father, of decline, aged 24, James, third son of James O'Connell, Esq. DL.

Richard J. Downing, Esq. formerly connected with the press of Cork, and several years a parliamentary reporter for the Morning Herald.

On Saturday, after a short illness, Mary Anne, wife of Sub-Constable Carey, of William-street station. She was a woman of estimable disposition, and much regretted by her friends.

At the Royal Hospital, Kilmainham, Ellen, relict of Samuel Burges, Esq. late Captain of the Royal Invalids.

Anna, relict of the late Michael Head Drought, Esq. of Haristown, Queen's County.

In Bandon, Margaret Tindal, wife of the Rev. Mr. Waugh.

At Snugboro', Blackrock, Mrs. Anne Spencer, aged 82.

Mr. Denis Kean, of Gort, and at Ballyvaughan, Mrs. Hickie, daughter of Mr. Denis Kean, deceased.

In Tuam, after a lingering illness, the Rev. J. C. Thynne, Master of the Tuam Diocesan school for several years. The rev. gentleman was possessed of talents of a high order, and an urbanity of manner which rendered him much esteemed.

At Cregg house, near Gort, aged 80, Maurice Harnett, Esq. formerly of Milltown, co. Dublin.

At Portlaw, of scarlatina, Christopher, son of H. E. Redmond, Esq.

At Gardenfield, Galway, of fever, aged 16, Martin, youngest son of the late James Kirwan, Esq. JP.

At Hanover, Carlow, Lieut. Wm. Clarke, Carlow Rifles.

At Coolegad, county Wicklow, aged 77, R. Fox, Esq.

In the 21st year of her religious profession, M. Benedicta Somers, Mother Abbess of the Abbey of Loretto, Gorey.

At Classon bridge, Dundrum, Jane, relict of the late Mr. John Howe, aged 70.

Miss Woulfe, aged 69 years

At the Grove, Hackney, J. Copling, sen. Esq. aged 89.

At Eling vicarage, near Southampton, the Rev. W. J. G. Phillips, MA, vicar of Eling, and rector of Millbrook, Hants.

At Keswick, of apoplexy, the Rev. Thomas Reddill, vicar of Masham and Kirkby Malzeard.

At Chester, Capt. Charles Stanhope Jones, of the Royal Anglesey Militia, and late Captain 59th Foot.

In Cheltenham, Maria, wife of the Rev. S. C. Sharpe, Principal of the Pittville school.

At Lee place, Lee, Kent, Daniel Eyre, Esq. aged 77.

At Kensington park Villas, Benjamin Butler, Esq. formerly of Manilla.

At Portman-square, Rear Admiral the Hon. Wm. H. Percy, brother of the Earl of Beverley.

In Sloane-street, Colonel Dalmer.

At Inverinate, Lochalsh, NB, from falling over a cliff into the sea, Lavinia Mary, wife of A. Matheson, Esq. MP, and sister of the late Lord Beaumont.

At Westbourne terrace, Jessie, wife of Lt-Col. Dunbar.

At Graythwaite, Westmoreland, Major George Cox, late of the 60th Bengal NI.

At Scrayingham rectory, Christiana, wife of the Rev. W. F. Douglas, and daughter of the late Admiral the Hon. Sir Robt. Stopford.

At Fareham, aged 79, Elizabeth, relict of George Fennell, Esq. formerly Accountant to the Treasurer of the Navy.

At Hampton court, Georgiana, wife of Wm. James Metcalfe, Esq. barrister-at-law.

At Harrogate, the Rev. John Baldwin, of Dalton, near Ulverstone.

At Ehrenbreitstein on the Rhine, Elizabeth Frances, eldest daughter of the Hon. Peregrine F. Cust.

In the hospital at Scutari, from Crimean fever, Henry A. Wright, Esq. Lieut. 6th Dragoon Guards, aged 19.

Address R.A.--To be heard of ABRAHAM, Seedmerchant, 8, George'

TO THE
ELECTORS OF THE BARON Upper Connelloe and
 GENTLEMEN,

THE death of my aged Father
 vacancy in the Office of Coroner
 Western Division of this County, of offering myself as a Candidate for

The great length of time—close on during which my Father held that Office credit to himself and satisfaction to ther with my personal acquaintance you, and the promises of support thro'
 from several influential quarters, incl'
 and Roman Catholic Clergymen, ha' deed I might say—invited me to so your suffrages.

Should I happily be the object of may rely on my best endeavours to
 of the office with zeal, diligence, and

I have the honor to re
 Gentlemen,
 Your very obed

Ballinamona, Ballingarry,
 Oct. 9, 1855.

TO THE ELECTORS OF THE Upper Connelloe &
 GENTLEMEN,

A VACANCY for Coroner
 occurred in your District, by t of my respected friend, Mr. Cox, I honour of your support at the ensui

An intimate knowledge of the rel been officially attained by over 20
 may entitle me to your favourable it is an assurance that those import fided to me, will be efficiently disch

I am, Gentlemen,
 Your faithful Fr
 ROBERT J

Ahaline, Newcastle, Oct. 8.

COALS, CO

THE undersigned have on pass expected from Newcastle and Cargoes of the Very Best Wallsend
 Wigan, commonly known as Or being Consignments, will be sold to prevent additional expenses.
 than Five Tons (until Vessels ar
 and booked at lowest prices.

RYAN, BR
 Office, H

October 10.

Hartigan's Horse
 NOTICE

IN consequence of Ballinasloe
 ster Fair interfering, the n
 Sale will not be held until FRIDAY
 the Great Munster Fair; therefor
 the Fair, and not having dispose will have the opportunity of Sell
 on the day of Sale.

Sept. 3.

MICH