

and Lieutenant Henry ar promotion, vice Captain Ellis, advanced to the second one bear date from the 16th thankfully acknowledges the ain J. E. Maunsell, and 5l.

sell for Protestant Orphan

thankfully acknowledges, per 1l. each from Mrs. Duffield, ell M'Naster, Esq., Ganville, from Mrs. Enraght, for the thankfully acknowledges a donafrom an unknown friend, for ylum for the Blind; 1l. from from Miss White, Milford, by o a parcel of clothes for the nry Cotter, senior Curate of ual kind consideration for the nt disposition towards the most generously supplied his ners with coal for the winter.

love and mercy, such an exo see more generally followed ntropists in this inclement ffer so much for want of fuel.
al window is about to be in the Church of Kilfinane, te Mr Joseph Wiggin, who years clerk and school-master ony of grateful appreciation and of public respect for his ormly maintained during a ears and twelve.

Laval Willis, D.D, who has cross during the temporary abs-bertson, has returned to Brad-

Hope Robertson, chaplain at as resumed the duties of his weeks' absence in Edinburgh

iamson, rector of Clenore, has ishop of Cork to the rectory of the secession from the Church of with the Established Church of a O'Gorman Mahon, only son of ate M.P. for Ennis, Ireland, and well known in all political cir-ter of the Liberal party.—Court

e Rev. Thomas Woodward, has ange sermon to be preached to cale in the Cathedral of Down-ng 5th of November.

Rev. E. A. Ommanny, rector of the proctors in Convocation and Wells, will probably be acant by the death of Arch-

14th Regiment Madras N I.
At Brighton, Captain Charles Francis Smith, 71st Highland Light Infantry, to Anastasia Haly, daughter of General Hutton, Indian Army.
At Exeter, Captain George L. Blake, R.M.L.I., to Elizabeth, daughter of B. Kerr, Esq., of Wescliffe, Isle of Wight.
At Aberdeen, Thomas, son of William Pilkington, Esq., of Eccleston Hall, Lancashire, to Lucy, daughter of Thos. Todd, Esq., Mary Cutler House, Kincardineshire.

DEATHS.

20th October, suddenly, at Vesey-place, Kingstown, Mrs.
Armstrong, aged 70, widow of the late William Henry Armstrong, Esq., of Mount Heaton, King's County, and daughter of Colonel Charles MacDonnell, of New Hall, county Clare.
At his house, George-street, Kathleen Frederica, aged 10 months, daughter of J. B. Bouchier.
Monday, at his residence, William-street, after a protracted illness, borne with Christian fortitude and resignation, Mr.
John Pitts, ironmonger, leaving a widow and large family to deplere his loss. He was an energetic and enterprising man of business, honest and punctual in his dealings, and esteemed by all who knew him.
On the 23d of August, at his father's residence, Collingwood, Melbourne, after an attack of dysentery, to the deep affliction of his family, and the great regret of his friends, Miles William Monckton, Esq., eldest son of Miles Monckton, Esq., formerly of Asborough, in this county.
At Birr, John Hubert, son of John R. Brereton, Esq.
At Lee Mount, Passage, county Cork, Mrs. Bryan.
At Lower Clanbrassil-street, Dublin, Thomas Groves, Esq.
In Sligo, Frances Gethin, daughter of the late Sir Percy Gethin, Bart.
At Cloonkeen, Castlereagh, Patrick Sweeny, Esq.
At Castlereagh, Mr Owen Gannon.
At Ballinamore, county Leitrim, Nicholas Kelly, Esq., Resident Magistrate.
At Lower Baggot-street, Dublin, Thomas Pounder, Esq., J.P., of Enniscorthy
In Galway, Isabella, wife of James Campbell, Esq.
At Clontarf, James M Fadden, Esq.
At Stephen's-Green West, Dublin, Catherine Sarah, relict of Thomas W Parr, Esq.
At Bayview-avenue, Dublin, Maria, daughter of the late Jas.
Hely, Esq., C.E., Kilkenny
At Mount Carmel Convent, New Ross, Josephine, daughter of the late Patrick Ledwidge, of Dublin.
At Drogheda, Maryanne, wife of Eugene Clarke, Esq.
At Monkstown, county Dublin, Marianna, widow of Edmund Cashin, Esq.
At Monkstown, Dublin, Mrs. Anne Cowan.
At Westland-row, Dublin, Elizabeth, wife of Mr. Thomas Gilbert.
The Rev. William Hanna, Reformed Presbyterian Minister, Newtownards.
At Monaghan, Mr. Robert M'Coy.
At Canning-street, Belfast, Marianna Curtis, wife of Joseph
G. Thompson, Esq.
At Paris, Mrs. Walshe, relict of William Walshe, Esq., of Dublin, barrister-at-law.
At Auckland, New Zealand, James Wm. Kingsley, late of the 5th Fusiliers, son of the late Major Kingsley, of Blackrock, county Dublin.
At Melbourne, Lizzie, wife of the Rev. James Caldwell, and daughter of Richard Long, Esq., M.D., of Arthurstown, county Wexford.
At Boulogne, Lady Kinnier Macdonald, widow of Sir John Kinnier Macdonald, of Sanda.
At Mablethorpe, Lincolnshire, Fanny, wife of the Rev. Wm.
Walker, and daughter of the late Daniel Jones, Esq., of Banada Abbey, county Sligo.
In London, the Right Hon. Lady Downes.
At Cliftonville, near Brighton, Mary, relict of F. W. Stanford, Esq., formerly of the 1st Life Guards.
At Corozal, West Indies, Charles Bagot, Assistant-Surgeon
2d West India Regt, son of the late Rev. John Bagot, of Foutstown Glebe, county Kildare.
At Ottawa, James Carton, formerly of Meadstown, county
Dublin
At Malta, Alfred Delamain, youngest child of Surgeon A.
Crocker, 2nd Battalion 3rd Buffs.
At Fremantle, Western Australia, Charles, son of Captain Grain, Royal Engineers.

which may a or 21s hande
London: LC

Oct 24

DO YOU
A

IMPROV

Will do as

Several H

Ware-room,
October 24

Hall's

KIT

ARE the plicity
practical kno boil, steam, a time. The I entire and pe
chimneys; th gulated that consumed ere sizes and finis

HOORN FURN

S

20

SEE

Oct 24