DEATHS.

Suddenly, on Tuesday morning, at Ballingoodra Glebe, in this County, sincerely and deservedly regretted, Julia, wife of the Rev. Dr. Fitzgerald, Vicar of Cahercorney.

In Cork, Susan, youngest daughter of Dr. Pitcairn, Deputy Inspector-General of Hospitals, in the 31st year of her age.

Admiral Sir Thomas Tyler, father of Mrs. Col. Mansel.

In Marlborough-street, Dublin, Mrs. Colville.

At his residence Dúnmanway, Mr. Benjamin Wright, aged 66 years.

At Ballygarvan, the seat of Joseph Coghlan, Esq., Elinor, relict of the late Mr. George Noblett, of Cork.

At Caragory, Cork, of consumption, John O'Brien, Esq.

At Crescent Strand, Cork, Frances, daughter of Allen Graham, Esq.

Sarah, youngest daughter of David Ryan, Esq. of Castlecomer, county Kilkenny.

At Athlone, the infant son of Major-Gen. Sir John Buchan, K.C.B., Walker Ferrand, Esq. of Harden Grange, near Bingley. Mr. Ferrand contested Peterborough at the last election as a Tory.

Lieut. Henry Fournier, R.N.

At Keppel-house, Chelsea, in his 71st year, Lieut.-Colonel Thomas Vincent Reynolds, formerly Major of the 80th Regiment, and Inspector-General of Military Surveys.

At Cheltenham, Edward, son of the Rev. S. E. Bernard.

At Middleton, near Wirksworth, Mrs. Grace Bateman, aged 87.

At Gatenhouse, Humphrey Brooke Osbaldeston, Esq. of Normanby and Gatehouse, in his 90th year.

At Llanllyfui, near Carmarthen, Mary Parry, formerly in the service of George the Third, at St. James's.

In Boulogne, aged 31, John Rice, Esq. surgeon to the Metropolitan Infirmary.

---

Globe Insurance.

The receipts for premiums on FIRE Insurance Policies due Michaelmas, 1835, are prepared at the Office of Alderman D. F. G. Mahony & Son, Agents, No. 3, Tontine Buildings, where they are to be discharged.

Premiums due on LIFE POLICIES are also to be paid at the usual periods they respectively become due, at said Office.

Annuities for Life, granted on similar terms to those effected with Government.

Limerick, October 3.