

Church of Glin,
the Right Rev.
Charles M'Donnell
y ordained, has s, in this city.
, gratefully ace Earl of Dun-
; and a double nd Co., towards ylum.
rely from spasms

he MAGDALEN
r the Superinten-D SHEPHERD the distinguished on TUESDAY
th, October Inst.,
-ROOM, Bruns
ve o'Clock.
END.

TION YARD,

HIGAN

Noblemen, Gen-al, having Hunt-General use, and onthly Sale, will n order that due

26th and 27th,
the 28th Instant, Munster Fair).—
0 Horses will be plication to HARTIGAN, tioneer.

SION GIVEN.

No. 36. George'sed by Mr. George most eligible for ROLD, Esq., 48,

October 12

Builders.

enders from com-
g her House, No.
and Specification, eation.

lege, Cambridge, to Anne, widow of Robert Murray Banner, Major 93d Highlanders, and daughter of Joseph Ferguson, Esq, of Morton, Carlisle.

At Rock Ferry, Cheshire, William, son of William Potter, Esq, of Birkenhead, to Eliza Jane, daughter of the Rev T F Redhead, incumbent of St Peter's, Rock Ferry.

DEATHS.

On Sunday morning, at his house in Cecil-street, after a short illness, Emily, the beloved wife of Patrick Tuthill, Esq, solicitor, aged 32 years, leaving a bereaved husband and three young children to mourn her untimely death. She was a fond and affectionate wife, a loving and attentive mother, and her death is universally regretted by family and friends.

On the 7th inst, at Doon, county Clare, after a long illness, Edward Galwey, Esq, JP.

October 8th, at Kilmallock, T Sheedy, Esq, solicitor, deeply and sincerely regretted by his relatives and all who knew his sterling qualities.

Oct. 7th, 1859, Mr Thomas Magner, of Cahermoyle, in this county, aged 68 years, a very respectable and upright man.

At Eaton-square, London, the Dowager Countess of Listowel: Near Clonmel, Mary Hancock Strangman, daughter of the late Thomas Strangman, Esq, of Waterford.

In Grace-street, Ennis, Susan, daughter of the late Mr Patk.
Russell, Kilrush.

In Moore-street, Ennis, Mr Patrick Howard, late of Knockera, county Clare.

On Saturday, at her residence, Janesboro' Cottage, after a protracted illness, which she bore with Christian resignation, Lucy, the beloved wife of Mr D Moran.

In Waterford, Mrs Waring, relict of Samuel Waring, Esq, Springfield, county Kilkenny.

At Sunday's-well, Cork, Margaret, relict of the late Mr Jeremiah Murphy, of Bishopstown.

At Grattan's-hill, Cork, Mrs Keating, relict of Mr J Keating, Kilcoleman, county Limerick.

In Dungarvan, the son of Mr John Moony, grocer.

At Newpark, Kilkenny, Bridget, wife of Kyran Marum, Esq.
At Thurles, Mr Martin Keough.

In New York, Mr Patrick O'Donnell, formerly of Ballingarry, county Tipperary:

At her Cottage, near Queenstown, Miss Elizabeth Lancaster, aged 81 years.

Dr Robert MacDermott, of Great Denmark-street, Dublin.
This lamented gentleman had been for some days past labouring under typhoid fever, caught in the discharge of his professional duties; and at last sunk under it on Saturday morning, notwithstanding all that medical skill, aided by the devoted care of his family and friends, could accomplish.

At Wellington-road, Dublin, Francis Barker, Esq, MD, Professor of Chemistry, Trinity College, &c.

At Upper Dominick-street, Dublin, Captain Martin H Lynch, half pay 27th Regiment.

At Kingstown, Leonora Isabella, daughter of Brevet Major Dawson, 35th Regt, and Jane, his wife, surviving her twin brother three days.

At Coolmine, county Dublin, Sarah, wife of Mr John M' Cullagh, of Mary-street, Dublin.

Juliett Frances Margaret, wife of Wm Srtangways, Esq, of Kilkenny.

At Irishtown, Dublin, Mr Robert D Sullivan, for many years in the employment of Messrs Joseph Watkins and Co.

At Leixlip, Mr Lawrence Dempsey.

At Killiney, Emily Ellen de Jorions, daughter of J Hudleston, Esq, late of the Madras Civil Service:

At Gloucester-street, Dublin, Frederick, son of the late Henry Richardson, Esq, Admiralty Proctor.

Margaret, wife of Mr R Crookes, of Dublin.

At Leinster-road, Rathmines, Jane, daughter of the late Bartholomew Mahon, Esq, of Strokestown, county Roscommon.

At Wexford, Mrs Eliza Doyle, relict of Mr John Doyle

At Secunderabad, Julia, the wife, and also the infant son of Major Edgar Bredin, Royal Artillery.

At Naples, Lady Eleanor Butler, daughter of John Earl of Ormonde.

In London, Hamilton Davies, retired Commander RN.

At Berkeley-square, London, Viscount Villiers.

At Leamington, James Annesley, Esq, her Majesty's Consul at Amsterdam.

At Islington, Alexander Dewar, Surgeon RN.

At Roccliffe, Leicester, Isabella, widow of the late Sir W Heygate, Bart.

At Edinburgh, Robert Cutler Ferguson, Esq.

At sea, on passage from Burmah, Major James Ross Arrow, 15th Regt M.N.I.

At Llantarnam Abbey, Monmouthshire, Richard B Dowling, Esq, of the Middle Temple, London.

Oct 12

Board of

TO BE SOLD DAY, the 26
sioners' Store Yard, PLANT, MACHIN
EIGHT TONS, CAST
and STEAM ENGINE
About ONE TON
BRASS, 1 PAIR FB
PILE ENGINE, ON &c., &c.

Terms at Auction being declared, with RO

October 5th, 1859
N.B.—The Sec
will receive propo
chasing TWO OLD vicar near Boyle.
shew the Barges a ing them.

UNIT

Life Ass

8, WATERLOO P
Established by S Annual In CHARLES
Hon. FRANCIS

THIS Company up Capital, b wealthy Propriet from the risk atte
There have be Bonusses averagin
in the Sums Assu Company.

Sums Assured.

| |
|--------|
| £5,000 |
| 4,000 |
| 3,000 |
| 2,000 |
| 1,000 |
| 500 |

EXAMPLE—A
his Life for £5,0 10d. will have pe
last, £2,253 2s
Bonua of £1,987
much as the am
The Premiums and only one-ha
when the Assura Loans grante connection with Prospectuses application at th

August 5.