GRAND CENTRAL.

Next Monday, Tuesday, and Wednesday, "Captain Salvation," an epic of the sea, unfolding a thrilling love story will be produced at the Grand Central. Another stirring film, "The Flight Commander," will be produced for the remainder of the week. This is a story of Bolshevik plots in China, with love scenes, and a sensational aerial bombardment. Sir Alan Cobham, K.B.E., appears with an all star caste.

DEATH OF MRS SARAH MERRICK.

The death occurred at her residence in Cork on Tuesday of Mrs Sarah Merrick, wife of Mr Frederick Merrick, of that city, and who was formerly connected with business in Limerick. Deceased, who was daughter of the late Mr Thomas Martin, of New Road, Clare street, had been in failing health for sometime past. The sympathy of numerous friends is extended to her husband and family in their bereavement. Many mourners from Cork and Limerick attended the funeral on Thursday at St. John's Church, whither the remains were conveyed by motor hearse. The Rev Mr Craig, Clarina, officiated.
