

te

such an Sherry.
y names
os, Mon-
Amonos and endering

VAME!

K.A.A

ge for BLES

youngsters
t rashes in quid anti-curative
a quickly troubles.
th the skin
oon forms.
also a safe
nd scalds.

1/6
a bottle.

ION

HEAD

Rev. M. Kelly, C.C., Newcastle West.
The chief mourners were:—Mrs. B. Collins (wife); Mrs. M. K. Sheehan, Mallow; Mrs. P. J. O'Brien, Ballyagran, and Mrs. R. Ryan, Murroe (sisters), together with many other relatives and friends.
It would be impossible to give a complete list either of the other relatives or of the general public.
Very many Mass cards, telegrams and letters of sympathy were received.

LATE MRS. TIMOTHY KEOGH, RUTAGH.

Extreme regret was expressed over a wide area at the early demise of above highly esteemed lady, and her passing at a comparatively early age marked the event all the more regrettable.

The representative cortege of all classes bore a striking impression of deceased's popularity.

The chief mourners included Timothy Keogh (husband), "Ged" Keogh (son), Richard Cleary (father); Sister Brendan (sister); Mrs. Scanlan (sister); William, Richard and Michael Cleary (brothers); Martin Scanlan (brother-in-law); Ed. Keogh (brother-in-law); Rev. Br. James Keogh, R. Coll, Mrs. Ed. Keogh, etc., etc.

Doctor J. P. Cleary and Dr. MacMahon, Mrs. Dwane, Hospital; Miss Teresa Daly, Hospital; Mrs. William Ryan, Miss B. Cleary, Galaboula; Mrs. J. O'Brien, Tipperary; Mrs. P. Donohue, Mrs. May Hogan, Mrs. Richard O'Carroll, Mrs. William O'Rourke, Rd. Cleary, Gallaboula; John O'Neill, Richard Cleary, Rathjordan; Mrs. Michael Condon, Thomas Cooke, Bulgaden; John Collins, Thomas Long, Limerick; Terence Deir, Hospital; Mrs. Breene, Ballybrood; William Barry, Clougherviller;

The following clergymen officiated at Requiem Mass and cortege:—Very Rev. Joseph Canon McCarthy, P.P. V.F.; Rev. Jn. Fitzgerald, C.C.; Rev. J. Bergin, C.C.; Very Rev. Father Foley, P.P., Knockainy.

MR. P. WHELAN, JANESBORO'

The funeral of the late Mr. Patrick Whelan, 13 Colbert Avenue, Janesboro', Limerick, took place last Sunday from Mary, Queen of Peace Church to Mount St. Lawrence Cemetery. He was second son of the late Michael and Mrs. Whelan, Caledonian Place, Limerick, and spent nearly all his working life in the Loco. Department, G.S.R. Not enjoying good health for some months back, the deceased passed peacefully away, fortified by the last rites of Holy Church, on Friday, October 13th. He was father of Rev. L. Whelan, C.S.Sp., Kimmage, Dublin, and uncle of Rev. J. Whelan, C.S.Sp., D.D., Nigeria; Rev. B. Whelan, O.P., S.T.L., Trinidad; Rev. M. Whelan, O.P., and Rev. D. Whelan, mination to hold their advantage against the fierce all-out attack of their opponents. Joe O'Leary eventually got a good clearance to ball and play was in Western territory when Jackie Power (Able) blew the final whistle.

Those Who Starred.

In an evenly balanced St. Patrick's fifteen O'Connor, Frawley, Quill, O'Leary, Doyle, McHugh, Fitzgerald and Ward showed up a little more prominently than the rest. The last three named figured in a minor football victory over Athleague last season. Joe McHugh, still a minor, has a unique record with two senior and one minor to his credit. For Ballyhahill Taylor, the Curtins, P. Fitzgerald, Maurice Hayes and O'Sullivan took the hardest all the way. The team were:—

St. Patrick's—E. O'Sullivan, goal; Cpl. C. O'Connor, T. Frawley, captain; W. Bourke, M. McCarthy, P. O'Leary, P. Quill, P. Doyle, P. Clohessy, J. Ward, J. McHugh, Fitzgerald, T. O'Brien, D. Gilmore and G. Frawley.

Ballyhahill—J. Ryan, J. Leahy, Taylor, T. Sheehan, C. O'Sullivan, J. and M. Curtin, M. O'Sullivan, Fitzgerald, W. Reidy, P. Smith, Hayes, J. O'Donovan, W. Flanagan and Maurice Hayes.

Sarsfields Qualify For Minor Football Final.

Sarsfields were deserving winners of their minor football final tie with Athea and finished five points to the good on the score of 3-3 to 2-1. It was a fine achievement on the part of the city lads who were in no way favoured under existing conditions. They were the much lighter side than their opponents, a factor which told in the final stages, when weight and size began to take effect. But Sarsfield lads held on spiritedly to their early advantage and ran comfortably winners. O'Donoghue, Copely, Cusack, Sheehan, Garvey, O'Shea played a big part in the victory, while O'Connell, Scanlon, Sheehan and Ahearne tried hard for the losers. P. Brennan (Rathkeale) refereed.

Other Results.

Dr. Keane Cup.

In the Dr. Keane Cup school hurling trophy, at the Collingwood Grounds, on Saturday, St. Michael's put in a great finish to snatch the verdict from C.B.S. by a decisive margin.

Harty Cup Test.

To-morrow (Thursday) at Gaelic Field, C.B.S. (Limerick) will go out against Charleville C.B.S. in the first round of the Dr. Harty Cup senior schools hurling competition. The Limerick school hold a proud record in the list of Harty Cup winners and we can hear of the outstanding teams that did duty in the past and of the brilliant hurlers afterwards counted stars, who first earned recognition in this famed competition. To