At the Protestant Chapel, Newgate-street, LONDON, is an unparal- leled exhibition of Centuries, including spec- men of all kinds of foreign coinage of every description, and a vast assortment of coins of all nations, both ancient and modern. The collection is under the direction of Mr. William Carrol, and the exhibition is open for Missus."