

which thus forms a space for an or-
to the gallery is obtained through and to the balcony by a staircase, so communicates with the base-formed from four fireplaces, equally re to have carved stone chimney-contains two large school rooms, a departments for the caretaker, and is areas in front and rear.

of the Hall is capable of accom-80 persons; the galleries, when
; making a total of 1,100.

WILLIAM FOGERTY, Architect.

Limerick

1857.

RESISTANT ASSOCIATION.

County and City of Cork Pro-
n, held on Monday, the follow-unanimously adopted:—

!—A mandate has issued forth cellor of Ireland which seeks to principle upon which our free based, to obtain which our fore-conquered, and who by their blood subjects that which hitherto has —viz., "Civil and Religious

1688 was the dawn of England's dispelled and crushed—we had tyrannical thralldom which was advancement of civilization and re-ny infringement and inroad upon subjects of the Crown of Eng-of our National Reformed
t to regard as a retrograde move-tendency the re-establishment of and intolerance.

children of the north have been asbeen made to brand them as un-nce of our beloved Queen, and as apartially upon the magisterial en have been proverbial for their lty, their sincere attachment to ngland in Church and State, and peaceable habits and unswerving laws.

have been made upon them by lawtraitors, 'tis true they have with-fended their persons and rights.
ould it be to their credit cowardly nts who would deprive them of the preaching of the Gospel of

of a son.
Near Loughborough, the wife of Frank Dawson, Esq. of a son.
The wife of William Henry Jeffcock, Esq. of High Hazles,
of a son.

MARRIAGES.

In Ennis church, the Rev Philip Dwyer, Vicar and Preben-dary of Tulla, to Anne Stather, second daughter of the late Captain John Crowe, 93d Highlanders, and grand-daughter of the late Thomas Crowe, Esq. J.P. of The Abbey, Ennis.

At Wolverhampton, I. M. Rooke, Esq. M.D. of Scarborough, to Mary Ellen, second daughter of James Shipton, Esq. of Belle Vue House, Staffordshire.

At Ringwood, the Hon Henry Curzon, fourth son of Earl Howe, to Eleanor, youngest daughter of Colonel Swinburne:

At Kessingland, Michael Fitzgerald, Esq. of Norwood, to Elizabeth, eldest daughter of the late J. S. Crowfoot, Esq. of Kessingland.

In Michael's chapel, Thomas Crosby, Esq. to the daughter of John Maunsell, Esq. of Dublin Castle.

At St Marylebone, Allan Wallis Esq. HBM's Consul at Costa Rica, to Eugenia, eldest daughter of P. J. Meugena, Esq. of St. John's-wood.

At Newton, Cambridgeshire, the Rev. Robert Edgar Hughes, MA, late of Magdalen College, to Frances Eleanor, daughter of Christopher Robert Pemberton, Esq. of Newton.

At Alexandria, Egypt, Maxwell Anketell, Esq. son of the late William Anketell, Esq. of Anketell-grove, in the county Monaghan, to Julia Elizabeth, daughter of the late Gustavus Whittaker, Esq. of St. Petersburg.

At Greenwich, John Hall, Esq. of Blackheath, to Dymphna
Elizabeth, fifth daughter of the late Mathew Fitzpatrick, Esq.
formerly 39th Regiment, Queen's County, and cousin of the late Earl of Upper Ossory.

At Lilleshall church, Joseph Banks Sladen, Esq. Lieutenant 6th Royal Lancashire Militia, to Elizabeth, only daughter of the late William Boycott, Esq. of Donington, near Newport, Shropshire.

DEATHS.

In Dublin, John Fitzgibbon Sargent, Esq. formerly Limerick Militia, son of Charles Sargent, Esq. of this city.

At Nelson-street, in the 54th year of her age, Mary, wife of Mr. Luke Moran.

On the 15th of June, killed in the boats at Oatnypore, Capt.
Kempland, 54th Bengal N Infantry; also, Emily, his wife, daughter of the late Lieutenant-Colonel Richard H. Croker, with their three infant children.

In Liverpool, on the 29th ult, aged four years and nine months, Benjamin; also, on the 15th inst, aged one year and nine months, Mary, son and daughter of Mr. Benjamin Terrott, formerly of this city.

The Hon. Colonel Phibbs, brother of Lord Normanby.
At Canterbury, Elizabeth, relict of the late John Furley, Esq.

In Liverpool, Charles Cotesworth, Esq. Lieutenant Royal Navy.

In Connaught-terrace, Lieutenant John Costellow Grave, RN.

At Southsea, Edith, wife of Lieutenant-Colonel Riley, late 24th Regt.

At Higham Ferrers, Griffiths Roberts, Esq. in the 71st year of his age.

At Brompton, George Augustus Coombe, Esq.

At Preston, near Brompton, Arthur Cuthbertson Edwards
Esq.

At Edgeware, Emma, wife of Henry Budd, Esq.