

IRISH PEACE.

Ulster Cabinet & Government's Proposals.

"Certain Fundamental Principles Impossible."

The Ulster Cabinet considered yesterday the Government's proposals. Subsequently it was announced that they agreed that as there were fundamental principles involved in the suggestions put forward which are impossible of attainment, no useful purpose could be served by a meeting between the Northern and British Governments.

Last night a Press Association telegram suggested that Mr Lloyd George would propose to the Dail that they should have a conference with the Belfastmen before they meet the Premier.

PROROGATION OF PARLIAMENT

The King's Speech. The Irish Situation.

"Ferbearance and Good-Will."

The King's Speech proroguing Parliament opened with the note of peace from the Imperial and the international aspects, and reverted to the peace note when it touched on Ireland.

"The situation in Ireland," said His Majesty in his address to the Commons, "still causes me great anxiety."

"I earnestly exhort the leaders of all parties in Ireland, and all those in whose hands lies the power to influence the negotiations and discussions now proceeding, to exercise patience and moderation, with the object of establishing friendship and loyal co-operation between my people of that country."

"It is my firm belief, as it is my earnest prayer, that, with forbearance and good-will, and with an honest resolve to tread the paths of oblivion and forgiveness, an enduring peace will finally be achieved."

The European situation was reviewed, and then the King expressed his own and his Government's sympathetic interest in the United States President's Disarmament Conference.

The industrial situation gave His Majesty an opportunity to drive home to the public the necessity for vigorous restriction of expenditure and for co-operation with the Government in securing strict economy all round.

THE CHURCH.

P.Y.M.A. BIBLE CLASS.

This Class will be held on Monday evening at 8 o'clock. Subject: "St. Paul's First Missionary Journey."

Sunday Services.

St. MARY'S CATHEDRAL.—25th Sunday after Trinity.—Holy Communion, 8 a.m. Matins and Holy Communion, 10.45 o'clock.—Hymn, 520; Venite, Stalzer in C; Psalm 62, Soaper in D; Wo Deum, Woodward, Smart, and Turle; Jubilate, Pursell in A; Hymn, 127; Hymn, 585 (Tune 301); Communion Service, Redhead in D; Preacher, Rev. A. E. Hewetson, M.A. Evensong 3.30 o'clock.—Psalm 69, Morley and Turle in D; Service, Stainer in A; Anthem, "The Wilderness" (Goss); Hymns, 459 and 39; Preacher, Rev. J. R. Campden, B.A. Out-Voluntary—Sonata, D minor, 1st Movement (Guilmont).

St. MICHAEL'S CHURCH.—25th Sunday after Trinity.—8 a.m., Holy Communion. 11.30 a.m., Morning Prayer and Holy Communion; 6.30 p.m., Evening Prayer. Preacher, Canon Osain, M.A. Wednesday, 8 p.m.—Evening Prayer and...

FUNERAL OF CAPT. FLYNN, R.A.M.C.

The funeral of the late Captain E. A. Flynn, R.A.M.C., took place on Monday from St Michael's Parochial Church, and was very large and representative, testifying to the esteem in which the deceased was held, and the widespread sympathy felt for his relatives in their sorrow.

Solemn Office and Requiem High Mass commenced at 10.30 a.m. The celebrant was Rev Fr Begley, O.F.M.; Deacon, Rev Fr Fitzpatrick, C.C.; Sub-Deacon, Rev Fr Hannan, C.C.; Master of Ceremonies, Rev Fr M'Namara, C.C., St John's. At 12 o'clock, on the conclusion of the service, the funeral left for Mount St Laurence, where the interment took place.

The clergy present were—Very Rev Canon Cregan, P.P., Abbeyfeale; Rev Father Dwane, Adm. St Michael's; Rev Father O'Carroll, C.C., do; Rev Father Hannan, C.C., do; Rev Father Thornhill, C.C., do; Rev Father Tracey, C.C., do; Rev Father Fitzpatrick, C.C., do; Rev Father T.J. MacNamara, C.C., St John's; Rev Father Kelly, C.C., do; Rev Father Robinson, C.S.S.R., Director of the Arch-Confraternity; Rev Father Begley, O.F.M.; Rev Father Francis, O.F.M.; Rev Father Bonaventure, O.F.M.; Rev Father Keane, S.J.; Rev Father McWilliam, S.J.; Rev Father Redmond, O.S.A.

The chief mourners were—Mr S. G. Flynn (brother), Mr Geo J Murphy (brother-in-law), and Rev J Richardson, Clonmel (cousin).

The attendance of the general public was very large, and included several medical men and other leading citizens. Amongst those present were—Messrs P J O'Sullivan, solicitor; J J Quaid, M Fitzgerald, M G Hartigan, J P Hartigan, M Kelly, P Liston, Wm M Nolan (Town Clerk), George R McNamee (Manager, National Bank), Maurice P Riordan (City High Sheriff), Harold B Deakin, R.M.; Capt Campton Coles, John Macnamara, J Listowel; J Talbot, Norwich; Emé Howard, Jas H Roche, Dr W Roche, Dr Devane, Dr Fogarty, Dr M Graham, Dr P Graham, Dr W J O'Sullivan, Dr Roberts, Dr Peter Irwin, Dr McGrath, Dr Pearce, Dr W J Mulcahy, A E Goodwin, J H Trousdale, W Holliday, A J Barnett, J Normoyle, Maurice Fitzgibbon, E G Pitt, J Moriarty, P Hurley, P Gallagher, M J Russell, J Corboy, Stephen Kieley, Jas McGuire, T Crowe, J Waugh, J Ryan, M Griffin, J Duggan, V Dowling, P Ganly, P O'Malley, H Mastor, C V O'Malley, R T Hartigan, E Cahill, J J MacMahon, Tim McGrath, J J Byrnes, C H Power, Wm Aherno, Maurice Bower, J Hararatty, Sir Stephen Quin, James S Gaffney, C.S.; T Geraghty, C Geraghty, W F Pike, Hugh O'Neill, M Barry, N J Barry, J O'Sullivan, M O'Sullivan, P Hurley, P O'Grady, M F Merrill, Canon Robertson, M Guerin, etc.

The staff of Cruise's Hotel were represented by Messrs J Leesou, E Mahony, P Cassidy, D O'Shea, J Higgins, J Halpin, M Halpin, M Downey, and W Keely.

There were many carriages, including those sent by the Most Rev Dr Hallinan, and Mrs O'Brien, South Hill.

The following wreaths were sent—"To darling Tom from his broken-hearted mother." "In affectionate remembrance of my dear brother, from Stan." "With loving and heartfelt regret, from George and Tess." "With deepest sympathy from your old friends, M Cooke and family, Monkstown." "With deepest sympathy, from Capt and Mrs Thompson, Mattie and Mona, Cork." "With deepest sympathy from Major and Mrs Henley." "With deepest sympathy from the Staff of Cruise's." "With deepest sympathy from Mr and Mrs P J O'Sullivan."

IRISH CHURCH GUILD.

Speech of Mr De Valera.

On Thursday night Mr De Valera attended a meeting of the Irish Guild of the Church of Ireland, at 29 Harcourt street, Dublin.

Miss Nellie O'Brien, who presided, said that she had been anxious for that meeting in order to afford the members of her Church an opportunity of showing their sympathy with Mr de Valera in his arduous task.

Canon Willa, President of the Guild, extended a hearty welcome to Mr de Valera.

CITY PETTY SESSIONS.

The magistrates adjudicating at the City Petty Sessions yesterday were:—Colonel Williamson, R.M., and Major Burke, R.M.

BREAKING WINDOWS IN RAILWAY CARRIAGE.

Thomas McMahon, a newboy, was charged at the City Petty Sessions with maliciously breaking the window of a third-class compartment at Limerick, (on the 31st August.

Mr J Dodds, solicitor, appeared for the Company, and evidence was given by Michael Larkin, train inspector, to the effect that the defendant was resting in the compartment after returning from the Limerick Junction races. When he woke up he broke the window, and was identified as Thomas McMahon, commonly known as "Jack Tar," by railway policeman Patrick Molloy.

The accused, who did not appear, was fined 2s and ordered to pay 17s 11d the cost of the window, or in the alternative one month's imprisonment.

THEFT OF DEPOSIT RECEIPTS AND MONEY.

Annie Riordan, Peakle, Co. Clare, was charged with the theft of a deposit receipt for £440, another for £80, a sum of £35 in notes, and one half sovereign, the money of Jeremiah O'Dea, on the 28th October last.

Depositions previously taken were read by District Inspector Greally, and went to show that the accused was a servant employed in a lodging-house in High-street, Jeremiah O'Dea was lodging in the house and had a wicker box in which the deposit receipts and money were placed. When charged, the accused admitted taking the property from the box, adding that she only spent the half sovereign and gave the remainder to Rita Healy, who lived next door.

The accused pleaded guilty to the offence, and elected to be dealt with by the magistrates.

In reply to the Court, Sergeant McGrath stated that the deposit receipts had been recovered, but the notes and half-sovereign were missing.

The accused, a young girl, was sentenced to three months' imprisonment.

LARCENY.

Kate O'Shea, Murro, was charged with the larceny of wearing apparel, the goods of Margaret Hogan, Catherine-street, and valued at £15.

District Inspector Greally prosecuted, and read a deposition made by the prosecutrix, who stated that the defendant, who had access to the house, took a blouse and other wearables from her room.

Sergeant McGrath stated he searched the defendant's house at Murro, and found the missing property. He searched for the accused, and found her hiding in a drain adjacent to the house.

The accused was sentenced to three months' imprisonment with hard labour.

CHARGE OF RECEIVING.

Rita Healy, 16, residing with her parents in High-street, was charged with receiving from Annie Riordan a sum of money knowing it to have been stolen.

The accused pleaded not guilty, and was defended by Mr A Blood-Smyth, solicitor.

A deposition was made by Annie Riordan, convicted of larceny, implicating Healy. She deposed that she only kept half a sovereign, and gave the balance of O'Dea's money to Healy, who she said used frequently ask her for things.

The witness was cross examined by Mr Blood-Smyth at length.

Jeremiah O'Dea, in his evidence, stated that before the police arrived at McMahon's he heard Annie Riordan tell Rita Healy to go for the money, and she said she would, but did not return.

Colonel Williamson said he did not believe Healy received the money knowing it to be stolen, but that she was cognizant of what was going on. He consequently refused informations.

CHARGE OF CONVERSION.

Michael Boland was charged with the conversion of £14, the property of the Limerick Steamship Company.

Sergeant McGrath stated that accused was employed as an agent by the Limerick Steamship Company for the sale of coal. He was to collect accounts, but so far he had collected £14.