

DEATHS.

At Tralee Spa, much regretted, Captain Francis Edward Collingwood, of the Royal Navy. This gallant officer, who was nearly related to the great Lord Collingwood, was during the last war on constant service, and at the memorable battle of Trafalgar being stationed in the poop of the Victory, Lord Nelson's flag-ship, shot the French marine who had just previously inflicted a mortal wound on the Gallant Nelson.

At his house, Baggott-street, Dublin, Captain Westby Percival, R.N. formerly of this City, a gentleman very deservedly regretted.

At the Canal, Jane, the amiable and interesting daughter of John Blair, Esq. Pro-Collector of Excise.

In Drogheda, Mr. Michael Landers, of Ardpatrick, in this county. Margaret, relict of the late Charles Watts, Esq. of Dublin, at a very advanced age.

In Richmond-street, Dublin, of a fever on the brain, Mrs. A. Fletcher.

Suddenly, at Templemore, Mrs. Isabella Hargraft, in the 75th year of her age, a pious, good woman.

At St. Francis's Abbey, at an advanced age, Mrs. Watson, upwards of half a century member of the Wesleyan Methodist connexion.

Mr. Michael Coffee, youngest son of Mr. Patrick Coffee, of Newmarket-on-Fergus.

Mrs. Dunphy, wife of Mr. John Dunphy, merchant, of Clonmel. At Flower Lodge, Catherine, relict of the late George Reade, Esq. of Cork.

Catherine, relict of the late Major Brown, Knocklow, Tullow.

Mary, relict of the late W. Gibson, Esq. of Wexford.

At Mulrangan Glebe, Wexford, Henry Summers, son of the Rev. W. Hickey.

Edward Peet, Esq. of Newtown, Waterford, one of the Society of Friends.

On the New Quay, Clonmel, at an advanced age, Mrs. Hanna Taylor, one of the Society of Friends.

At Mount-Henry, near Camolin, Robert Gillespie, Esq. surgeon R.N. At the residence of her son-in-law, Samuel Thompson, Esq. of Muckamore Abbey, county Antrim, Barbara, relict of Richard Olpherts, Esq. of Armagh.

Suddenly, of paralysis, at his residence in Priestland, aged 62, the Rev. James Boyle, D.D. for thirty-four years minister of the Presbyterian Congregation of Dunluce, county Antrim.

At Coleraine, Margaret, wife of Mr. Thomas Gaw, bookseller and stationer.

Harriet Stanton, youngest daughter of Henry Thomas Provis, Esq. of Seafort-avenue, Sandymount.

Aged 66 years, Mr. James Hart, of Bandon.

At Cove, Hannah Maria, wife of Hatton O'Shea, barrister-at-law. Suddenly, Mr. Thomas Millar, of Belfast, merchant.

At Belvoir Castle, Lord Robert Manners, M.P. for Leicestershire, and brother of the Duke of Rutland.

At Wellesley-house, Shooter's-hill, James Galloway, Esq. in his 65th year. The deceased was 48 years in the army, 22 years of which he was Quartermaster in the Royal Sappers and Miners.

In London, Emma, the wife of W. A. Mackinnon, Esq. M.P. At Wimbledon, Alexander Forbes, Esq. Lieutenant-Governor of Gaspe, Lower Canada, formerly of the Royal Horse Guards Blue.

At Tonbridge Wells, on Thursday, James MacLachlan, Esq. late Lieut.-Colonel of the Royal Artillery.

At Charlton King's, Major James Barrett, aged 46, late of the 86th Royal Regiment.

At Chawton, Captain B. Clement, R.N. lately commanding the Shannon.

In Manchester, Thomas Turner, Esq. solicitor, brother of the Rev. W. Turner, of St. Augustines.

At Ryde, Isle of Wight, David Stack, Esq. late of the Ceylon Civil Service.

At Boulogne, Peter George Howell, Esq. only surviving son of the late Joseph Howell, Esq. of Blanishville, Carmarthenshire, REMOVAL.

20
TO be Sold
the olden
LIMERICK,
it is in bas-relief
Revolution of nearly a century
tion of the love
Application

21
Im
PRIME
A Seed War
chaff) from M
from Feversha
those Wheats
The Seed will
Has on Sale
early Peas an Thorn Quicks,
two year old
Sold on moder

RICH F

22 TH

THE Propri
the Ladi
superb and no
Rich Figure
Embroidered
and Repped S
Evening and L
Goods, &c.
Tippets, Boas
manufacture.

The Propri
Stock of Irish
Countries, tru
only native m
N.B.—Pur
cent. discour
discounted.

Terms—Ca

23