At the Rectory, Barkstone, Lincolnshire, the Lady of the Rev. Henry Cleveland, of a daughter.

In Edinburgh Castle, the Lady of Major C. Levering, of the 71st Light Infantry, of an infant.

DEATHS.

In Thomas-street, Mr. John Dobbs, printer,—a young gentleman whose short career in this life was so truly Christian like, and edifying, as to give rich assurance of a glorious immortality in the world to come, for which blessed translation he had prepared himself as a good and faithful servant of the Lord Jesus Christ.

At Moyada, near Killaloe, James Eames, Esq., formerly Lieutenant Clare Millett.

At O'Brien's, near Tralee, an advanced age, Mrs. Alicia Gorham, relict of the late George Gorham, of O'Brien, Esq., and daughter of the late John Sealy, of Maglass, Esq.

At Glocester, county Galway, At a very advanced age, Thomas Kenny, Esq., solicitor.

In Richmond-place, Dublin, aged 82 years, William Barrett, Esq., in Dublin, Mrs. Redmond, of Somerton, relict of the late John Redmond, Esq., and mother of P. W. Redmond, of Rockview, and J. E. Redmond, of Newtown, Esq., near Wexford.

In Eccles-street, aged 42 years, Joseph Commins Ayre, Esq., in Dublin. Lient.-Colonel William Greene, of the Royal Artillery.

At her house, North Great George's-street, in the 61st year of her age, Mrs. Wade, relict of Robert Wade, Esq., of Clonabreany, county Meath.

In Patrick-street, Cork, Mrs. Frances Cotter, widow, daughter of Mr. Felix Daly.

At Westport, of water on the brain, James Charles Creighton, only son of the late Rev. Robert Creighton.

At Carrickmacross, Percy and Daniel, Esq.

The Rev. David Jennings, P.P. of Kilvine and Ballindangan.

In Cashel, from the effects of a fall from his horse, W. M. Maxey, of Landview Cottage, Killenaule, an extensive landowner.

Of a paralytic stroke, John De Villers, Esq., for many years a clerk in the bank of J. B. Ball, and Esq., and captain to the late Hamilton Archdall, Major of the 50th Regiment.

Mr. Michael Kelly.

In Eaton-place, London, Captain the Hon. Sir Henry Duncan, Knt. C.B. This gallant Officer was the second son of Viscount Duncan, who defeated Admiral de Winter, commanding the Dutch fleet off Camperdown, and brother to the present Earl of Camperdown.

Francis Benjamin Bedwell, Esq., Senior Registrar of the High Court of Chancery.

Eugenie, the infant daughter of W. B. Costello, Esq., of Brunt-brook, London.

At Norwood, Joseph Robins, Esq., son of the late John Robins, Esq., at Hastings, Charlotte, wife of Major Willock, and the only child of the Rev. J. R. Combe, of Sparkes, Roverton, Kent.

At Mount Radiad, Exeter, Eliza Archbeach, widow of the late Major Wallen, of the 20th Dragoons, and daughter of the late Lord of the Navy.

At Ventnor, Isle of Wight, in her 12th year, Anne Eliza, eldest daughter of the late Thomas Malting Welsh, Esq., of Merefield-Lodge, Essex.

Fanny Thomasine, wife of Isaac Preston, Esq., of Stannfeld Hall, county of Norfolk, Recorder of the City of London.

At Millingdon, Middlesex, Mrs. Anna Perry, the widow of the late Dr. Perry.

In Great Cheyne-row, Chelsea, Richard Draper, Esq., late of the Navy Pay-Office.

At his residence, Marine Parade, Dover, the Right Hon. the Earl of Charleville.

At Brighall Hill, Cockermouth, in his 73rd year, John Wilson, Esq., a Deputy Lieutenant and Justice of the Peace for the county of Cumberland.

At Barning Castle, aged 80, Jane, widow of Joseph Hanley, Esq., Captain R.N. of Eastwood, Yorkshire.

In Glasgow, of apoplexy, aged 38 years, William Motherwell, Esq., proprietor and editor of the Glasgow Courier, and author of several lyrical productions.