

of the Deity, but thanks to the inspired the meanest capacity and the dullest compreon can acquire a knowledge of the Deity from of the volume of sacred writ, and by its inspiring influence, even the prattling child could ibe the attributes of his Creator. The meeting presided over by John Augustine Ievers, J.P.
Rev. Messrs. Wilson, Duncan, and other local al and lay gentlemen, made eloquent speeches, pport of the society, and a considerable sum was ribed towards its funds.

YOUNG MEN'S CHRISTIAN ASSOCIATION.—The ural address, at the opening of the winter session tures, for the Young Men's Christian Associawill be delivered to-morrow evening, in the Pro-Orphan Hall, by William Cochrane, Esq., the et being the Life and Times of John Wesley.
is the first occasion on which the Hall has been available for the purposes of a lecture, and conng the interesting nature of the theme, and the known abilities of the lecturer, we are sure that tendance will be numerous.

Bishop of Cashel has presented the Rev William rd Vowel, incumbent of Ardmayle, to the y of Clonowly.

Rev. William N. Willis gratefully acknowledges Mrs. Webb and the Misses Gubbins, 511, and Mrs. Westropp, Attyfin Park, 551, proceeds of t their stalls at the recent bazaar, and 11. from Grace Vandeleur, per Rev. R. Dickson.

Rev. B. Jacob, thankfully acknowledges £10
ames Sexton, Esq. a bequest from the late Mrs
, to the asylum for blind females; also £1 from d for the same object.

ing service in Listowel Church on Sunday eve-stones were thrown at the windows and four of glass broken.

Sexton of Mountrath Church has been fined sentenced to a weeks imprisonment, for exa Protestant orphan from a pew in the edifice.
ng to her master and mistress, by order of Kennedy, the incumbent.

evening Gavazzi commences his lectures in , being the anniversary of Luther's birth day.
o visit Belfast on the 16th.

Rev. Edward Rush, late curate of Kivvarra, as appointed to the living of Lougrea by the is of Clanrickarde, was inducted on Friday.

OL was subscribed at Leeds this week for the an missions, and a diamond ring valued for 501 ed in the collectors box.

statue of the Madonna, for St. John's new ral, the gift of the Right Hon. Wm. Monseil, nd which cost £400, has been received in this m Rome.

amount collected at the different Roman Catho-pels in this city on Sunday, and at the sermon ed at St. Michael's chapel, for the Christian rs schools, realised 3001.

Christian Brothers acknowledge a donation of wards the erection of their new schools, from the ames Moore, C.C. Ballingarry.

new Prime Minister of Prussia, selected by the in-law of the Princess Royal, of England, gent of Prussia, is a Roman Catholic, Prince zollern father of the Queen of Portugal.

R. C. Archbishop of Bordeaux has published a l against crinoline, which has excited terrific among the ladies on the banks of the merry e.

DEATHS.

On the 9th of Sept. of fever, on board the brig Esperonzer, on his return from Vera Cruz, Captain Vere R Rose, son of the late Wm Rose, Esq. of this city, deeply regretted.

On the 5th instant, at Hugh's Royal Hotel, Boulogne S M, of bronchitis, after seven weeks illness, to the inexpressible regret of his afflicted mother, Hubert Butler Bateman, in his 11th year, fifth son of the late Captain Creagh, RN, of Cahirbane, JP, county Clare The child's remains have been interred in the family vault at Quin Abbey.

In Roche's street, aged 12 months, Charles, son of Mr James M'Carthy.

In Dominick-street, after a short illness, Mr James Purcell, conductor of the spirit establishment of Mrs Tubbs, Arthur's-Quay.

The Rev W Heffernan, PP, Clerihan, county Tipperary.

At Dingle, Wm Nelligan, Esq.

At Queenstown, Eliza, wife of John Hanahan, Esq. late proprietor of the Victoria House, Tralee.

At Bandon, Mrs Sarah Ford, Lane, relict of the late Nicholas Ford Lane, Esq. of Dublin.

At Bandon, Richard Jagoe, son of John A Jagoe, Esq. Westfield, Skibbereen.

At Toronto, Captain Eccles, late 61st Regiment, a Peninsular hero.

At Lucknow, Lieut Syngé, 90th Light Infantry.

At New Orleans, Catharine, wife of Mr Wm Cleary. Deceased was a native of Cashel, county Tipperary, whose maiden name was Catharine Greeny.

In Dublin, Joseph Saunders, Esq. JP, late of Victoria-place, Belfast.

In Dublin, Thomas Bennett, jun, Esq. JP, Castleroe, county Londonderry.

At Wellington-road, Dublin, Hamilton Archdall de Villiers, Esq.

At Upper Sackville-street, Dublin, Eliza, wife of Mr John Shields.

At Fitzwilliam-square South, Dublin, Matilda, daughter of the late James Kelly, Esq. of Newtown, county Galway.

In Dublin, Mr Henry Bolton, Grafton-street.

In Dublin, the wife of Mr Simon Hart.

In Kingstown, Mr Hugh Duffy.

At Kingstown, William, son of Thomas Mulock, Esq. Kilnagara, county Dublin.

At Charlemont place, Dublin, Jane, relict of Major Walsh, of Blessington, county Wicklow.

At Monkstown, county Dublin, Major Charles Parke.

At Curkeen, county Dublin, Mr James M'Court.

At Gillstown, county Meath, Mrs Jane Booker.

Suddenly, at Frankfort, in Germany, Mr Hugh Kirk, son of Wm Kirk, Esq. M P for Newry.

In Wexford, Captain John Murphy.

At Ballycushlane, Wexford, Bridget, relict of the late Mr Bartholomew Lambert.

In Upper King-street, Wexford, Miss Anne English.

At Tullow, Anne, widow of the late Captain Paul Carter, of St Austin's Abbey, Tullow.

At Southampton, Mr Thomas Ferrall, 3rd Officer in the service of the Peninsular and Oriental Company, son of Mr Thos.
Ferrall, formerly of Lower Ormond-quay, Dublin.

At Taunton, Isabella Ann, widow of Colonel Sir Charles W Dance.

In London, Anne Maxwell, daughter of the late Major Henry Maxwell Mainwright, 47th Regt.

At Kersiebank House, Stirlingshire, Henry Moreland Ball,
Esq. of Tipperkevin, county Kildare.

At Tenby, Captain Saunders Royal Artillery.

At Clifton, Gloucestershire, Anne, widow of Major Samuel Baylee, 56th Regt.

At Chamber Hall, Bolton, Anne Helena, infant daughter of Joseph Crooke, Esq. MP.

At Stourbridge, in the county of Worcester, Alexander Day, Esq. Lieutenant R.M.

At Blacklands, Devon, Wm Braddon, Esq. late of the Bengal
Civil Service

Accidentally killed at the Matlock-bridge Railway Station, Derbyshire, Lydia, wife of Mr John Royal, of the House of Lords.

At Clapham-road, London, Mrs Roderick Johnson.

At St Mary's Cottage, Peckham, the Rev John George Storie, MA, Incumbent of St Mary Magdalen's, Peckham.

On his passage home from India, Captain Frederick Wilmot Foster, 78th Highlanders.

At Sultanpore, Bengal, Asheton Wm Craven, Cornet 7th (Queen's Own) Hussars.

At Sea, on his way to England, Howard Wm Brownlow, of the E I C.N.

At Kurrachee, Captain Charles Ponsonby, 17th Regiment
Native Infantry.

Of diptheria, Lauretta Eliza, wife of Mr Simons, of Fishfort, Lincolnshire; also, of diptheria, Louisa Cabourne, daughter of the same.

operations to substdows of first rate qusystem, he not only surface, but at the scious arrangement
Address, care of street, Limerick.
Nov. 10.

Incumber

COUNTY OF T
SALE ON TUESDAY, T
In the M JAMES LYSAGHT, in County of

THOMAS LYSAGHT, co
William Benison,
Lys

THE Commissione
the above menti
One Lot, at their C Dublin, the Lands of rough of Limerick, a rick, containing about measure, held under D 8th December, 1851, a sterling.

These Lands are hel amount together to £ ing £3 13s 8d, Tithe Head rent, leaves an a which is well secured under old leases, and the Land.

Griffith's Valuation
Dated this 10th day

These Lands are o form part of the most of Limerick, being si
City, and partly with
There are 4 Dwelling built on 36 acres and the said Lands, very w
Fee farm rent. The r
32 perches, were forme Hill, who expended a a Range of Offices, Eu
in Gardens. There ar property. The New close, and a new line o
plete, which intersects
ity a most desirable
Country Residences.
Shannon, in an elevats
addition may be mac Embankment, by whic
be enclosed and render

Private offers will b
December, 1858, by Dame-street, Dublin,
sioners for approval.

For Rentals, and fr
Office of the Commissio
Dublin;

JOHN ORPIN, Solicit
Sale, No. 17, Dame-st Messrs, DAVID and George's-street, Limer
Sept. 1