

THE LIMERICK CHRONICLE—W

FINE ARTS.

to inform the lovers of the fine Arts, students, who some years back, went to pursue their studies in a more extensive to reflect honour upon the Dublin society their efforts met that encouragement so the development of talent. The following from the Bath and Cheltenham Gazette of 18th instant, in reference to a native of this en favoured with a view of the Historical now executing in the Corridor by Mr. cannot fairly suffer an attempt of so digni- to pass totally without observation; and, being something in speaking of a produc- complete state of developement, we certainly when completed it will be a clever thing.— difficulty in producing any effect in so con- a, and upon a flat ceiling. The subject which rested with Mr. F.) is select: Paris to Venus. There is considerable ease of Paris, and the attitudes and costumes of Deity, and the sage Grecian Goddess are and judicious. The principal figure, Venus, no doubt, do honour to the Artist. The ents which form the border of this painting inspection and praise of the visitor” greater pleasure in noticing this late pro- Furlong, as it affords another opportuni- to the honours this gentleman obtained 1821 by his beautiful copy of “The Misers” y’s Collection, painted by Quintin Matsys; judged to him by the Committee of the in 1815, for his picture of St. John.— we should notice were copies, but the present picture originated with the Artist omplation to establish a Dispensary at New- County, for the purpose of affording to the poor of the extensive barony in n is situated; and it is hoped that the non- etors will cheerfully step forward in sup- most desirable measure. Lord Courtnay’s e bounty, for providing the poor with s for some years been unavailing, the g superannuated—his Lordship, however, g to contribute liberally towards the pro- ment. There has not been for some years hysician residing in that part of the coun- the Assistant-Surgeon of whatever regi- s to be stationed at Newcastle, for whose nd attendance (which has in almost every gratuitous,) the public cannot be suffici- : but it is not to be expected that any mili- can spare sufficient time to attend the sick xtensive district, or that his advice can be to persons who have no means of procuring he gentlemen of the district are therefore called on to assist in establishing the pro- sary; and they are earnestly recommended y promise of support in the election of a Medical Attendant, until the qualifications candidates shall be laid before them.

Inspector of Fisheries, has been on an in- the Mulcair and Newport Rivers, and found any obstruction to the passage of Fish; he for several days on the Maigue, from Adare nd, from the openings which he caused to be veirs on this River last Summer, an immense salmon have made their way up to Spawn.— as now thirty watchmen on the Shannon, and

DEATHS.

In Dublin, on Saturday, after a few days’ illness, to the sincere and deep regret of her family and friends, Mrs. Brady, of the Crescent, in this City, relict of the late Hugh Brady, Esq.

On Saturday, in Cork, Godfrey Baker Pope, Esq. second son of Thomas Pope, Esq.

On Sunday, at his house on Ormond-quay, Dublin, William Pickering, Esq. a respectable citizen of London and Dublin, who conferred honour on his own country, and important benefits on our’s.

In Lower Fitzwilliam-street, Dublin, Letitia, relict of the late Poole Hickman, Esq. of Kilmore, County Clare.

Richard O’Donovan, Esq. of Donovan’s-Cove.

At Coleraine, Ellen, wife of Captain W. A. Craig, (2d R. V. Battalion.)

At Newtownsmith, Co. Galway, N. Browne, Esq.

At Drumcannon, Co. Waterford, Mr. J. Fitzgerald.

At Birch-grove, County Wexford, aged 23, Mary Sophia, daughter of Admiral Wilson.

George Darley, of Mount-Pleasant, Co. Down, Esq.

Mr. William Benson, late of Trinity College.

In Exchequer-street, Dublin, Mr. A. Cuthbert.

At Tramore, the relict of John Lonergan, Esq.

At Cove, Mary, eldest daughter of Mr. Denis Doud.

In South Main-street, Cork, Miss Mary Bellew.

In the Irishtown, Clonmel, Mr. Floyd, dyer.

In Cork, the wife of Mr. William Finny, teacher.

Mrs. Mary Gaffney, of Stoneybatter.

At Ballinderry, Mr. Henry Walkington.

Wentworth Paul, of Annah, near Portadown, Esq.

In Waterford, Mr. Worg Smith.

In Anglesea-street, Dublin, Mr. James Hamilton.

In Trinidad, Lieut. Alexander Stewart, 25th Foot.

In London, the wife of Mr. N. Byrne, printer.

At Holy Island, Durham, Edward Grey, Esq. Post Captain in the Royal Navy, aged 70.

At Dutchett, after a long illness, Major Walter Scott, in his 80th year.

At Burton-Crescent, Ferdinand de Medina, Esq. of the Stock Exchange.

Sir P. P. Hankin, Colonel of the 2d Dragoons, or Scots Greys.

At Calcutta, Frances, wife of Captain J. Webster.

At Fort William, from an accident in a buggy with a restive horse, Lieut.-Colonel H. R. Brown, commanding his Majesty’s 87th Regiment.

At Prome, Lieutenant A. Thomson, Bengal Artillery.

At Fortwilliam, Laura Louisa, youngest daughter of Captain Tronson, of the 13th Regiment of Light Infantry.

At Meerut, Lieutenant Beveridge, Bengal Invalid Establishment.

At Rangoon, Lieutenant Williamson, of his Majesty’s 1st Royals.

NEW WINTER GOODS

ARRIVED AT

THE SILK MERCERY, MILLINERY,
SHAWL AND LEGHORN HAT

WAREHOUSE,

109, GEORGE’S STREET.

D. FITZ-GERALD,

PROPRIETOR,

A FASHIONABLE Assortment of Winter Goods, selected by Mrs. FITZ-GERALD, comprising every description of SILKS, SHAWLS, MILLINERY.

BEST HOUSE-KEEPER

COAL,

AT ONE GUINEA PER

ARRIVED to MULLOCK & SON, from Liverpool, 200 Tons best H which will be sold from on board the Ves at Messrs. Harvey’s Quay. Early applic sary, as the Vessel must be discharged in or Limerick, November

TO BE SOLD, AT CASTLE

SEVERAL TONS OF

Well-Saved

BARK.

OF THIRTY YEARS GR

And a considerable quantity of ASH, O. November

RUSSIA TALLOW, HIDES, B

PAPER AND FEATHER WAR

JOHN-STREET,

Opposite the Church, Lim

CHRIS. BERN

Is constantly supplied with the above Article

dispose of on fair terms

HE has this day arrived to him, pe

from London, Twenty-five Casks

CANDLE RUSSIA TALLOW; and

per the William, from same Port, Tw

Ditto, and Six Hundred French and Br

Also, the Mary, from Liverpool, with

Salted German HIDES, Thirteen C

OIL, and Fifty Bags best Sicily SUMA

from Gibraltar, with 110 tons best SPA and the Elizabeth, from Liverpool, w

and German KIPS, and Six Hundred

&c. &c. November

NOTICE

IS hereby given, that Application is int

to Parliament in the next Session, fo

and maintain a Railway or Railways, o

Tram Roads, with proper Warehouses.

ing Places, Tunnels, Bridges, Works an adjoining thereto or connected therewith

of Waggons, Carts, and other Carriag

structed, commencing at or near to the

Lock, in Clare street, in the Parish of S

City of Limerick, and passing from the several Parishes, Townlands, or Place

Singland, in the Parish of St. Patri

Newcastle, otherwise Kilbaha. Bally

Milltown, Killowen or Killonan, and

the Parish of Kilmurry, in the Coun

Limerick; Kyledroman, Cloughadro

Grainge and Castleerkin, in the Paris

or Kilmurry, Droumbane, Mount Sio

the Parish of Grean, in the Barony o

the County of Limerick aforesaid; L

neen, Bunavy, Lishcen, Nicker, Gurra

in the Parish of Grean; Kilduff and

Parish of Ballinaclogh, Brackyle,

Garryvinn, Cluggan, Kylemacodia,

Lloyd, Oolagh or Uila, Scardeen, Sha