

appointed treasurer to the stant Orphan Society, in ppp.

nsend, late curate of Kil-ormerly curate of Callan,
on, has been collated by
to the union of Fartagh,
the death of the Rev. J.

EN'S ASSOCIATION.—This
s, delivered a lecture for
"the life and fortunes of han Hall. The attendance able, and the subject was
and ability for which the er is remarkable. The in-han Hall presented a very beautifully lit with six ting up of which reflects
as Trousdell, the active pany.

rkfully acknowledges £10
ayers, D.D., of Madras
he asylum for poor widow's Rev. R. Dickson, £5, and stown, £1, in aid of the rk, and will visit Limerick
n.

resided at a meeting of the 's Society, on Sunday even-
d from the Rev. Dr. O'Brien ions.

ate Arthur Brew, Esq. and ghlen, this day received the of Mercy, from the Right

en 1007, his third donation, monastery and schools for
at Killarney.

n, C.C, has been removed ent de Paul, conference of nowledge 17. from Dr. Frith, ted funds of the society.

awford have subscribed 50l.
Mary's Dominican church,

as contributed 40l. towards holic chapel at Vicarstown.
of this city, lately ordained,
f Glynn.

CC, St. Mary's has given Butler, the bequest of Jo-street, to the new chapel of
ev. Matthew O'Connor, PP, gdalen Asylum; 5l. to the Vincent, and 5l. to the Rent St. Alphonsus, for their clergyman of the Esta-ax, Nova Scotia, was, last Roman Catholic Church, by

D Longland, daughter of Suffield Campbell, daughter of the Campbell of Barbreck, and grand daughter of the late Major General Charles Colin Campbell, Governor of Newfoundland.

DEATHS.

On the 15th instant, at his house, Upper Mallow-street, John Roche, Esq, second son of the late Thomas Roche, Esq, of this city.

On the 12th instant, in the Convent of Mercy, Athlone, at an early age, Mary Caroline, (in religion "Sister Mary Joseph") daughter of Carrol Naish, Esq, of the North Strand. Little more than a year has intervened since her acceptance of those vows by which she devoted her life to religion. During her short and fleeting career she distinguished herself for devotion and zeal in the cause of charity. Her premature death is deeply regretted by her friends and the estimable community to which she belonged.

This morning, Anastasia, the second daughter of Mr Donat O'Brien.

Yesterday, at Castle Connell, Arthur Brereton, Esq.

At Mobile, of yellow fever, on the 12th ult, Edward, youngest son of the late Patrick Casey, Esq, of Rathkeale.

Charles Robert, son of Marcus Keane, Esq, of Beech Park, county Clare.

On Sunday morning, the 14th instant, at his lodgings, Cornwallis-street, Mr Michael Neen

At Cappa Lodge, Kiltrush, Mr Samuel Lomas, formerly proprietor of the Vandeleur Arms Hotel.

At St Leonard's-on-Sea, the Countess Dowager of Clonmel.

In Tralee, Mr Arthur Attridge.

At Cloghereen, near Killarney, Mr Wm Maybury.

At Queenstown, Charlotte, wife of Renry Hewitt O'Bryen, harbour master.

At Timoleague Glebe, county Cork, Martha Maria, daughter of the Rev Richard Graves Meredith.

At Ballinterry, county Cork, Margaret, daughter of the late Rev John Ross.

At Charlotte-quay, Cork, Robert Shaw Lawton, Chief Officer
of Coast Guard at Oysterhaven.

George Eccles Nixon, Esq, late of the Bombay Lancers, and subsequently of the Horse Artillery, Turkish Contingent.

In Dublin, Arthur Frederick FitzRoy, son of the Right Hon
Henry Fitzroy.

In Dublin, the wife of Mr Robert Smyth, of Stephen's-green.

At Blackrock, county Dublin, Mr James Trood, of Taunton, Somerset.

At Mespil, county Dublin, Christina, relict of Jas Buchanan, Esq, formerly of Glasgow.

At Ballintemple, county Dublin, Mary, relict of the late Capt
Teed

At Glasslough, county Monaghan, Mr James Eakin, linen merchant.

James Leonard Henry Hay, infant son of Capt James Hay, Adjutant Royal Meath Regiment.

At Glencairn, county Antrim, Catherine, relict of Major Kennedy, 68th Light Infantry

At Patrick-hill, near Glasgow, Mary Margaret, wife of Mar-maduke T Fozier, Esq.

At Upper Harley-street, London, J W Latham, MD.

At Bath, the wife of Lieut General Pottle, CB.

At Bath, Eliza, daughter of the late Captain John Neale Pleydell Nott, RN.

At Bath, Maria Matilda, widow of Richard Cooke, Esq, formerly of the 82d Regt.

At her Majesty's Dockyard, Portsmouth, Mary Heath Matilda, child of Captain Hall.

At Cosham, Hants, Mary, widow of the late Vice-Admiral Frederick Warren.

George Barrett, Esq, formerly of the firm of Perry & Barrett, Reading.

At Everton, Liverpool, Justina Elinor, widow of the late Rev Withers Ewbank.

At Birmingham, Amelia, daughter of the late Lieutenant S
Eborall, RN.

At Allahabad, Lieut Geo Septimus Bradford, Bengal Army,
son of Major General Bradford, CB, commanding Meerut Division, Bengal.

At Garronpore, Charles Spencer Gaynor, Lieutenant Bengal
Cavalry.

Mr John Carroll, for fifteen years the faithful and valued servant of the late Sir Philip Crampton, Bart.

In Montreal, Isidore Mallon, Esq, Surveyor of her Majesty's Customs for that port, a native of Ballymahon, county Longford.

and following

John Ber

ANNOUNCES to the Trade,
the Public generally, that h
to him for STRICTLY UNRES
as above, a very large Stock of B most useful Goods, principally the

THE CUT GLAS
Consists of quart and pint deca shapes and designs; beautifully cu finger glasses, wine coolers, butte glasses in unusual quantities and tumblers, champaign's, ales, claret sert dishes, with a vast assortment &c., &c.

THE DINNER WA
Will include some very handson
royal Worcester china and iron st plain; centre pieces, desert serv
quantity of dinner ware in half s

MORNING AND EVENI
in very large quantities, princip
coloured bordered; coffee cans, d Bohemian glass, papier machie, glasses, decanters, pickles, desser
a superior class, inlaid with pearl painted, tea caddies, &c.

ELECTRO PLATED V
Including soup and sauce t cruits, liqueres, coasters, 24 and so large a general assortment as t
of description by Advertisement.

Sale at 12 each
JOHN BER

Nov. 13

NOTICE

INCUMBERED ESTAT

In the Matter of the
SIR HUGH DILLON MA
Owner and Petit

THE Sale of this Estate will
on THURSDAY, the 25th N
the hour of Twelve o'Clock, at tates Court, Henrietta-Street, D
WILLIAM H. JACKSON
Carriage of the Sale, 5
Dublin.

Nov. 17.

CITY GA

WANTED by the Board
the City Gaol,

TWO TURN
Applications directed to the Gaol, before 11 o'Clock, on FR
Tradesmen preferred.

By Order
WM

Limerick, Nov. 13, 1858.