

Bench were the Mahony, and an was sentenced ne panes of glass
 et. Informations
 Mr. P. Nolan's
 Dan. Kelly for nch his leg was to a fortnight's
 nnan scandalous band quitted her children. Timothy nprisonment, for e. unty, have given solvent Debtors'
 ver Ormond-quay, cer Townsend de anterbury, then of
 of Richmond-bar-
 The Rev. Edward
 day, the 11th day Abbey-street, and merly box-keeper,
 re Royal, Dublin.
 s, on Monday, the lodges, of Ennis ;
 ; Thomas Francis Creagh Hodges, of Kilrush, cooper ;
 John O'Brien, of Knockroo, farmer ; Austin Scales, of
 of Cahersherkin, iting clerk ; Mary
 ahan, of Doonass, ensioner ; Thomas t retailer ; Michael
 r ; Michael Burke,
 olony, of Ennis ;
 hael Broderick, of oguemaker ; Thon ; Michael Geomew Culling, of Downes, of Ennis,
 anaghan, labourer ;
 Thomas Garvey, of Firbeg, pensioner ;
 ; John Morissy, of Ennis, publican ;
 Patrick Danohoe

DEATHS.

At Foaty, Cork, Anne, only daughter of John Smith Barry, Esq. aged 17 years—a lovely and accomplished young Lady.
 W. P. Cruise, Esq. Assistant Barrister, county Limerick, aged 49. Yesterday, in Adare, Mr. J. O'Regan, Postmaster and hotel-keeper.
 At Coolnaheen, near Rosscarberry, Eliza, wife of John Wolfe, Esq. aged 46, only daughter of the late Owen M'Carthy, Esq.
 At the Canteen of the Castle Barracks, this morning, Mrs. Leonard.
 At Clonakilty, Mrs. Emma Pine, relict of the late Mr. Richard Pine.
 William Banks, Esq. New Ross.
 At Carravilla, Mayo, Letitia, eldest daughter of Robert Fair, Esq.
 The Rev. Charles Nesbitt, of Greenhills, Raphoe.
 Thomas, son of John Balfe, Esq. of Lisdurn-houss, Roscommon.
 In Percy-place, Dublin, Mrs. O'Neile, relict of the late Captain O'Neile, R.N.
 Mary, relict of the late Mr. James Radcliffe, of Dublin, and mother to the Rev. James Radcliffe, Independent Minister of Derry.
 At his house in Upper Fitzwilliam-street, Molesworth Green, Esq. Town Clerk of Dublin.
 Suddenly, on Saturday, Henry Hewitt, of Sydney Place, Cork, Esq. The death of this respected gentleman was very sudden, and took place at his distillery, where he had been transacting business during the day. He was in apparent good health until within a few minutes of his decease, which occurred about two o'clock. He is sincerely regretted by a very large and respectable circle of acquaintances and friends.
 At Blackrock, Cork, Miss Charity Knox, aged 70, daughter of the late James Knox, Esq. of Moyne, county Mayo.
 At Castlecomer, Richard Butler, Esq. many years a Captain in the Kilkenny regiment of militia.
 At Grange Lodge, Fermoy, Johanna, wife of John Baylor, Esq.
 At Bandon, Mr. George Mulholland.
 In Adelaide-street, Cork, Mr. John O'Neill.
 In Kinsale, Catherine, wife of Mr. Charles M'Carthy.
 In Barrack-street, Cork, Mr. Bartholemew Walsh.
 In Denny-street, Tralee, at an advanced age, J. Corry, Esq. formerly of Dublin.
 Yesterday, Mrs. Elizabeth Jebb, of Kingstown.
 At his house in Sackville-street, John Lindsey, Esq. aged 85.
 In Tralee, at the advanced age of 96 years, Mr John Hogan.
 At Prospect Lodge, Tralee, aged 94 years, Mr. John Huggard.
 At her house, Hennessy's-road, Waterford, Mrs. Kenny, aged 60.
 Suddenly, at his residence in Catherine-street, on Monday, Richard Massy Yeilding, Esq. of Belview, in this County, aged 61 years.
 At Tittenhanger House, near St. Alban's, Herts, the Right Hon. Philip Earl of Hardwicke, K G. aged 77.
 At Cheshunt Park, Lieut.-General G. A. Armstrong, aged 63.
 At Clifton, Captain R. Jenkins, Monmouth Militia.
 At Maidstone, Catherine, eldest daughter of Colonel Cuyler.
 In George-square Barracks, Devonport, Quartermaster-Sergeant Jerrett, 10th Regiment Foot.
 At Buckden, in her 81st year, Margaret, relict of the late J. Green, Esq. and mother of the Lady of the Lord Bishop of Chichester.
 Mr. Robert Miller, master of the Elizabeth, of Wigtown, and late assistant harbour-master of Whitehaven.
 At Cape Town, the Hon. J. W. Stoll, treasurer and accountant-general.
 At Malta, Mr. John Shower, Apothecary to the Forces.
 At Jamaica, Lieut. William Everard, R.N. one of the Stipendiary Magistrates.
 At Calcutta, William, son of William Frederick Fergusson, Esq.
 At Poondy, in the East Indies, in consequence of a fall from his horse, in his 25th year, Ensign and Adjutant Charles Harris Frith, 21st Regiment, N.I. Madras Army.
 In East-street, Old Kent-road, Mrs. Cowley, wife of W. K. Cowley, Esq. Chief Clerk in the Coast Guard office, London.

Miller

25, UP
 MESSDAM announce that Miss M.
 MENT of the
 for MILLINER

FROM the LICADO
 NETT, Esq. :
 JOHN O'BR

Or
 ARE now
 A Quay, vi
 Whitehaven, per ton ; 200
 will be sold fr has but a few
 R. & J. G. in addition to street, and El Fine Butter d
 first quality M
 Yellow Soap,
 Apply at th

In WI
 JOHN AE of the a
 as the best t
 Potatoes con
 Kidney, wit planting at t
 The
 and are calcu accommodat

WARNING BE) IN HEAD.