pressing his regret at being unable to speak at a lecture on Parnell, Mr. John P. Hayden, ex-M.P. for Roscommon, and brother of the late Luke Hayden, the M.P. for Roscommon, who supported Parnell at the fateful meeting in Committee Room 15, says that though more than 50 years have elapsed since Ireland was deprived of his matchless leadership, the memory of Parnell is still fondly cherished. "The centenary of his birth is not far off, and it would not be inappropriate if Cork were to take the lead in making arrangements for its celebration."
