

ions of this county, under before Serjeant Moore, and thirteen other Magistrates:—
out of his dwelling-house convicted, but in consequence is to be recommended Government, and if the that his pardon will be rimen, indicted for being id discharged.

own on Tuesday, and are keale.

under the Insurrection
November 22.

sions, Mr. Jephson, adner in number than was side Serjeant Moore and) in order to draw their at.—He said, that in callle occurrence, he should onvinced that every Mal him, participated with and horror at the atro of Lismacoe—of horror, ed by such assassinating he should be the victim the most amiable charac—of gentlemanly manners ence—uniting every qualleman”—a Magistrate to —from whom the ruffian ared their justice.

gy on our much lament do sufficient justice, in se Mr. Baker's character y any language of pane-at, it was he might say, gisterial duty, that Mr s the circumstances under for some strong measures ust what these measures er the melancholy event, necessity, and he could he time required prompt m which had manifestly . and take off, man by d spised enough to come ills (the Peace Preserva- which had already been f quelling this confede- the arms, notwithstand- energy to their enforce- of men in the country, exertion and advice had f society, said he, cannot you to take the speediest firm deliberation as to to be put down.

y as his personal feelings ter, and participate in the y alluded to, his judicial fering in their delibera-re subject of Mr. Baker's say to say a single word ation; the difficulty is for this shocking cutting man whom there was not individual. The horror on; and undoubtedly at as this, it is not possible f adopting such measures of any thing like it, if in this sentiment which e y active mind, he for at ouc any adequate meas- as an unhappy situation be at all amended by the s of great power and in ties like those which we by these strong measures. istrates can propose is of but in whatever shape his ng the country to quiet, e his Lordship sat down, a panegyrist, nor at all nt, it would not be bear- or explicitly state, that the mode of administer-

Carrick's Morning Post congratulates the country on the prospect, that the Irish taxes of this year will be far more productive than those of last year, in consequence of being fairly and impartially collected, for which purpose the attention of the present efficient Board of Excise has been for some time most indefatigably employed.

The Belfast News Letter mentions a report which it considers entitled to confidence of a dissolution of parliament, of the introduction of an emancipation bill, and of the accession of Lord Castlereagh to the situation of Premier, by the retirement of Lord Liverpool, with Lord Sidmouth and others.

EMBASSY TO ROME.—A letter from Rome, dated Nov. 4, and published in the Dublin Evening Post, says:—"The deputation have had several interviews with the Cardinals. On next Monday we expect to be admitted to his Holiness, for the purpose of presenting to him "The address of the Irish Prelates," Rev. Mr. Hayes, who arrived here last Wednesday week, will have the address of the laity soon ready to be likewise presented, he has been well received by the Cardinal Prefect of the Propaganda, Cardinal Litta, and notwithstanding all that has been asserted of the impropriety of Lay Interference in such a business, their interference I have no doubt will give the greatest weight to the application of the Prelates—to use the words of Cardinal Litta, "The feeling and declaration of the people on that subject, from the strong, the grand arguments." He has also expressed to the Rev. Mr. Hayes, his satisfaction as to the address itself.

Catholic Prelates' Reputation to Rome—We learn from authority upon which we place the most implicit reliance, that the object of this deputation has failed, and that the Right Reverend Missioners are about to return home, if they be not already on their way, with having been able to procure an audience of his Holiness the Pope.—Southern Reporter

The Dublin Chronicle says that the Rev. Mr. Crotty has declined the catholic chaplaincy of Newgate, Dublin, as likewise the Rev. Mr. Flood, P. P. of Sandymount

Letters from Dublin, published by the London papers, state Sir Charles Saxton's departure for Calais to meet Mr. Lidwell. The latter Gentleman passed through this city for England about three weeks ago, and ten or twelve days have elapsed since we were in possession of the information conveyed by the London papers, but we were not anxious to be the first to give publicity, and the less so, as the Dublin papers were silent on the subject. We rather believe, that Sir C. Saxton received, not a visit, but a letter from Major Lidwell Rumour has given out, but it is to be hoped without foundation, that another Gentleman, high in office, sailed some days ago from Dublin directly for Calais.—Waterford Chron

The Duel.—Sir Charles Saxton and Mr. Lidwell met at Calais on Monday last, and we feel great pleasure in stating, that the latter after receiving the former's fire, discharged his own pistol in the air, and then the matter terminated.—Freeman's Journal.

A trial for a breach of promise of marriage, in which a Gentleman, (an Officer in the army,) will be the Plaintiff, and a Lady, the Defendant, is likely to come on in a South Western town at the ensuing assizes. A port folio of letters of the most edifying description will, it is stated, be produced in support of the Plaintiff's action.—Dublin Chron.

Lady Webster is said to have preferred a bill of indictment against one of the London papers for a libel, in which she was charged with Crim. Con. with an illustrious Marshal of England, now on foreign service, and for which her husband was alleged to have received £50,000 sterling.

A London paper says, that the Gazette, upon an average, produces fifty Bankrupts in a week.

In the course of the last week several houses in the County of Dublin, south of the city, have been robbed of arms only, by a very numerous gang of nightly depredators. Some houses also in the hither part of the county of Wicklow have been robbed in the same manner.—Saunders's News Letter.

The 3d brigade of Lord Wellington's army, consisting of 2d bat. 12th, 2d bat. 30th, 33d, and 41st regiments, were on Monday se'night stationed at Vangerard, within a few miles of Paris.

On Sunday at the hour of four o'clock in the afternoon, the house of the Rev. R. Mauleverer, near Cashel, was broken into suddenly by eight ruffians, all armed with blunderbusses, four of whom instantly secured his servants—the remainder proceeded up stairs, under pretence of searching for fire arms, a case of unloaded pistols were the only arms in the house, which they carried off, also some plate, wearing apparel, and a variety of other valuables

MELANCHOLY OCCURRENCE—Wednesday last, Mrs. Frost, the wife of a respectable farmer at Meenick, near this city, having retired to her room, together with her sister, incautiously took with them some coals of fire, the smoke from which shortly produced suffocation, there being no flue or other aperture, to admit of ventilation.

The Lord High Chancellor has been pleased to appoint the Rev. John Croker, of the Glebe, Croom, a Justice of the BIRTH.

In Waterford, the Lady of Cap. Perkins, of a daughter.
In Cork, the Lady of William B. Smith, jun. Esq. of a son.
At Beshborough, the Lady of the Honourable Major Gen. Annesley of a son.
At Keshill, County of Tipperary, the Lady of William Pennell, Esq. of a son and heir

MARRIED.

At Fulham Church, the Hon. Capt. King, R. N. to Caroline, second daughter of his Grace the Archbishop of Dublin
At Rathmines, aged 72, Matthew Newport, Esq.,
In Kilkenny, Mr. John Rothe,

DIED.

At Borrisokane, Mrs. Woodward, relict of the late and mother to the present Wm Woodward, Esq. of Cloughprior, Co. Tipperary, aged 81 years.
In L. Mount street, Dublin, Morgan J. O'Dwyer, Esq. Barrister at Law, one of the Commissioners of Bankruptcy, and Assistant Barrister of the Co. Carlow
On Wednesday morning, in Roche's street, in the bloom of youth, Miss E. Genery, much and deservedly regretted.
On Nonday evening, Mr. Neil Dodd, of the City of Cork.
In Waterford, aged 80, the relict of the late Alderman Newport.

LIMERICK MARKET PRICES.—DECEMBER 8.

Butter.—First Quality,	£5 0s. 0d.	} Per Cent per Cwt.
Second Ditto,	4 10s. 0d.
Third Ditto,	4 16s. 0d.
Fourth Ditto,	3 18s. 0d.
Flour.—First Quality,	(None.)	} Per Cent per Cwt.
Second Ditto,	18s. to 20s. 0d.
Third Ditto,	14s. - 16s. 0d.
Fourth Ditto,	8s. - 12s. 0d.
Pork,	16s. to 19s. 0d.	} Per Cent per Stone
Oatmeal,	12s. - 12s. 6d.
Tallow, (Rough,)	90s. - 96s. 0d.
Lard,	48s. - 50s. 0d.
Wheat,	1s. 2d. to 1s. 5½d.	} per lb.
Oats,	6d. to 6½d.
Barley,	6d. to 7d.
Potatoes,	2½d. to 3d.
Beef,	3d. to 4d.	} per lb.
Mutton,	4d. to 5d.
Candles, (Mould,)	1s. 2d.	} Per Cwt.
(Dipped,)	11d.
Coals, (Wigan)	£2 5s. 6d.	} Per Ton
(Liverpool)	2 0s. 0d.
Malt Whiskey,	10s. 3d. pr. gal.

AUCTION of Russian Tallow.

MICHAEL HONAN,
Will offer for Sale by Auction,
On MONDAY next, the 11th Instant,
AT ONE PRECISELY,
20 Casks best Russian Candle Tallow,
This Sale will be worth the attention of Town and Country Chandlers, as the Article is of the very best description and no reserve intended.

ALSO FOR SALE,
Ex James Berridge and others,
Forty Hhds. and Tierces middling and fine Jamaica Sugars,
A few refined ditto small loaves, particularly nice kind,
Forty chests Teas assorted,
British Molasses,
British Oak Bark,
And Prime New Hops in bags.
A supply of New Hops in Pockets of a nice description daily expected,
December 8.

St. Ubes Salt.

To be Sold by Auction, without reserve,
On TUESDAY next, 12th Inst.