The Evening states that one article in the Empress Anna Murat's wedding trousseau is said to consist of swaddling clothes of Henry the IV., contained in a richly chased casket of the 15th century.

The Observer says—Earl Granville, President of the Council, will succeed Lord Palmerston as Warden of the Cinque Ports. Sir Francis Baring will go to the House of Peers as Lord North. The Master of the Rolls will take the title of Romilly.
