

GUARDING SHANNON SCHEME TRANSPORT.

This morning the motor boat "Sandlark" left the docks with a cargo of railway sleepers for the Shannon power scheme works at O'Brien's Bridge. An armed military guard of five men were on board the boat to prevent an attack being made on the craft. To-day another large mechanical navy left the docks for Ardnacrusha.

SUCCESSFUL LIMERICK STUDENTS.

Amongst those awarded prizes at the recent distribution for the Winter Session, 1924-'25, and the Summer Session 1925, by the President of the Royal College of Surgeons in Ireland, was Mr J D H Widdess, who received first prize and medal in biology. The successful student, who is to be congratulated on his achievement, is son of Mr M B Widdess, chemist, Roches-street, Limerick.

At the recent examination for entrance to the Provincial Bank of Ireland, Ltd., Mr Thos B McMahon was a successful candidate. He is son of Mr M McMahon, late Inland Revenue Officer, and was coached for the examination by Mr P J Rea, Henry-street.

ST VINCENT DE PAUL SOCIETY.

The annual flag day collection on behalf of the Society of St Vincent De Paul was held in the city to-day. It is gratifying to learn that the appeal was very liberally supported, and this was demonstrated by the large numbers that wore the Society's token "help the poor." The Society on this occasion made a special appeal, and were not disappointed in the response given by the citizens.

DEATH OF A MERCY NUN.

The death took place at St Mary's Convent yesterday morning of Sister Mary Louis Hynes after an illness of considerable duration. The deceased religious had attained a ripe age, and was professed a mercy sister forty years ago.

The dwellinghouse of Mr Patrick B. Daly, Knockanish, Tralee, and a large haystack containing about 60 tons of hay, were completely destroyed by fire yesterday about 2 a.m.

screened at the Gaiety next
The former featuring Jacqueline Logan, on M
Wednesday, the latter starring Thomas McLaughan, T
"Man must Live" opens up in pictures, and is a power man who had to decide betw or ruining the family of "Tongues of Flame" shows fighting for justice agains those who bravely fought w War, a perfect picture, an the principal feminine star guarantee of a splendid pro Intestests and Pathe, fi undoubtedly a gala week fo

THE ALLEGIANCE

At a meeting of the Cou Gaelic League, a resolution w protesting, in the interests c ment, against the condition teachers which obliged them ance affirmation. The mee that the condition imposed about a serious split in the League, with consequent dan revival, and considered it u the responsible authorities to their salaries for work done.

STREET ACCI

A young lady named Din along the North Strand last sidewalk and sustained a fract dangers attending pedestrian fare are in the main due to th public lighting, and several plained of this dereliction of

SIX-COUNTY PR

A Review of Case

London, Tuesday--In the
this evening,

Mr Baldwin informed Capt that the Government had ut the cases of prisoners conv Ireland for offences committe of disturbances, and that Northern Ireland had consen result of such review.