

DEATHS.

At Castle-connell, on the 15th inst. Mary, relict of the late Michael Rochford, Esq. formerly an eminent merchant in the city of Limerick. This truly good and pious lady died as she had lived a true and sincere Christian. Her virtues will be long remembered by a numerous circle of friends and relatives.

On Friday last, at South Frederick-street, Dublin, in his 17th year, after a few days illness, Ensign A. J. Watson, of the 3d West York Light Infantry, eldest son of Samuel M. Watson, Esq. barrister-at-law, and grandson of the late Rev. John Averell, Rector of Clashmore, in the county of Waterford. This young gentleman had obtained leave of absence from his Regiment at the Curragh camp, for two months to the 25th December, for the purpose of preparing for an examination at Sandhurst, for a commission in the Line, to which he was nominated by Lord Hardinge, and had just completed his studies when it pleased the Almighty disposer of events to remove him, in the bloom of youth, to another and a better world. His early and unexpected death is, however, a great affliction to his sorrowing parents and numerous friends, among whom were the officers and soldiers of his Regiment, and by whom he was beloved and respected. His remains were interred at St. Jerome cemetery on Sunday morning.
