TO THE Real Subscriber to the Cause of Independence.

GIVE me leave to return you thanks for your Reply to the 'Repentant Subscriber,'—at the same time to say, that anonymous publications in general, and especially of the description you replied to, are beneath the notice of fair and honorable minds.
None but Knaves and Cowards will attempt to stab in the dark, which must rally those alone, who countenance or associate with them.

Repentant's attempt to obliterate or distort FACTS, and to vilify characters beyond his reach, has met with chastisement and contempt. It is a bad Cause that requires such an advocate. It was bad enough before —but he has made it worse—as every body must now see, that his effort was a dying grasp. He alluded to my having announced the appeal of Lord GORT and the CORPORATION, to the House of Lords, as 'Glorious News' to the Friends of Independence, and how otherwise could I consider it? when two of the first Judges of the Land decreed in our favour, and that our opponent found it necessary to retreat to their last refuge—was it not to every CITIZEN of Limerick Most Glorious News?

Truth must stand by itself—it may be overcast by Tyranny, or eclipsed by ridicule for a while; but, like the Sun, must sooner or later shine forth to abash and disgrace its opponents.

I have already written to London on the subject of this (gloried in) appeal and I expect the day is not far off when the revenues of this great and populous city will be placed in the hands of men who will not deny or refuse their Fellow Citizens AN ACCOUNT of their Stewardship, and I look to it as a general advantage, more particularly to those who reside or hold lands in the Liberties. They will be then relieved from a presentment tax of SEVEN SHILLINGS and SIX PENCE an Acre and their Liberty Roads and Bridges kept in repair out of the City revenues.
