The cause of the marriage by a person not in holy ordinals.

Before I lay down my pen, it is necessary to let all know who are engaged in Mr. Hall's, this to a great extent. Mr. J. Hall, formerly a soldier in the 9th Regiment, has now returned from the Canaries, where he has found many difficulties in his career. The name of Samuel Hill, who was for some years a captain in the 1st Battalion, has been mentioned by his friends, and the story of his return has been told. Mr. Hill has been a force in the 9th Regiment. His life has been more than ordinary success, and he has been much praised by his colleagues. The story of his return has been told, and his great success has been spoken of.

A CONCERT,

On Friday next, the 11th Inst, there will be a CONCERT,

At the Assembly Rooms, Limerick.

This will be introduced some of the most famous Irish Artists, carefully selected from the rest of the country, and improved by the best of the local Authors, for the benefit of the New Chapel of Rathkeale.

Particulars will appear in the weekly hand-bills. Col. MacC.
