DEATHS.

On Sunday last, of consumption, brought on by the fatigues of his Ministerial duties, the Rev. P. O'Malley, late Roman Catholic Curate of Ballinrobe.

At Castle Eyre, county Cork, Sampson, only son of William Lowth, Esq.

At Saintfield, Somerset Corry, Esq. C.C. Police of the county Down constabulary.

At the falls of Niagara, Upper Canada, Major Adam Ormsby, second son of the late John Ormsby, Esq. of Cumlin, county Sligo, Major Ormsby commenced his military career at an early period of the late French war as Cornet in the 5th Dragoons Guards.

In France, Mrs. Harrison, wife of Captain Harrison, formerly of the 10th Regiment, and daughter of the late William Townsend Gann, Esq. of Ratho, in Kerry.

In George-street, Mary, wife of Mr. Bernard M'Nulty, to the deep regret of an affectionate husband and an amiable young family.

In Nicholas-street, Mr. James O'Brien, gunmaker.

In Ennis, after a protracted illness, Edmond M'Craithy, Esq. M.D., a most respectable practitioner. He was attached professionally to the 20th Light Dragoons during the Peninsula campaign.

In Ranelagh-square, Dublin, Henry Dundas, son of Captain Saunders, of the Royal Horse Artillery.

Ephraim McDowell, Esq. Member of the Royal College of Surgeons, and one of the Surgeons to the Richmond Hospital.

At his residence, North Great George's-street, Dublin; William Maguire, solicitor.

In Douglas-street, Cork, Mr. Thomas Hewitt, aged 67 years.

On Haulbowline Island, of scarletina, Letitia, second daughter of the late Martin Tunbridge, Esq. of Dublin.

On the advanced age of 104 years, Elizabeth Byrne, of Killarney.

In Bandon, Mr. John Hutton, aged 52 years. He had for some years filled a confidential employment in the office of this Establishment, and discharged his duties with ceaseless attention and honorable and unerring integrity. His manners were conciliating—his moral principles pure; and with these recommendations he did not fail to win, and permanently secure, the good opinion and esteem of all who knew him. A longer eulogy than this may be more diffuse on his worth—a sincerer one could not be offered.—(Cork Reporter).

On Tuesday, at his residence, Kingston, near Galway, Mr. Michael Mullery, sen.

In the 62nd year of his age, the Rev. James Biggs, for many years Curate of the parish of Loughgilly.
