

from that body the Committee, of which he secretary, presented him wallet in recognition of the dignified way in which he out his duties. His many heartily wish Mr. McK every success.

MERICK OLD I.R.A. CONCERT

promises to be a delightful the concert to be held in on next Sunday night, ncing at 8.30 o'clock, under pices of Limerick Old I.R.A. sation. The bill-o'-fare to ed up is perhaps the most ve ever to be presented to blic and a persusal of the containing the names of the will convince readers that d I.R.A. concert will be an nment well worth being at.

CHRISTOPHER LYNCH CONCERT

ngements are being com- for the Christopher Lynch in the Savoy, Limerick, on uary. He will be supported a Lynch, Isidore Shlaen, Reddan and Nancy O'Carroll. Lynch will give two recitals home town, Rathkeale, in y. The entire proceeds of recital will be given to the anch of St. Vincent de Paul.

MORTGAGE OF TURF AT PALLASGREEN.

has been a very acute e of turf in this district for eeks past occasioned no by lack of adequate trans- writes our Pallasgreen cor- at). The carriage of beet er agricultural produce is g a great strain on the s. Some dealers are wholly supplies, while others have eagre amount on hands. It d that the position will soon as bright fires are needed severe weather.

FISHMAN HONOURED

essor Myles Dillon, who has r some time Professor of studies at the University of in. U.S.A., has joined the Office of War Information be attached to the Ameri- bassy in London. Professor s a brother of Mr. James T.D.

TENDER ACCEPTED

e monthly meeting of the ee of Management of Mental Hospital held on ay, the tender of Mr. Gough, 59 O'Connell Street

Sheedy said at future elections no expense should be incurred in bringing voters to the poll. Absent voters should be fined, the same as jurors, for not carrying out their national duty.

Mr. Sean O'Grady, T.D., Parlia- mentary Secretary to the Minister for Industry and Commerce, said he believed some such system was in operation in New Zealand and Australia, but he did not think there was any need for it in this country, where no large proportion of voters ever abstained from voting. At the last election a little over seventy per cent of the elec- torate voted, which in all the circumstances could be considered evry satisfactory.

DEATH OF MISS HESTER SHEEHY

With much regret we announce the death, which took place yester- day (Thursday) at Sir Patrick Dun's Hospital, Dublin, of Miss Hester Mary Sheehy, daughter of the late George Leake Sheehy, Mo- vidy, Newcastle West. The decea- sed was sister of the late Thomas F. Sheehy, who passed away only a few weeks ago, and of the late Brian E. F. Sheehy, for many years a prominent Limerick Engineer of great standing in his profession. She was a lady of great culture and refinement and of much charm of manner. To Mr. Edward Sheehy (brother), Mrs. McGovern (sister), and the other bereaved relatives we extend our very sincere sympathy.

ADARE COURT

Adare monthly Court was held on Tuesday, before Mr. C. S. Kenny, B.L., D.J..

There were no defended cases listed for hearing, and the business of the Court, which consisted of a number of summonses for breaches of the lighting-up regulations, was disposed of in a few minutes.

MILITARY DANCE.

A very enjoyable and pleasant function was held in the Rink Ballroom on Wednesday night, when the Officers of the 7th Bri- gade held their annual dance. A large number of guests attended on invitation and thoroughly enjoyed the function, which was an out- standing success. The arrange- ments, which were in the hands of an enterprising and energetic com- mittee, were all that could be de- sired, and the catering for the large gathering present was most capably handled. The hall was most taste- fully decorated for the occasion, and choice dance music was supplied by Johnny McMahon's Band.

OUR SELF-SUFFICIENCY

gineer, who stated that Messrs. Control, Ltd., have been asked to take all possible steps for the r- dance of the rat menace.

ARTERIAL DRAINAGE BILL

"Acknowledgments of the Cha- ber's recent resolution of prot- were read from the Department Local Government and Publ Health; Limerick Co. Council, t Association of Chambers of Co- merce of Ireland, and some T.D.

"The president stated that at meeting of the Association of Cha- bers of Commerce of Ireland recently, and which he had att- ded, our resolution was receiv- with great sympathy, and a sim- lar one was ultimately passed the Association.

WEAR AND TEAR ALLOW- ANCES.

"Regarding wear and tear a obsolescence allowances on pla- and machinery and allied matte- general approval was expressed a letter sent by the president a secretary of the Dublin Chamber Commence to the Minister for F- ance on the 7th November last. the suggestion of an auditor me- ber of the Chamber, the Assoc- tion of Chambers of Commerce Ireland were requested to take some additional points, and it w- decided to circulate copies of the to the members."

ATTENDANCE AT MEETING

Those present at the meeting, addition to the president, were Mr. P. E. O'Malley, vice-president Captain E. R. Shaw, M.C.; Mess D. McCaffrey, Alfred O'Dwyer, J. Fitzgerald, A. Blood-Smyth, F. Jorgensen, E. G. Stokes, J. Johnson, J. Turpin, L. de Courc T. J. Frost, G. Hackett, G. Patten- son, Morgan McMahon, R. T. Ha- tigan, James O'Connor, and J. Power, secretary.

Apologies for non-attendan- were received from:—Messrs. J. McMahon, G. E. Russell, B.C. M. W. McGuire, B.C.; A. E. Goo- win, W. H. O'Donnell, and E. Newenham, F.F.A.S.

At the opening of the meeti- the president extended a welcom- to Mr. T. J. Frost, a new membe-

AID FOR HOSPITAL POO

The annual whist drive in a- of the poor was held in the Mona- tery National School Hospital, o- the 8th, and proved a succe- despite the inclement weather. Th- prize winners were:—Gents: D. Cotter, J. O'Sullivan (Rathanny) Sean Ferns; ladies, N. Raleigh Gd. John O'Brien (as lady) and O'Carroll (Main Street).

An appeal for the poor is nev- unheeded in Hospital, and the ge- erous contributors in money or- kind are to be congratulated well as thanked.

CRESCENT COLLEGE DEBATE