Aaron Salomons, Esq. of Finsbury-place, second son of B. Salomons, Esq. of Old Chelsea, second daughter of J. D. Nettles, Esq. Mayor of Islington.
At Weymouth, George Dennistoun Scott, Esq. King's Dragoon Guards, to Frederica, daughter of Edmund Broderip, Esq. of Weymouth.
At Ripley, W. Reed, Esq. Captain of the 45th Regiment, to Elizabeth St. Barbe, eldest daughter of John B. Stannard, Esq. Ripley-court, Kent.
At St. Nicholas church, Brighton, the Hon. John Boyle, eldest surviving son of the Earl of Cork and Orrery, to the Hon. Cecilia de Roos, sister to Lord de Roos.

DEATHS.
At his lodgings, Strand Parade, Cork, Joseph Haman, aged 72.
At his seat, Gortigore, county Cork, Luke Shee, Esq.
In Capel-street, Dublin, Susanna Maria, daughter of John Clifford, in the 6th year of her age.
In Marlborough-street, Dublin, Elizabeth Helena, daughter of Dr. Kirwan.
In Upper Fitzwilliam-street, Dublin, E. P. Bryan, second son of the late J. W. Bryan, of Ballina-park, county Wicklow, Esq.
At Strand-street, near Donnchale, Esq. Ralph Forrest, several years an efficient officer of Excise.
In George's-street, Cork, Catherine, wife of Mr. George Langley.
At Cavan, in the 73rd year of his age, James Smith, Esq.
In Maryborough, Robert Baldwin, Esq. late Lieutenant 71st Foot. He was a distinguished Officer during the late war, having fought in the Peninsula campaign, and at Waterloo.
In Abbeyfeale, in the prime of life, the Rev. A. Newcomb, Rector of the Parish.
In her 20th year, Elizabeth Clinton Murray Benson, only daughter of the late Charles Benson, Esq. of Newbridge, county Kildare.
In Grosvenor-place, London, Lieutenant-General Lord Hartland, aged 92.
In Woolwich, in his 80th year, J. O. Hookham, Esq. late Assistant-Inspector of Artillery.
In Southwold, aged 79, Mr. Robert Crabbe, a brother of the poet.
In the College, Durham, Elizabeth, eldest daughter of the late Samuel Fryer, Esq. of Twickenham, wife of the Rev. George Townshend, M.A. Prebendary of Durham, and Vicar of Northallerton.
Eugene Wason, Esq. of Liverpool, brother of the Member of Parliament for the Borough of Ipswich.
At Himley Hall, Staffordshire, the Right Hon. William Hulse Lord Ward, tenth Baron Ward of Birmingham, aged 55 years.
At Worcester, Mrs. Singleton, aged 84 years.
At his country seat, near Liege, General Lord Crewe, after a short illness. Lord Crewe accompanied Lord Macartney on his celebrated Embassy to China, aged 67.
At Havre, Lieut.-Colonel Diggins, formerly of the 11th Light Dragoons, and late Barrack-Master in the Island of Barbados.
In Paris, Colonel Maurice Bagel of St. Le切れ Keatinge.
At Calcutta, W. B. Smith, Esq. attorney-at-law, aged 41 years.

In the Bay of Bengal, R. Barron, Esq. Purser of H.M.S. Wolf.

NOTICE.
JAMES JACKSON has purchased a large lot of very prime KERRY HEIFFERS for Christmas, fed for Sir William Fitzgerald, Bart. Carrigah, some of which will be brought to market the latter part of this week.
Newtown Market, Dec. 16.

SCOTTISH UNION,
Meeting of the Committee for the Relief of the Poor, in the County of Westmorland, for the year 1818.

Jubilee Pounds from the produce of the present year will be distributed amongst the poor.
Present for the meeting were: Charles Davies, Esq., in the Chair, and all the relief of the Poor and County Rates.

The assessment, with the exception of the supplementary parliamentary rates, is in the hands of the Assessor, Henri Herz, Esq., who has been appointed to receive the rates, followed by a period of 3 months from the date of the 1st of April, during which time the rates will be paid. The assessor is to have the power of collecting the rates and of prosecuting any person who shall fail to pay them. The rates are to be collected by the Assessor, and the Assessor is to have the power of keeping a record of the rates collected. The assessors are to have the power of entering into the houses of the ratepayers, and of recovering the rates from them if they shall not pay them. The assessor is to have the power of recovering the rates from the ratepayers if they shall not pay them. The rates are to be collected by the Assessor, and the Assessor is to have the power of keeping a record of the rates collected.