

respects to his Holiness private audience.

visit on Saturday to the ace her Majesty leaves sett was sentenced to be of Mrs. Manham, an and bestowed her affecation was circulated London metropolitan es, amounting in value numbers of them, viz, England notes are all circulated of another aptain C. E. Mangles, street to the South Wes-ing to several hundred paper parcel. Large covery of the notes, and own by his cognomen of ore. He died of dys-

penal settlement, where ce of imprisonment with ounce a successful razzia t the tribes of the Ham, r of whom had 40 killed eep and 1,800 camels fell

On the Northern fron-ked a hostile tribe, and ing a hasty escape. ves, the well-known tenor n Saturday last.

as the report that the King dication.

ce the death of Count de c Instruction under Louis has been issued, says the accepting the war declared ed that the Expeditionary possession of the Isles of Russian troops are on the te that the landing of the shire will be instantly fol-f co-operation on the part e Shah. Le Nord calls the Persian frontier a Corps of complicity of Russia with ents is the universal belief.

East that the affair will ent appearances would inf London Union is defaulter of Exchequer to-day. Ful-recover 700l. on a bill of Sadleir, on behalf of him-o-directors in the Swedish defence being that Sadleir Verdict for plaintiff as nt; and for defendant, as announced in Manchester George Ashworth and Co.

0,000.

from Nicker, was this day business in this city.

Mahon was accidentally e river near Curragh bridge.

don, has with his accustomed benevolence and liberality, ordered a very large supply of blankets and warm clothing of the best description, to be distributed at Christmas among the poor and labouring classes in and about Mount Shannon. We are in possession of facts showing the extensive and substantial nature of this good and estimable nobleman's bounty towards the poor, but we rather consult his own feelings by not going into any details on them.

The Earl of Listowel presided at a meeting held in Listowel on Tuesday, when it was decided to extend the railway from Tralee to Tarbert.

Operations have commenced this week on the Ennis line of railway at Corbally.

The Limerick and Castleconnell Railway will be opened next Summer.

A gas consumers' company is about to be established in Waterford with a capital of 6000l.

Mr. John Malcolmson has been elected a director of the Tramore Railway in place of Mr. Dargan resigned.
The brig, Eliza, from Llanelly for Cork was driven ashore at Tramore strand on Wednesday night—crew saved.

There are 669 paupers in the Tralee Workhouse.

Captain and Mrs. Blennerhassett gave a grand ball at Ballyseedy house on Wednesday evening.

Lieut.-Colonel Fitzgerald, has arrived at St. James's Square, London, from Carrigoran, County Clare.

Captain Lloyd, 57th Regt. and his bride, have arrived in this City.

With unfeigned concern we announce the death (which took place shortly before midnight on the 17th inst.) of Catherine A. Croker, the much beloved wife of John Croker, Esq., of Ballynagarde—bitterly regretted by her sorrowing family. The remains of this much lamented lady will be removed for interment at 4 o'clock, a.m., on Monday morning to the family vault at Cabercornan.

A man named Patrick Ryan, of Dickson's Lane, a labourer, in this city, returned from the floating docks, where he was employed, in a state of intoxication on the evening of the 16th inst.; he never rallied until he died the 17th. An inquest was held on Thursday on the body by Doctor Murphy, coroner. Verdict—"We find that deceased, Patrick Ryan, died from comea, produced by the abuse of spirituous liquors."

The glebe house at Sneem, county Kerry, was unroofed by the late storm. Several of the most valuable and ancient trees at Derryquin were uprooted at the same time.

Major and Mrs. Hammersly, 14th Regt. have arrived at Fermoy, from the house of the Dean of Kilfenora in this city.

Mrs. Fitzgerald, widow of Capt. G. H. Fitzgerald, and children, has arrived from Australia at the house of her mother, George's-street, in this city.

Eleven thousands pounds were given for the great portion of the Drumbanny Estate by Helenus White, Esq., his solicitor, Mr. Wm. Roche, being declared the purchaser in trust.

A race meeting will come off at Tipperary, over the Barronstown Course, on Friday, the 26th December (St. Stephen's day).

The Killocalla estate near Glyn, in the County of Limerick, has been purchased in the Incumbered Estates Court, by private Contract at £9,000 by Charles Humphrey Minchin, Esq. of Rutland, in the King's County.

The crew of the ship Edward, wrecked on the Cork coast, were stripped of their clothes by a lawless mob.

If the whole required was estimated for there be £1,000 excess. They ought to have estima-year, for £7,624, instead of £6,624, and he tol-at the time when they made that estimate that end of the year they would be £1,000 in deb-same would be the case this time, and the conse-would be that, out of these short comings the Inment Rate would be in debt. The commit-down the estimate; where 1s. 5d. or perhaps was necessary, they cut it down to 1s. 4d.

Mr. Bouchier said that it was too bad, aft-practical business men, as composed the co-who recommended this rating, had agreed with due consideration to all the interests of t-payers of Limerick, that their report should questioned by those who, perhaps, could not ten items of fractions.

Mr. Barry—That observation, which is utt-founded, comes with a very bad grace from M-chier, whose object would be to involve us in (partial cries of "hear, hear").

Mr. Cullen said that all the gas Committee them as a working capital was £767. They as much coal in stock as would bring them the 1st of February, and he would venture there publicly that there would be no loss to zens by that company, but that there would be fit, perhaps not as much as gentlemen might expect in pecuniary amount; but still a su-gain to the consumers of gas (hear, hear) and poration and his fellow citizens might be satis-the Committee were working this concern greatest care, caution, and economy (hear, he-how much they had saved their fellow citiz-he would say advisedly that only for this Co-who were now working zealously for the pub-rest the consumers would have to pay 25 per-gas more than they were now paying, and city would ultimately become the gainers by poration becoming merchants and manufact-gas.

The Mayor was about to put the resolutioadoption of the rate of 1s. 4d. when Mr. M'Sheehy moved as an amendment t-1s. 3d. for the next six months which was by Alderman Quinlivan.

On a division the estimate of the Coun-1s. 4d. in the pound was carried by a large

The Council then adjourned to the 1st of

In the case of Creagh v. Potter, heard Queen's Bench on Thursday, an offer was made for Mr. Creagh, to lodge £3000 for p-Mr. Potter's services as agent over Mr. Cr-tates in Clare.

Four convicts were sent off from this city joy prison on Wednesday.

Patrick Neale, a labourer, was found hanging on a tree in the woods of Castletov-county. It is supposed he was insane.

Sir William Donn will perform in this c-day next.

The Limerick Hunt will meet as follows Dec. 26, Elm-park gate; Tuesday, 30th Castle; Friday, Jan. 2d, Knockree; Tu-Ballinderry—at a quarter before 11 o'clock.

In the case of wife-killing, reported in o-jury returned a verdict of manslaughter agahus. The deceased woman was cruelly treat-husband—being obliged to leave her house after her confinement, and struck by him win the head.