

DEATHS.

At Ventnor, Isle of Wight, Charlotte Elizabeth, the beloved daughter of the Rt. Hon. Lord Ashdown—a sweet flower folding up at night, to open perfected in beauty, when the day breaks.

On the 22d inst. at Rathkeale, Anna Maria, relict of the late John Fitzgerald, Esq. of this city, solicitor.

In Upper Mount-street, Dublin, Isabella Sabina, the beloved wife of the Hon. and Rev. William O'Grady.

On Monday last, at her brother's house in Sexton-street, at an advanced age, Margaret, second daughter of the late James Perry, Esq. formerly of Clover hill, county Clare.

At New Birmingham, Major Hamilton Bagwell, aged 77.

At Caherconlish, Eliza, second daughter of John Mullarkey, Esq. Sub Inspector of Constabulary, aged 9 months.

At Allerton house, Tallaght, Della Sophia, aged 24, eldest daughter of the Rev. Meade P. Dennis; and his only son, Fitzmaude Tynte Dennis, Esq. Staff Assistant Surgeon, Coast of Africa.

On Christmas-day, aged 80, the Rev. John Rogers, of Glasgow, one of the oldest Presbyterian pastors in Ireland.

In Belfast, on Friday, 23d, Mr. Henry Norwell, late of Limerick.

At the Convent of Mercy, Peter's Cell, Sister Mary Jane Grant, daughter of Major Charles Grant, late of Aberdeen.

In Mary-street, Mrs. Eliza Kett.

At South Terrace, Cork, Penelope, wife of the Rev. Nicholas C. Dunscombe, rector of St. Nicholas.

At Belmont, Capt. Richard Newenham, late 68th Regt., son of the late Richard Devensher Newenham, Esq. of Cork.

Robert James, eldest son of the late R. J. O'Donoghue, Esq. of Killinardrish, county Cork.

At Passage West, Captain Plyer.

At Ardagh, of disease of the heart, J. F. Buchanan, Esq.

At Drumkeeran, Henry Trimble, Esq. Sub Inspector of Constabulary.

At Portarlington, Eliza Henrietta, relict of Capt. Charles C. Webb, 72d Highlanders.

At Butlerstown, William Phair, Esq. aged 66.

At Castleisland, aged 73, Mr. Edmond Moore.

At Ballinaslop, William Damerall, son of Henry Damerall, Esq. Supervisor of Inland Revenue.

Mary, wife of Mr. D. B. Egan, Waterford.

At Aughrim, at an advanced age, Mr. Thomas Pos.

Susanna, relict of the late Brabazon Bruncker, Esq. Belgreen, county Gavan.

In Belturbet, William John Seed, Esq. eldest son of the late Wm. Seed, Esq. Belfast.

Marianne Vaughan Hart, aged 13, daughter of G. V. Hart, Esq. Kilderry, county Donegal.

At New Ross, Eleanor Tottenham, wife of Edward Kough, Esq. and daughter of the late Rev. George W. Carr.

In Newry, Mr. John Little, printer and stationer.

At Strandville house, Clontarf, Andrew, son of Mr. P. Lawler, Henry-street.

In York-street, Eliza, wife of Mr. Richard Wright, Inland Revenue Officer.

Harriott, daughter of the late John Chancellor, Esq. Lower Sackville-street.

At Lawson Terrace, Sandycove, Henry Foster, aged 8 years, son of Lieut. Henry Foster, R.N.

In Blessington-street, Samuel Knox, Esq. solicitor.

Mrs. Teresa Parker, relict of Mr. John Parker, Duke-street.

At Nith Bank, Dumfries, N.B., Miss Kirkpatrick, aged 89, aunt to the Countess de Montijo, and grand aunt to the Empress of the French, and the Duke de Berwick and Alba.

At Gosport, Major Tyndall, West Middlesex Militia, formerly of the 51st Light Infantry, with which he served in the Peninsula.

At Park-gate-street, William Henry, son of William Robinson, of the Royal Phenix Iron works.

At Woburn-square, John H. Tayler, Esq. of Lincoln's-inn, barrister-at-law.

Mr. Alexander M'Cullum, the ingenious fossil collector in the valley of the Girvan, and better known as "Sandy M'Cullum."

At Sloane-street, Commander John Tracy, R.N. of the Magazines, Marchwood, Hampshire, aged 81.

At Gillingham, Kent, Edith Maria, daughter of the Rev. Charles Green, chaplain to the Forces, Chatham.

At Great Marlow, Bucks, the Rev. G. H. Peel, aged 76.

In Bloomsbury-square, Henry Morrell, Esq. aged 81.

At Swansea, Admiral Daniel Lawrence, aged 70.

Mr. John Blackburn, 23 years organist of Clapham church.

At Lower Berkeley-street, aged 71, Mary, relict of Vincent Henry Eyre, Esq.

Aged 80, Hyam Hyam, Esq. Upper Gower-street.

At the Free Church House, Lasswade, N.B. the Rev. Thomas Pitcairn.

At Arlington-street, Harriette, widow of Richard Riley, Esq. of the Admiralty, and daughter of Sir Wm. Beechey, R.A.

At Wilderness Park, the Marchioness of Camden.

In Berkeley-square, William Howe Windham, Esq. of Felbrigg Hall, Norfolk.

Henry Charles John Irvine, Esq. son of Major Charles Irvine, late of the Carbineers.

Thomas M'Quigg, Esq. Secretary to the Irish Post Company.

Anne, wife of Major Mould, Royal Engineers.

Suddenly, at King-street, Covent-garden, Robt. Debenham, Esq. of the firm of Debenham and Storr.

The wife of Captain Ashton.

Commander Charles Hawkins, R.N.

W. H. Armstrong, late 91st.

On Christmas-day, William Simpkin, Esq. of Great Surrey street, Blackfriars-road, formerly of the firm of Simpkin, Marshall, and Co of Stationers-hall-court, aged 83.

Lieut.-General James R. Arnold, late Royal Engineers.

At Inverness, Capt. Edward Fyera, h p Royal Engineers, son of the late Lieut-General William Fyera.

At Boulogne, Anna, relict of the late Major General Bowen, CB, of the Bengal Army.

At Villers Hellon, aged 83, James Smith, retired Captain French service, a native of the county Kildare.

Wrecked in the Rip Van Winkle, off Balaklava, Harry Croft, late Captain Royal Dragoons, and son of the late Col. Croft, of Stillington hall, York.

At Balaklava, from exposure to the weather and severe fatigue, working in the trenches, John Auchmuty, 57th Regt.

In Sentari hospital, Lieut. Josiah Holford, 28th Regt.

On her passage to England, Arabella, wife of Capt. C. W. Ford, 43d Regt. Bengal N.I.

In New York, Sarah, wife of the Rev. Thomas Handcock, B.A., Trinity College, Dublin, and late chaplain to her Majesty's forces in Canada.

At Toronto, C.W., Walter Butler Skelton, Esq. barrister-at-law, son-in-law of the late John Finn, Esq. of Ballymacgibbon, Mayo, and for a long period a member of the Connaught Bar.

At Drummondville, C.E., Anne, eldest daughter of the late Robert Willis, Esq. Barrack master at Laehine, and wife of James Willar, Esq. Postmaster at that place.

At Boulogne, James Browne, Esq. Claremount, Mayo, eldest son of the late Rt. Hon. Denis Browne.

At Quebec, William Horan, a native of Queen's county, Ireland. At Point Levi, Wm. Hall, Esq. aged 87 years.

At Sattara, Bombay Presidency, Edward Hunt, Esq. Lieutenant 1st Grenadier Regiment, Bombay N.I. son of the late Rev. Edward Hunt, rector of Benefield and Stoke Doyle, Northampton.

Chamber
Dec.

HAS rec Sell SHEEP, at next, 1st J
Terms Ca
F

Dec. 30.

A DAIR stands Lodged in Apply, e of wages
Fermoy, Co

THE H Limer Order, and Mr. M'N
ses.

Apply to gott-street,

TENDE
Infirm ary, 1855, description
Beef and Meal.
Bread, 2
Sealed T
the County the 8th Jan to enter in Particul
No Tenc

Jan. 30

AND No.
Mr. Corn
Applica
GERALD, D

200 C

Sport
THESE I be so
N. B. all other figure as ledged su the leading

ON 10
Jan

Either

No.

No.

No.

These

of the Pr

by Drain

for a Dai pasture

a good sl

3 Bed-ro

attached

there is

Herdsm

of Clond

the Post

Town of sufficien

to disch

A suff

each Fa

DAVEN

JAME

shew t

bounda