

Contract

THE Board of Sup County Gaol will,
take Contracts for Supply
120 TON
For the use of Sealed Tenders, with left at the Prison, up to 1 29th.
Board room, 23rd Augu

London and Lin Company

Office, Limer
NOTICE is hereby giv
General Meeting
Company, will be held next, at 2 o'Clock, p business.
RICH
August 26, 1262.

Cork and Limer
TIME

MONDAY 1st
ON and after the ab
Mid-Day Trains
and the Mid-Day and Ev to Charleville, will run a present.
For Particulars See Ti
Cork, 23rd August, 18

Cork and Limer
CHEAP EXCU

SUNDAY, 17
SUNDAY, 24
SUNDAY, 31

ON each of the ab
from Limerick
issued, by the Train le a.m., available to retur
leaving Cork at 6 o'Clock

FARES:—FIRST CLAS THIR
Tickets not transfer Train at any Station, sh
the ordinary fares.

Return Tickets will b
on those days, at the fo
First Class, 3s. ; Se Class, 1s. 6d., available
day.

Return Tickets will be low rates, between Cork
Cork, 7th August, 18

hen started were, the Erin, the Sham-
The Shamrock took the lead immestarting; the other two keeping pretty
ar. The Shamrock won the first prize, the second.

FOURTH RACE.

wherrys built in Cork harbour, open to t £3; second boat £1.
only one entry—The Peep o' Day, for

FIFTH RACE.

r oared amateur race, for boats of any ers excepted; but if the boat be made in strokes, a short outrigger on the bow and be permitted; to be rowed and steered amateurs who must be members of a wing club, or officers of the army and ing mechanics excluded). Gentlemen be fifth race. The cup to be won twice club before it becomes the property of of that club. Entrance, £1 each boat.
Cup, value £25; Presentation Medals,

the most interesting race of the day, the g between the City and the Lee Clubs.
which started were—
ca (Cork City Club)—Crew; John Moore, Keeffe, Richard O'Leary, Richard Down-Lagan, (Cox).
de (Lee Club)—Crew: R. Clarke, A.
Mr. O'Keeffe, S. M'Carthy, and Varian

spected that the Cork Harbour Rowing contest the race with the 'Electric'; but cause the boat did not run.
started from Tobin's point, and kept well a while; at Passage the City men were in t were passed by the Lee men, who grad ground till, when passing the Advice, boat's length a head of the City men.— n-kept in front during the remainder of
In rounding the flag-boat they were hotly
the City men, who gained some ground, nable to come up with their opponents.
at won.

SIXTH RACE.

a sculling race, for which five boats Robert, Glenbrook Club; Milner, City of ard Parker, Glenbrook; D. M'Donald, Cronin, Lee.
ker took the lead from the beginning, and
ce. Mr. Cronin came in a good second.
conclusion of the races, the sport of "pig was entered upon, and at nine o'clock there lay of fireworks from a vessel moored off
The regatta will be continued this day, e of a more interesting character than it lay, as the prizes to be competed for are ble.

at present in possession of Garibaldi, is the eastern coast of Sicily, 55 miles from
It has from 60,000 to 80,000 inhabitants, of the most considerable maritime towns
d.
old, who was so brutally assaulted at Puck ain been annoyed and all but assaulted by rs who are bringing disgrace on the county.
parties has been made amenable.
fast Junction Railway has declared a f 4 per cent.; the Dublin and Drogheda dividend of 5 per cent.

son of the Right Hon. Lord Inchiquin, Dromoland Castle, to the Hon. Emily Holmes A'Court, second daughter of the Right Hon. Lord Heytesbury.

At Columbo, Ceylon, on the 8th July, 1862, G. Denis Browne
Harrison, Esq., of Kandy, only son of George Harrison, Esq., of the Aske, county Wicklow, to Frances Tazeena, second daughter of Colonel R. Waller, of the Bengal Horse Artillery.
In London, Matthew Casson Browne, Esq., son of the late Very Rev. Peter Browne, Dean of Ferns, to Josephine, daughter of the late William Swan, Esq., of North Frederick-street, Dublin.

At St. James's, Westbourne-terrace, London, Rear-Admiral
James J. Stopford, son of the late Admiral the Hon. Sir Robert Stopford, G.C.B., to Fanny, daughter of the late Lieut.-Colonel Gubbins, G.B.

At St. Stephen's, Paddington, London, Lieut.-Colonel Robt.
Lewis Taylor, C.B., Bombay Staff Corps, and Political Agent at Jeypore, to Emma, daughter of the late William C. Bruce, Esq., Bombay Civil Service, and widow of Major E. H. Simpson, 2nd Regt. Light Cavalry.

At Torquay, Norman Fitzgerald Uniacke, Esq., 60th Royal Rifles, to Mary Augusta Molyneux-Seel, daughter of the late Captain J. Winsloe Philipps, 7th Hussars.

At Torquay, George Robert Saunders, Esq., 5th Lancers, to Laura Mary, daughter of the late Captain James Johnstone, 7th Fusiliers.

At Kensington, London, Major-General George Huyshe,
C.B., H. M.'s Indian Army, to Rosa, widow of the Rev. W. M.
Barnes, and daughter of John Savery Brock, Esq., of Detroit, in the Island of Guernsey.

At Whiteparish, Frederick Ashe Bradburne, Esq., to Mary
Anna, eldest daughter of Captain Trollope, of Brickworth, Wilts; and, at the same time and place, the Rev. George G.
P. Glossop, rector of West Dean, Wilts, to Eliza Maria, youngest daughter of Captain Trollope.

At Reimua, New Zealand, Arthur Henry Lewis, Esq., Lieutenant and Adjutant 65th Regt., son of Edward Lewis, Esq., Violetstown House, county of Westmeath, to Lucy, daughter of Robert Kelly, Esq., Auckland, New Zealand, late Captain in the 33rd Regt.

At Brussels, Lawrence Hare Finn, Esq., of Dresden, to Julia Agnes, daughter of the late Sir Thomas Henry Estridge Durant, of Scottow Hall, Norfolk.

At the British Embassy, Paris, Augustus E. Warren, Esq., Captain 78th Highlanders, to Emily, daughter of Lieutenant-Colonel William Robert, B. Smith, Unattaced, and late of the 15th Regt.

DEATHS.

On Thursday, the 21st instant, at Featherstone-street,
London, Jonathan Bennett, Esq., of the Royal Engineer Department; in this city, aged 56 years, sincerely and deeply regretted. Mr. Bennett was a gentleman of agreeable and affable manner, active business habits, and in the discharge of his official duties gained the respect and esteem of numerous friends, who much deplore his loss.

August 26th, at Limerick, Marianne, wife of Mr. George F.
Payne, formerly of Dublin, and eldest daughter of Mr. James Delany, of Westmoreland-street, Dublin. Her remains will be interred on Friday, the 29th inst.

At the residence of his son, Thomas Payne, Esq., Meadowlands, near Tralee, Mr. Robert Payne, at the advanced age of 94 years.

August 24, suddenly, at his residence, 13, Grangegorman-lane, Dublin, Mr. Joseph Tommins, for many years connected with the newspaper press of Dublin. His unexpected death is deeply deplored by his family and a large circle of friends and acquaintances.

In Dublin, John Jones, Esq., ex-Sheriff of that city.
At Cavan, Catherine, relict of the late Abraham Kidd, Esq., of Armagh.

At Kilballyhne Park, co. Carlow, John Nolan, Esq., J.P.
At Rosebine Lodge, county Donegal, Ralph Mansfield, the infant son of John S. Charley, Esq.

At Lowndes-square, London, J. Lewis Ricardo, Esq., M.P. for Stoke-upon-Trent.

At Great Malvern, Sibylla Christina, daughter of the late Charles Grant, Esq., formerly M.P. for Inverness-shire, and Director of the East India Company.

At Cassiobury Park, the Countess of Essex.
At Henrietta-street, Cavendish-square, London, Flora Catherine, daughter of Vice-Admiral Manners.

At Crawley House, Bedfordshire, Arabella Emily, wife of Captain Orlando R. H. Orlebar, late 28th Regt.

At Scarborough, Captain Robert Cooke, late 6th Lancers.
At Ipswich, the Rev. Joseph Page, B.A., of Cambridge.

At Waldron Castle, Torquay, Colonel Charles Thoresby, of the Retired Bengal Service.

At Campbellford, Canada West, Thomas Edward Tildesley, Esq., son of the late Lieut. Thomas Tildesley, R.N.
At Linburn, near Edinburgh, Selina, wife of Dr. Cowan.
On his passage to England, the Rev. Henry Carmichael, LL.D., of Porphyry, Seaham, New South Wales.