

HORSE SHOW

's Popular Fixture

nificent Success

rick Horse Show, which has recognised as one of the pre-tions of its kind in the ned yesterday in a blaze of early hour all roads led to and by the time the Jumping had started the attendance p to the figures attained in s year. The unstinted sup- by the city and county justi- ost sanguine expectations of tee and the able Secretary, arry.

ral entries were approxi-), and the high standard of isplayed in all sections made task an unenviable one.

the bloodstock came in for on, and here it was pleasing entries were wel up on last es.

d Dunraven Cup for the best untress in the Show, was won K. Bowen, Ballina Parke, Cap- n the four-year-old bay geld-

Marcus also captured the aney Cup for best in ladies' aven Cup for the best hunter in County Limerick went to , Kilmallock, with the gelding with a business turn of mind and exhibits were a host es. A sign of the times was terest evinced by young and many and varied mechanical

HORSES.

Cup for Champion Hunter— Bowen, Ballinparke, Cappo-

NUN'S DEATH

Rev. Mother M. B. Berkery

Interment in Limerick

The interment took place yesterday, following Requiem High Mass, of Mother M. Benedict Berkery, who was a member of the Presentation Order, Limerick, for close on sixty years. She was a native of Caherconlish, Co. Limerick, and spent all her religious life in Limerick.

The Bishop, Most Rev. Dr. Keane, presided at the obsequies. The celebrant was Rev. D. O'Brien, St. Munchin's College; Rev. P. J. Lee, do., deacon; Rev. D. Martin, do., sub-deacon; Rev. J. Wall, P.P., Croom, master of ceremonies. Chanters—Rev. Dr. Cowper, C.C., and Rev. W. O'Grady, C.C.

The clergy in the choir were—Very Rev. W. Canon O'Dwyer, P.P., V.F., Very Rev. T. Canon Hogan, P.P., V.F.; Rev. Father McCormack, P.P., Caherconlish; Rev. J. Wallace, P.P., Kildimo; Rev. C. O'Sullivan, P.P., Cratloe; Rev. M. Moloney, Diocesan Secretary; Rev. J. Chawke, C.C.; Rev. W. Creed, C.C.; Rev. B. Gill, C.C.; Rev. J. Crowley, C.C.; Rev. D. Godfrey, C.C.; Rev. M. Quinlan, C.C.; Rev. M. Tynan, C.C.; Rev. Father O'Dea, Coolderry; Rev. Father Gilmartin, Caherconlish; Rev. M. Purtill, St. Munchin's College; Rev. E. O'Dea, St. Munchin's College; Rev. J. Dillon (Wales), Rev. E. Laffan, Chinese Mission; Rev. T. Carter, C.S.Sp.; Rev. Fr. Lyons, African Mission; Rev. J. Carr, C.S.S.R.; Rev. J. Ward, S.J.; Rev. J. Guinane, S.J.; Rev. Father Adrian, O.F.M.; Dom Winoc Martens O.S.B.; Rev. P. Larkin, O.P.

Chief mourners—Misses Kathleen and Eileen Berkery (nieces), John Berkery (nephew), P. Berkery, T. Berkery, P. Marshall, Mrs. Sampson, Miss Sampson, P. Gilhooly, Miss Gilhooly, and Miss D. O'Brien (relatives).

IRISH EGGS

New Regulations This

The Agricultural 1939, and the A (Eggs) Regulations, on the 1st September new legislation is t tribution of eggs, s only fresh, clean and to consumers on t markets. The egg by the provisions, w ence for him to sell to wash or steep eg cleaning them, or t under conditions w the eggs from wet tamination. The dea for sale to wholesa saler who acquires e sale to retailers on obliged to register e ligations imposed o tered dealer is requ eggs within 72 hour tion, and the regist among many other within 48 hours fr and dispose of them hours. He must n quality eggs as such code mark on egg; during which they premises. The reta reasonable assurance than those marke purchased from a are fresh when he order still further mer the retailer is all eggs received by and to mark as "se found to belong to tailer who acquires producer is also o eggs (unless alread the producer) with