MURDERED LIMERICKMAN TO BE REMEMBERED ON SUNDAY

A memorial to a Limerick man murdered by British Crown Forces in 1921 will be unveiled on Easter Sunday as part of the Easter Commemoration ceremonies.

Vol. Joseph O'Donoghue was shot on March 7th, on the same night that Seoire Clancy and Ex-Mayor Michael O'Callaghan were murdered by the Black and Tans because of their support for efforts to achieve Irish Freedom. A commemorative plaque will be unveiled at the spot where O'Donoghue was killed on the Roxbora Road. The ceremony at 12:30 p.m. on Sunday 19th, April, is organised in conjunction with the Limerick Branch of the National Graves Association. An oration will be given by Republican Sinn Vice-
