Two Limerick Men Killed in Rail Smash Near Cahirciveen

TWO Limerick men, Cornelius Kelly (53), single, 66, Carey's Road, an engine driver, and Frank Fahy (25), single, 10, Innishannon, a railway guard, were killed, and a third man, William Grant, 52, of Monastery Road, Waterford, was killed in a railway smash that occurred in the early hours of this morning near Cahirciveen.

They were engaged on the last "best special" run of the season when the train plunged over the 50 ft. viaduct into the river Suir.

Medical And Surgical Services: Minister's Statement

Mr. John McCormack, the Great Artistry: As A Singer

It was the last run of the season and the train was returning from Cork and had just passed through Cork and was approaching the viaduct near Cahirciveen when the accident occurred.

The accident occurred at 4.30 this morning. At the time the Mallow train was on its way to Waterford. The two men were on the train when it derailed and fell into the river. One man was killed instantly and the other died later in the hospital.

Local Authorities And Sewerage Facilities

The Minister for Local Government and Public Works, Mr. Eogan O'Dwyer, said: "The Government has been informed of the accident and will take all necessary steps to prevent such disasters in the future."

Bright and Varied "Crescent Times"

The "Crescent Times" is a weekly newspaper published in Limerick, Ireland. It is known for its bright and varied content. The newspaper has been in circulation since 1837 and is one of the oldest newspapers in Ireland.

National Gallop Horse Racing Festival 1953

National Gallop Horse Racing Festival 1953 was a major event held in Limerick, Ireland. It was held in February of that year and attracted a large number of people from all over the country.

BETTE

BETTE is a popular brand of women's clothing and accessories. The company was founded in 1919 and has been operating ever since. It is known for its high-quality products and innovative designs.

The Carnival Rag

The Carnival Rag is a popular song and dance that was originated in Limerick, Ireland. It is known for its lively music and catchy rhythm.