

£150 For Case After Brawl

On the night of the 15th a farmer received a verdict for £150 for a claim for damages in the County Court before Judge...

...sat down alongside him. The plaintiff then said that he was going to Limerick for a purpose and then used a vulgar expression in front of the defendant. She left the car and slammed the door. When he attempted to get into the car the plaintiff caught him by the shoulders and hit him with a bottle. He had only three bottles of beer but the plaintiff appeared to be drunk. A good few drinks in him, the plaintiff again caught him by the shoulders after both had left the car and they struggled for some time and fell against the wall. It was not true to say that he was pushing the plaintiff but he did push him against the wall.

Mr. Binchy, witness said that the language was definitely vulgar while the girl was present. He would not say what broke the defendant's nose.

SAW NO BLOW
Mr. Doran said he was standing by the car but he did not see any blow.

WATCHING A DESTRUCTIVE LIMERICK FIRE

Portion of the huge crowd watching the big fire which gutted the stores of Messrs. J. H. Roche and Sons Ltd., millers and grain merchants, at William Street, Limerick, on Sunday last and destroyed large quantities of flour and grain.

C.B. PAST PUPILS' FARMINGNOTES Mulcahy Orchestra

WEST DEPU PARTI

IN the course of the... of the Athlone... Fail, which... January 22... bert, T.D.,... Limerick),... disturbances... area.

Whatever... hold, he... against the... solution of... it will be... urgent need... immediate... avert the... our survival

PRIMARY
Every poss... be avail... fact that... ility for... state of... the British... used its nu... through th... Obviously... most essen... undoing of... the immed... British for... have no le... be there, n... occupying... powers in... defiance of... majority of... countries

Having... to mem... Nations Or... Deputy... of... speaking... the... method